INTRODUCTION TO ACCOUNTING

DEFINITION

By the Accounting Standards Council, Accounting is a service activity. The accounting function is to provide quantitative information, primarily financial in nature, about economic entities, that is intended to be useful in making economic decision.

By the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)

Accounting is the art of recording, classifying and summarizing in a significant manner and in terms of money, transactions and events which are in part at least of a financial character and interpreting the results thereof.

By the American Accounting Association (AAA)

Accounting is the process of identifying, measuring and communicating economic information to permit informed judgment and decision by users of the information

THREE IMPORTANT ACTIVITIES

1. Identifying
2. Measuring
3. Communicating

IDENTIFYING

- Identifying
 - The process of analyzing events and transactions to determine whether or not they will be recognized. Only accountable events are recognized. In general, accountable events and transactions should be:
 -  Related to the business,
