Melungeon Portraits Tamara L. Stachowicz, 2018-04-12 At a time when concepts of racial and ethnic identity increasingly define how we see ourselves and others the ancestry of Melungeons a Central Appalachian multiracial group believed to be of Native American African and European origins remains controversial Who is Melungeon how do we know and what does that mean In a series of interviews with individuals who claim Melungeon heritage the author finds common threads that point to shared history appearance and values and explores how we decide who we are and what kind of proof we need

The Bedroom Michelle Perrot, 2018-08-21 An erudite and highly enjoyable exploration of the most intriguing of personal spaces from Greek and Roman antiquity through today The winner of France's prestigious Prix Femina Essai 2009 this imaginative and captivating book explores the many dimensions of the room in which we spend so much of our lives the bedroom Eminent cultural historian Michelle Perrot traces the evolution of the bedroom from the time of the ancient Greeks and Romans to today examining its myriad forms and functions from royal king's chamber to child's sleeping quarters to lovers' trysting place to monk's cell The history of women so eager for a room of their own and that of prisons where the principal cause of suffering is the lack of privacy is interwoven with a reflection on secrecy walls the night and its mysteries Drawing from a wide range of sources including architectural and design treatises private journals novels memoirs and correspondences Perrot's engaging book follows the many roads that lead to the bedroom birth sex illness death in its endeavor to expose the most intimate nocturnal side of human history Georgian Portraits Martin Demant

Frederiksen, Katrine Bendtsen Gotfredsen, 2017-10-27 Georgian Portraits chronicles everyday life in the Republic of Georgia in the decade that followed the Rose Revolution of 2003 Recent anthropological developments argue for the use of afterlives as an analytical notion through which to understand processes of socio-political change Based on a series of portraits Martin Demant Frederiksen and Katrine Bendtsen Gotfredsen employ the theory of social afterlives to examine the role of revolution in the formation of a modern Georgia The book contributes to a deeper understanding of life in the aftermath of political reform depicting the hopefulness of the Georgian population but also the subsequent return to political disillusionment which lead them to a revolution in the first place

Portraits of Wollstonecraft Eileen M. Hunt, 2023-09-21 One of The Tablet's Books of the Year 2021 Portraits of Wollstonecraft collects and introduces 102 texts and artifacts that document Mary Wollstonecraft's public reception in art literature philosophy and feminist politics Each portrait is a milestone in her depiction in culture From William Blake's 1803 poem Mary to Maggi Hambling's contentious sculpture in 2020 these sources validate the monumental place Wollstonecraft holds in not just one but many canons The color images in Part I Public Sightings trace her earliest reception in portraiture from 1785 to 1804 with detailed analysis paired with each of the illustrations Arranged chronologically these landmark images are followed by the reviews of Wollstonecraft's books that appeared during her lifetime in Jamaica Madrid Amsterdam and London Part II Global Afterlives examines her multifarious posthumous reception and features diary entries excerpts from English language biographies letters articles and introductions to her books From Olive Schreiner's introduction to the Rights of Women composed in Cape Town in 1889 to the translator's preface to the first Czech edition of A Vindication of the Rights of Woman in 1904 they showcase an impressive sweep of cross cultural perspectives on her life and writings The sources in Part III Making an International Icon chart the depth and breadth of her legacies on a global scale Feminists philosophers and social scientists from Ruth Benedict to Virginia Sapiro to Amartya Sen have written and spoken with conviction about the emotional power of looking into the eyes of the author of the Rights of Woman This section includes major thinkers from across the 19th and 20th centuries who responded to Wollstonecraft's theories on virtue love gender education and rights Mary Shelley Emma Goldman Virginia Woolf Simone de Beauvoir Betty Friedan Susan Moller Okin Barbara Johnson and Martha Nussbaum We see how Wollstonecraft gained traction in feminist politics both as a philosopher and as a transcultural icon of the cause beginning with English suffragist Millicent Fawcett's centennial edition of the Rights of Woman in 1891 and extending through feminist art in The Paris Review during the age of MeToo Assembling responses from Ireland Continental Europe North and South America and across the former colonies of the British Empire this one of a kind collection tells a compelling story of Wollstonecraft's watershed contributions to human rights debates throughout the modern and contemporary world

Nightmare Dina Khapaeva, 2012-11-13 An analysis of the novels of Maturin Gogol Dostoevsky Mann Lovecraft and Pelevin through the prism of their interest in investigating the nature of the nightmare reveals the unstudied features of the nightmare as a mental state and traces the mosaic of coincidences leading from literary experiments to today's culture of nightmare consumption Re-Presenting Disability Richard Sandell, Jocelyn Dodd, Rosemarie

