This student-friendly, highly illustrated text engages students and, by doing so, eases students into readily applying public health principles along with evidence-based practice, nursing science, and skills that promote health, prevent disease, as well as protect at-risk populations. What the 8th edition of this text does best is assist students in broadening the base of their knowledge and skills that they can employ in both the community and acute care settings while the newly enhanced ancillary resources offers interactive tools that allow students of all learning styles to master public health nursing.

Handbook of Research on Examining Global Peacemaking in the Digital Age Cook, Bruce L., 2017-11-30 Violent behavior has become deeply integrated into modern society and it is an unavoidable aspect of human nature. Examining peacemaking strategies through a critical and academic perspective can assist in resolving violence in societies around the world. The Handbook of Research on Examining Global Peacemaking in the Digital Age is a pivotal reference source for the latest research findings on the utilization of peacemaking in media, leadership, and religion. Featuring extensive coverage on relevant areas such as human rights, spirituality, and the Summer of Peace, this publication is an ideal resource for policymakers, universities, and colleges, graduate-level students, and organizations seeking current research on the application of conflict resolution and international negotiation.

Risking Contact W. Royce Adams, 1997 In this college reader, the author presents a collection of essays that take a range of positions on controversial issues of the day such as prejudice, human rights, religion, and the media. The readings represent a wide range of ethnic, cross-cultural, and gender voices that will challenge readers to make contact with the issues and develop their own positions. Among the voices students will encounter in this book are those of Shelby Steele, the Christian Coalition, Thomas Keneally, Louis Farrakhan, Dinesh D. Souza, Merlin Stone, Deborah Fallows, Robert McNamara, Patricia J. Williams, and Andrea Dworkin. After a brief introduction to critical reading, thinking, and writing, the book presents a range of reading selections in each thematic chapter. Each selection is complemented by apparatus that offers the author's own combination of a voice that engages students plus eminently practical advice and clear pedagogy. Appendices on essay format, quoting, and documenting sources, and using research sources complete the book.
