Financing Health Services Through User Fees And Insurance Case Studies From Sub Saharan Africa:

Financing Health Services Through User Fees and Insurance R. Paul Shaw, Martha Ainsworth, 1995 World Bank Discussion Paper No 294 Presents case studies that focus on user fees and self financing health insurance as a means of contributing to efficiency equity and sustainable financing in the health sector User fees are emphasized as a form of cost sharing because private out of pocket expenditures for health account for nearly one half of total expenditures in Africa Evidence presented in this report suggests that self financing insurance is more prevalent in many countries than had been previously thought

Financing Health Care in Sub-Saharan Africa Through User Fees and Insurance R. Paul Shaw, Charles C. Griffin, 1995 There are several options for financing better health care in Africa They include the general systems of taxation used to finance government expenditures and the ministries of health donor assistance that is specifically earmarked for health projects charitable donations targeted to private voluntary health providers such as church missions user fees and health insurance User fees are emphasized in this volume because private out of pocket expenditures for health account for more than 40 percent of total health expenditures in Africa

Innovations in Health Care Financing George Schieber, 1997-01-01 Spanish edition World Bank Technical Paper No 345S This report examines specific policies for achieving sustainable development of the mining industry in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean The report highlights the importance of the mining sector to national economies of the region and discusses World Bank assistance in formulating policy Also available in English ISBN 0 8213 3816 1 Stock no 13816

Le financement de la santé dans les pays d'Afrique et d'Asie à faible revenu, 2003-01-01 Les conceptions et les politiques en matière de financement de la santé dans les pays à faible revenu s'articulent autour de paradigmes successivement dominants dans les approches des gouvernements et de leurs partenaires extérieurs la gratuité des soins de base et la santé pour tous dans la lignée de la conférence d'Alma Ata tout d'abord la contribution financière des usagers recouvrement des coûts partir de la seconde moitié des années quatre vingt Plus récemment l'accent a été mis sur le développement de mécanismes assuranciers tout en approfondissant et en reconsidérant la réflexion sur la gratuité des soins et sur la participation financière des populations Dans cette perspective cet ouvrage a voulu confronter des travaux théoriques et appliqués sur une sélection de grandes questions soulevées par le financement de la santé Il analyse des expériences et des politiques conduites en ces domaines dans plusieurs pays d'Afrique et d'Asie à faible revenu Le livre est structuré autour de trois parties La première porte sur les déterminants de l'accès aux soins sur l'équité et la protection des plus pauvres questions principalement abordées sous l'angle des effets de la contribution financière des usagers La seconde traite des approches plurielles qui se développent en matière de mécanismes d'assurance notamment dans le secteur informel La troisième s'interroge sur les relations entre le financement et la régulation des systèmes de santé en considérant différentes problématiques qui mettent en relief l'importance des institutions et plus globalement des choix publics rejoignant ainsi des orientations majeures de la réflexion économique contemporaine

Economic and Welfare Effects of the Abolition of Health User Fees Klaus W. Deininger, Paul Mpuga, 2004      Health Financing for Poor People Alexander S. Preker, Guy Carrin, 2004 One of the most urgent development challenges facing many low and middle income countries is the need for adequate financing systems to pay for health care provision to the estimated 1.3 billion impoverished people living in rural areas or working in the informal sector in urban areas This publication considers ways of improving the financing of health care at low income levels as part of a global strategy for increased investment in health and poverty reduction Topics discussed include global and regional trends in healthcare financing strengths and weaknesses of community based health financing and experiences in Asia and Africa country case studies using household survey analysis from Senegal Rwanda India and Thailand deficit financing and the impact of risk sharing on achieving health system goals      Handbook of Micro Health Insurance in Africa Hans Jürgen Rösner, 2012

Micro health insurance is an emerging concept to reduce poverty and social exclusion and improve health care access The Handbook of Micro Health Insurance in Africa gives an overview of the challenges and needs in the field of micro health insurance Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa where universal social health protection still has a way to go the Handbook provides an introduction to the relatively new and promising approach of micro insurance as a risk management tool for low income households between the market self help and the state This book is an output of the project Pro MHI Africa which is funded by the European Union and directed by the University of Cologne in cooperation with the University of Botswana the University of Ghana and the University of Malawi Series Social Protection in Health Challenges Needs and Solutions in International Health Care Financing Vol 1      Institutional and Entrepreneurial Leadership in the Brazilian Science and Technology Sector Lauritz Holm-Nielsen, Michael Crawford, Alcyone Saliba, 1996-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 325 Reviews the main components of policy reform strategies drawn from a case study of Brazil that are designed to increase the efficiency of investments in science and technology The paper is a summary of the viewpoints expressed by Brazilian science policymakers and their international colleagues at a workshop on science and technology reform in Brazil held in Washington D C May 1996