Garland-Thomson, 2013-09-13 Re Presenting Disability addresses issues surrounding disability representation in museums and galleries a topic which is receiving much academic attention and is becoming an increasingly pressing issue for practitioners working in wide ranging museums and related cultural organisations This volume of provocative and timely contributions brings together twenty researchers practitioners and academics from different disciplinary institutional and cultural contexts to explore issues surrounding the cultural representation of disabled people and more particularly the inclusion as well as the marked absence of disability related narratives in museum and gallery displays The diverse perspectives featured in the book offer fresh ways of interrogating and understanding contemporary representational practices as well as illuminating existing related debates concerning identity politics social agency and organisational purposes and responsibilities which have considerable currency within museums and museum studies Re Presenting Disability explores such issues as In what ways have disabled people and disability related topics historically been represented in the collections and displays of museums and galleries How can newly emerging representational forms and practices be viewed in relation to these historical approaches How do emerging trends in museum practice designed to counter prejudiced stereotypical representations of disabled people relate to broader developments in disability rights debates in disability studies as well as shifting interpretive practices in public history and mass media What approaches can be deployed to mine and interrogate existing collections in order to investigate histories of disability and disabled people and to identify material evidence that might be marshalled to play a part in countering prejudice What are the implications of these developments for contemporary collecting How might such purposive displays be created and what dilemmas and challenges are curators educators designers and other actors in the exhibition making process likely to encounter along the way How do audiences disabled and non disabled respond to and engage with interpretive interventions designed to confront undercut or reshape dominant regimes of representation that underpin and inform contemporary attitudes to disability

Joyce's Non-Fiction Writings Katherine Ebury,James Alexander Fraser,2018-05-02 This book presents a fundamental shift in the way we approach discuss and evaluate Joyce s non fictional writings Rather than simply proposing or applying new methodologies it historicises and reconceives the critical assumptions that have shaped scholarly approaches to these works for over half a century showing that non fiction as a categorical distinction no matter how sensible it appears crumbles under closer inspection Bringing into conversation a group of key Joyce scholars this volume acts not only as a vital reimagining of our critical relationship to Joyce s non fiction but as a contribution to similar debates being carried out across the broad range of modernist studies

Victorians and Videogames Lin Young,Brooke Cameron,2025-10-30 Victorians and Videogames will examine how games interact with nineteenth century genres aesthetics and literary themes as a means of engaging critiquing or challenging their original contexts In essence this collection will consider the ways in which embodied user driven storytelling can impact new and challenging engagements with the nineteenth century in the contemporary world This book contains four categories that summarize major trends in nineteenth century oriented games The first section Ludic and Narrative Intertextuality examines games that directly adapt nineteenth century texts considering how ludic and literary elements work together to produce new commentary on the original texts Second Genre and Character re Creation will examine games that are more thematically engaged with the nineteenth century Third Navigation Colonization and Exploration examines the ways in which players move and interact with game environments and how game design itself can often evoke social systems or the politics of imperialist conquest Finally Science Systems and Technologies will examine how contemporary games engage with nineteenth century innovations both good and bad in science and technology In this way the sections begin with more explicit nineteenth century engagements and build to more theoretical and subtextual ones

Allied Encounters Marisa Escobar,2019-07-02 Honorable Mention for the 2019 American Association for Italian American Book Prize 20 21st Centuries Allied Encounters uniquely explores Anglo American and Italian literary cinematic and military representations of World War II Italy in order to trace critique and move beyond the gendered paradigm of redemption that has conditioned understandings of the Allied Italian encounter. The arrival of the Allies' global forces in an Italy torn by civil war brought together populations that had long mythologized one another yet liberation did not prove to be the happy ending touted by official rhetoric. Instead of a honeymoon the Allied Italian encounter in cities such as Naples and Rome appeared to be a lurid affair where the black market reigned supreme and prostitution was the norm. Informed by the historical context as well as by their respective traditions these texts become more than mirrors of the encounter or generic allegories. Instead they are sites in which to explore repressed traumas that inform how the occupation unfolded and is remembered including the Holocaust the American Civil War and European colonialism as well as individual traumatic events like the massacre of the Fosse Ardeatine and the mass civilian rape near Rome by colonial soldiers.

Introducing Charlotte

Charke Philip Edward Baruth, 1998. The notorious troublemaker Charlotte Charke worked as a novelist autobiographer and strolling actress. But it was as a cross dresser both on stage and off that she scandalized eighteenth century England. Known as Mr Charles Brown she lived openly with another woman for nearly a decade. Charke daughter of Colley Cibber the English playwright and poet laureate 1740 lived a life of masquerade. Her autobiography is a fascinating document of low and middle class life in the 1700s and is explored in some detail by Philip E Baruth. Other contributors to this collection look at Charke her famous family and her place within stage and cross dressing traditions. Felicity A Nussbaum provides a thought provoking afterword on the current state of Charke criticism A Time to Tell Eric S. Christianson,1998-01-01 Using a variety of approaches from art criticism to structuralist analysis this book draws out largely neglected narrative elements of Qoheleth's text including the strategies of framing autobiography and the use of Solomon In locating the self as the central concern of this narrative Christianson shows that although Qoheleth passionately observes the world's transience he desires that his own image be fixed and remembered His story is thereby concerned with identity and the formation of character In the guise of Solomon that concern is almost satirical and somewhat playful Through the strategy of the frame narrative the complex relations of all such elements are brought into question particularly the reader's relation to the framed material as well as the relation of the framer to the one framed Stellar Transformations Steven Rybin,2022-01-14 Stellar Transformations Movie Stars of the 2010s explores stardom performance and their cultural contexts in ways that remind us of the alluring magic of stars while also bringing to the fore the changing ways in which viewers engaged with them during the last decade Stellar Transformations looks at the roles stars played in the complex and turbulent decade of the 2010s and in doing so will offer useful case studies for scholars and students engaged in the study of stardom celebrity and performance in cinema

