Financial Fitness for Life Jerry Mason, Jerald W. Mason, 1999 Mason gives readers the practical steps needed to identify what takes priority in their lives and then to become financially fit to be able to meet those money goals He also shows investors how to have a healthy financial lifestyle by breaking money management into easy steps Exercises on each step can be completed in less than two hours

Financialization Of Daily Life Randy Martin, 2002-10-18 While trillions of dollars came and went in the stock market boom of the 1990s the image of every man and woman a CEO may turn out to be the era's lasting legacy Business news once reserved to specialized papers or sections of the larger news of the day came to the forefront in cable television and in cultural images of how ordinary people through the internet and other avenues could not only master their financial life but move money and equity around with the ease of a financial titan Financialization of Daily Life looks at how this transformation occurred and how it is just now becoming a significant and troubling aspect of our political and cultural life Randy Martin takes us through all of the aspects of our financialization He examines how the shift in economic life arose not only from changes in culture but also from new policy priorities that emphasize controlling inflation over promoting growth He offers a close reading of self help literature that teaches parents how to rear financially literate children and to instruct adults in the fundamentals of fiscal management He examines just what a society that treats financial investment as a national past time really looks like and how that society is transforming the world In a country rocked by scandals in accounting and banking the identification ordinary citizens make with and the risk with which they engage in the stock market calls into question the very basis of our economic system Randy Martin spells out in clear terms the implications our financial doings and undoing have for the way we organize our lives and especially our money

Tips from the Top Edie Milligan, 2002-12 The first book to consolidate advice from a wide range of the country's top practicing personal finance experts into one comprehensive and insightful money guide. Rather than getting one celebrity financial journalist's advice on everything from mortgages to mutual funds, readers will get targeted advice from the top specialist in all areas of personal finance advice that has actually proven to work over time. Tips From the Top: Targeted Advice From America's Top Money Minds will be the first comprehensive money book to provide readers with hidden gems of financial advice from a panel of the country's top practicing experts in all areas of personal finance. Instead of readers getting Suze Orman's advice on everything from kids and money to long-term care insurance, readers will get tax advice from the country's top tax attorneys, tax accountants, investment advice from the leading investment advisors, insurance advice from the top insurance specialists, and so on. The advice readers get will not belabor the same old advice rehashed in countless other finance books but rather will provide readers with those valuable bits of wisdom that practicing experts have found to be useful to their clients over the years. The book will cover every topic related to money about which families and individuals need guidance. Experts will be identified by their professional standing within the organizations that issue their credentials, certifications, and licenses.

The Best American Magazine Writing 2017 Sid Holt, The American Society of Magazine Editors, 2017-12-19. With the work of reporters under fire worldwide, this year's anthology of National Magazine Award finalists and winners is a timely reminder of the power of journalism. The pieces included here explore the fault lines in American society. Shane Bauer's visceral My Four Months as a Private Prison Guard; Mother Jones and Sarah Stillman's depiction of the havoc wreaked on young people's lives when they are put on sex offender registries; The New Yorker examines controversial criminal justice practices. And responses to the shocks of the recent election include Matt Taibbi's irreverent dispatches from the campaign trail; Rolling Stone's George Saunders's transfixing account of Trump's rallies; The New Yorker and Andrew Sullivan's fears for the future of democracy; New York In: other considerations of the political scene; Jeffrey Goldberg talks through Obama's foreign policy legacy with the former president; The Atlantic and Gabriel Sherman analyzes how Roger Ailes's fall sheds light on conservative media; New York Linking personal stories to the course of history; Nikole Hannah-Jones looks for a school for her daughter in a rapidly changing, racially divided Brooklyn; New York Times Magazine and Pamela Colloff explores how the 1966 University of Texas Tower mass shooting changed the course of one survivor's life; Texas Monthly A selection of Rebecca Solnit's Harper's commentary ranges from a writer on death row to the isolation at the heart of conservatism; Becca Rothfeld ponders women waiting on love from the Odyssey to Tinder; Hedgehog Review; Siddhartha Mukherjee depicts the art and agony of oncology; New York Times Magazine; David Quammen ventures to Yellowstone to consider the future of wild places; National Geographic and Mac McClelland follows a deranged expedition to Cuba in search of the ivory-billed woodpecker; Audubon. The collection concludes with Zandria Robinson's eloquent portrait of her father as reflected in the music he loved. Oxford American.
