Colletta,Markus Kostner,Ingo Wiederhofer,1996 World Bank Discussion Paper No 331 With the assistance of Emilio Mondo Taimi Sitari and Tadesse A Woldu Provides a detailed analysis of the intricate nature of the political economic and sociocultural issues that arise during the transition from war to peace in Ethiopia Namibia and Uganda These countries offer a unique range of conditions and program models as well as a variety of successes and failures from which to learn A recently released overview The Transition from War to Peace in Sub Saharan Africa Stock no 13581 ISBN 0 8213 3581 2 is based on these country studies and a synthesis of reports of demobilization and reintegration programs in several other countries Credit Policies and the Industrialization of Korea Yoon-Je Cho,Joon-Kyung Kim,1995-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 286 This report was commissioned as part of a project on the effectiveness of credit policies in East Asian countries In the Republic of Korea the government has played a pervasive role in promoting industrializati Sector Investment Programs in Africa Stephen P. Jones,1997-01-01 South Asia has made much progress in deregulation and liberalization in the 1990s but it still remains one of the least integrated regions in the world However this general trend masks wide disparities among South Asian nations the larger economies tend to be more highly protected with low import penetration rates while the smaller economies are relatively more open If the current reform program continues the benefits of liberalization will translate into higher growth This report reviews the regions economic performance from an international perspective and the steps taken to increase integration especially in terms of financial integration increased foreign direct investment portfolio and capital flows and regional integration intra regional trade regional arrangements Chapters also discuss the economic outlook for the region and prospects for South Asian exports such as textiles and clothing Institutional and Entrepreneurial Leadership in the Brazilian Science and Technology Sector Lauritz Holm-Nielsen,Michael Crawford,Alcyone Saliba,1996-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 325 Reviews the main components of policy reform strategies drawn from a case study of Brazil that are designed to increase the efficiency of investments in science and technology The paper is a summary of the viewpoints expressed by Brazilian science policymakers and their international colleagues at a workshop on science and technology reform in Brazil held in Washington D C May 1996 Africa's Experience with Structural Adjustment Kapil Kapoor,1995-01-01 Annotation World Bank Discussion Paper No 288 Summarizes the proceedings of a seminar held in Harare May 1994 that assessed the extent to which policy reforms related to structural adjustment have been implemented and examined their results Transforming Payment Systems Setsuya Sat?,David B. Humphrey,1995-01-01 Emphasizes the importance of designing a well functioning intergovernmental fiscal system for achieving the reform objectives of economies in transition This study explores the issues involved in redesigning intergovernmental relations in Albania Bulgaria Hungary Poland Romania the Russian Federation and Ukraine where extensive political and fiscal decentralization is now underway The volume focuses on the elements of decentralization in the transitional economies that distinguish them from those in the rest of the world The book shows that in the transition from a command to a market economy designing a well functioning intergovernmental fiscal system is a prerequisite for achieving other reform objectives macroeconomic stability private sector development and a social safety net for those hurt by the transition The study further demonstrates that a broader analytical framework than is conventionally involved in the study of intergovernmental finance is needed for analyzing fiscal issues in these economies The Uruguay Round and the Developing Economies Will Martin, L. Alan Winters, 1995-01-01 Agricultural liberalization and the Uruguay round The Uruguay round an assessment of economywide and agricultural reforms Trade in manufactures the outcome of the Uruguay round and developing country interest Liberalizing manufactures trade in changing world economy The Uruguay round and market access opportunities and challenges for developing countries Assessing the Uruguay round Procurement and Disbursement Manual for Projects with Community Participation Gita Gopal, 1995 Draws on the experience of Bulgaria to study the problems encountered in financing government operations in the transition economies This report describes Bulgaria's experience in addressing external shocks to its economy and large declines in the ratio of tax revenues to GDP The book provides broad coverage of the problems many other governments face in transforming their systems of taxation in the transition to a market economy Chapters discuss taxation and incentives government and households indirect taxation and financing of social expenditures Attention is also drawn to the implementation of a value added tax and to policies on fuel taxes The report facilitates an understanding of the differences between actual and optimal policies as governments seek to establish a framework for resolving their budgetary problems in the transition Preshipment Inspection Services Patrick Low, 1995 Many governments have contracted preshipment inspection PSI services to address problems associated with the over and under invoicing of trade transactions tariff misclassifications shortfalls in revenue collections from trade taxes and the manageme Africa Can Compete! , 1996 All 15 new independent states established in the economic space of the former Soviet Union suffered big declines in output and trade after gaining independence This study summarizes cross country experience on the role of trade and payments policies in the linked contraction of output and trade by drawing on eight country case studies Estonia the Kyrgyz Republic Latvia Lithuania Moldova Russia Ukraine and Uzbekistan The results of the case studies show that trade reform and reorientation of trade toward the rest of the world have done much to arrest the decline in output usually associated with the transformation from plan to market Also available in English Stock no 13615 ISBN 0 8213 3615 0
