Financing The Grabroots Government:

Township Governance and Institutionalization in China Shukai Zhao, 2014 This unique volume takes a very different approach to township or xiangzhen governance It explores the structural constraints on township governance and the way that these constraints influence the day to day behavior of Chinese rural grassroots government leaders Based on thoroughgoing interviews with township and village cadres and villagers the book depicts how individual actions affect and are affected by the underlying institutional arrangements and hence captures the dynamic micro functions of grassroots government as well as macro evolutions of overarching political institutions in China The down to earth presentation of this book engages readers to deeply feel the genuine life and dilemmas of cadres at the rural grassroots levels in China The goal of this book is to analyze the fiscal standing power structure and public service functions of township governments in the context of its subtle relationships with upper level governments as well as with sub level villages and the rural grassroots society Its comprehensive documentation and in depth discussion provide the best depiction of rural governance in contemporary China

Official Governance and Self-governance Qingzhi Zhou, 2022-11-29 This book offers a new interpretation of the evolution and modernization of social order in China s grass roots communities Traditionally social order at the grass roots level was maintained through an organic combination of self rule by the people and authority rule by political leaders As a hybrid form of social order therefore it not only has features of autonomy but also reflects the power of the state apparatus Despite the modernization of the nation state the old rules sustaining social order at the grass roots level are still very much in effect and have seamlessly integrated into the new social structure Unless we fully appreciate this fundamental continuity we would not be able to understand how social order at the grass roots level today is upheld and functions And the modernization of social order at the grass roots level is most fruitfully studied from the perspectives of the construction of modern public social relations and the development of grass roots systems of social autonomy

Government-NGO Relationships in Africa, Asia, Europe and MENA Raffaele Marchetti, 2018-04-27 This volume brings together some of the most recent scholarship on government and civil society It examines the axis of the relationship between national governments and civil society organisations NGOs by highlighting commonalities as well as differences among four key regions in the world Using the stability vs instability framework the book explores a range of pertinent issues including human rights development foreign policy state building regime change governance frameworks wars and civil liberties It studies diverse situations from those entailing comprehensive cooperation to those involving politically contentious and revolutionary activities With case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East and North Africa MENA this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of political science global politics international relations sociology development studies global governance and public policy as well as to those in the development sector and NGOs