Selecting Development Projects for the World Bank Jean Baneth, 1996-01-01 Presents a selection of topics of special interest and relevance to eight Pacific Island countries that are member of the World Bank PMCs Fiji Federated States of Micronesia Kiribati Marshall Islands Solomon Islands Tonga Vanuatu and Western Samoa The themes selected are the impact of recent changes in the external trading environment of the PMCs economic diversification into tourism improving the management of and getting better returns for natural resources such as fisheries and forestry and regional cooperation The report also includes profiles of these eight countries

The Bangladesh Rural Advancement Committee's Credit Programs Shahidur R. Khandker, M. A. Baqui Khalily, 1996 Spanish edition Pobreza Desigualdad y Formaci3 n del Capital Humano en Am rica Latina 1950 2025 Latin America is marked by wide inequality in income and entrenched poverty This paper argues that the main reason these conditions persist is the lack of adequate education for new generations The author cites several factors economic growth and structural transformation of the economy the convergence of regional per capita income and the diminishing rates of return on education that have combined to lower the region s areas of inequality To bring the region quickly out of poverty the report recommends that universal basic education be given to all young people in the next two decades See also the English edition Stock No 13630 ISBN 0 8213 3630 4

Saving Across the World Klaus Schmidt-Hebbel, Luis Serven, 1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 349 The Bank s approach to water resources development has shifted from one of construction activities to one of improved management quality creating a new generation of water related projects and the need for new evaluation procedures This paper addresses the methodology for economic evaluation of this new group of projects and draws on the experience of the recently approved Mexico Water Resources Management project

Evaluating Public Spending Sanjay Pradhan, 1996-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 318 Analyzes the condition needed for achieving sustainable private sector growth in the Visegrad countries the Czech Republic Hungary Poland and the Slovak Republic The analysis focuses on the legal and regulatory framework and institutional capacity the privatization of state enterprises and private sector development

China Shiwei Shao, 1997 Based on a report by a World Bank task force this book provides a candid assessment of the Bank s operations in Sub Saharan Africa The book examines how the Bank can strengthen its operational response to poverty and improve food security recommends improvements and innovative approaches to poverty reduction and discusses ways of strengthening and making further use of regional initiatives Although the report identifies improvements in the work on poverty reduction that have taken place since 1995 it finds that much remains to be done On average 45 to 50 percent of Sub Saharan Africans live below the poverty line a much higher proportion than any other region of the world except South Asia. The commitment of governments to poverty reduction is usually weak; only about 12 African governments have such a commitment. Economic growth rates are generally far too low to reduce poverty significantly; growth rates of 6.5 percent per year are required for countries in this region to reduce poverty at an acceptable rate. The World Bank's lending has emphasized growth, focusing almost 58 percent of its assistance to the region on creating the mechanisms for growth through policy change and large scale investments. The World Bank's focus on poverty reduction in programming and lending must intensify in all its operational work. All development partners should establish stronger collaboration in planning their assistance programs.

The East Asian Miracle and Information Technology Nagy Hanna, 1999 World Bank Discussion Paper No 326. Draws on the successful experiences of five East Asian economies: Japan, the Republic of Korea, Singapore, Taiwan, China, and Hong Kong, to show how they have exploited the opportunities made possible by the information technology revolution and built sustainable competitive advantages in many high value added industries and services. The study examines the role of government in unleashing private sector response, promoting the information technology industry, diffusing technology, and focusing resources on strategic elements of the national information infrastructure. It also explores the role of the private sector in influencing the development and use of the new technologies.

Preventing Banking Sector Distress and Crises in Latin America Suman K. Bery, Valeriano F. García, 1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 361. Education has emerged as an essential component of the transition to a market economy in Central and Eastern Europe. Although the countries of the region inherited broadly accessible education systems, the legacies of central planning have constrained the systems from fully adjusting to market economies. This study examines empirical trends in access to and financing of education in nine Central and East European countries by drawing on the findings of a World Bank project that examined the social risks facing people and the policy responses taken by governments since 1989. Chapters address access and participation, the labor market, financing, and staff in the education sector.

The Demand for Oil Products in Developing Countries Dermot Gately, Shane S. Streifel, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 354. Promoting a high savings rate is high on the World Bank's agenda for promoting national income growth. This study surveys broad saving trends worldwide, summarizes current knowledge about savings and consumption, identifies main unresolved issues, and outlines the major policy questions to be researched. The paper includes case studies from Sub-Saharan Africa, China, Colombia, India, Mexico, and Pakistan.

Innovations and Risk Taking Tim Campbell, 1997-01-01 Annotation World Bank Discussion Paper No 357. Decentralization and democratization in the Latin America and the Caribbean region have produced a wave of innovations on the local government level: upgrading professional staffs, raising taxes and user fees, delivering better services, and mobilizing participation in public choice making. This paper documents five cases of best practices at the local level, focusing on innovations in Mendoza, Argentina; Curitiba, Brazil; Cali, Colombia; Manizales, Colombia; and Tijuana, Mexico. A the central message of the paper is that by supporting creation and adoption of best practice donors can enjoy a cost effective impact in achieving the next stages of reform in the region but that work must be done at the local level