Romanticism and the Museum E. Peacocke,Mo Malek,2014-11-25 Romanticism and the Museum argues that museums were integral to Britain's understanding of itself as a nation in the wake of the French Revolution It features Wordsworth Scott Edgeworth and literary periodicals featuring Byron and Horace Smith Wilkie Collins, Vera Caspary and the Evolution of the Casebook Novel A.B. Emrys,2014-01-10 Wilkie Collins was one of the most popular novelists during England's Victorian era While Collins scholarship has often focused on social issues this critical study explores his formal ingenuity particularly the novel of testimony constructed from epistolary fiction trial reports and prose monologue His innovations in form were later mirrored by Vera Caspary who adapted The Woman in White three times into contemporary fiction This text explores how the formal dialogue between Collins and Caspary has linked sensation fiction with noir thrillers and film noir Masculinities in Chaucer Peter G. Beidler,1998 Representations of masculinity in Chaucer's works examined through modern critical theory How does Chaucer portray the various male pilgrims in the Canterbury Tales How manly is Troilus To what extent can the spirit and terminology of recent feminist criticism inform the study of Chaucer's men Is there such a thing as a distinct Chaucerian masculinity or does it appear in a multitude of different forms These are some of the questions that the contributors to this ground breaking and provocative volume attempt to answer using a diversity of critical methods and theories Some look at the behaviour of noble or knightly men some at clerics or businessmen or churls others examine the so called masculine qualities of female characters and the feminine qualities of male characters Topics include the Host's bourgeois masculinity the erotic triangles operating in the Miller's Tale why Chaucer diminished the sexuality of Sir Thopas and whether Troilus is effeminate impotent or an example of true manhood PETER G BEIDLER is the Lucy G Moses Distinguished Professor of English at Lehigh University Contributors MARK ALLEN PATRICIA CLARE

Johnson, 2006-12-05 In his 1896 short story The Figure in the Carpet James sets forth a riddle for his critical readers as he approaches the major phase in his career He imagines a fictional novelist Hugh Vereker who tantalizes his critics with the idea of a single thread a design woven throughout all of his major works hidden in plain sight The design Vereker says is as obvious as a foot stuck in a shoe but the distinguished novelist is convinced no one will ever see it One critic Corvick however during a trip to India has an astonishing flash of revelation he sees the figure and the discovery is immense When Corvick returns and shares his epiphany with Vereker the novelist assures him that his discovery is precisely accurate there is not a single wrong note But Corvick dies in a road accident before he can write his definitive book on Vereker's secret design My study will show the reader that there is a distinct figure in the carpet in the works of Henry James himself But James only uses the figure in a select group of his major novels and tales all six of which we will examine here These major works are all experimental and radical and show James allowing himself the artistic freedom to follow his own arcane and personal path The pattern is fully manifested in The Turn of the Screw in 1897 and remains the consistent thread all the way through the Masters final completed novel The Golden Bowl in 1904 I began writing about the relation of writing to painting and how James translates structural aspects of the silent art of painting into prose James borrows both silence and simultaneity from the painter his brother of the brush and experiments with their narrative equivalents I saw with increasing clarity that James admiration of the powers of painting led him into depicting nonverbal aspects of consciousness in language Finally I saw the whole system lock into place everything fit The figure in the carpet was revealed as visible silence With only a minute adjustment of focus I suddenly saw that James narrative pictorial structure that I had been tracing all these years constitutes the figure in the carpet itself The pictorial pattern literally governs every line and chooses every word James brings the reader into the full consciousness of his character by taking us into the silent radiation of the visible As readers we experience the silence before language the silence between words and the silence after language In this book I will show my reader how the figure in the carpet operates as the controlling design in every square inch of text in each of James most famous novels and tales Of 'truths Impossible to Put in Words' Rose-Carol Washton Long, 2009 This volume of essays relate Max Beckmann's work to the tangible circumstances of its production and reception The essays contextualise aspects of Beckmann's early middle and late career by way of detailed reference to contemporary music film philosophy theatre history sports and exile Heroines and Heroes: Symbolism, Embodiment, Narratives & Identity Christopher Hart, 2008
