Comparative Issues in Party and Election Finance F. Leslie Seidle, 1991-01-01 This book is one of 23 volumes of research commissioned by the Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing and one of five volumes within this series dealing specifically with party and election finance Because the issue of money in elections is as old as democracy the experience of other countries is instructive The studies in this volume offer Canadians information about approaches to funding political parties and elections in the United States and Western Europe The studies by Herbert Alexander and Robert Mutch examine how the United States has approached issues such as contribution limits and the disclosure of election finances The latter study provides explicit comparisons to Canada noting the constitutional role of the Supreme Court in each country Jane Jenson draws on Western European experience to propose and assess reforms for the public funding for party foundations is documented by Michael Pinto Duschinsky The studies approach their material from a historical perspective noting the uniqueness of the constitutions institutions and traditions of the countries reviewed The authors provide background essential to any consideration of whether foreign experience might serve as a model for Canada Financing a Better Election System Committee for Economic Development, 1968 Of findings and recommendations Eliminating needless campaign costs Broadening the base of political finance Enforcing full disclosure Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities, 1973 Buying the Vote Robert E. Mutch, 2014-07-01 Buying the Vote A History of Campaign Finance Reform analyzes the rise and decline of campaign finance reform by tracking changes in the funding of presidential campaigns and changes in the debate over reforming fundraising practices An examination of Supreme Court decisions shows how the Court has fashioned a profoundly egalitarian redefinition of American democracy

Federal Election Campaign Act of 1973 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce. Subcommittee on Communications, 1973 Neo-Africanism Papa Yalae, 2008 Neo Africanism The New Ideology for a New Africa is a vision of an African renaissance grounded in traditional African philosophies of social harmony and mutual interdependence The author calls for Africans to deconstruct the multiplicity of divisive and antagonistic political ideologies that have dominated Africa since the demise of colonialism and replace them with one harmonious and co operative political ideology Neo Africanism a unified ideology grounded in the social harmony and interdependence that characterized traditional African life He shows how this ideology can be applied successfully to the politics economics education and health care of Africa and how it can help create a New Africa a reawakened peaceful and prosperous Africa highly regarded by all the nations of the world The book is aimed at students of African studies political science philosophy macroeconomics and international relations as well as the general population of Africans and the African political elite Both undergraduate and graduate students will find the book helpful because of the comprehensive analysis and solutions to problems in the important areas of a nation Unlike existing books Neo Africanism provides philosophical guidance that will empower the people of Africa to solve Africa s problems and to acquire the capability to create sustainable peace and prosperity Senate Campaign Finance
