Elephants On The Beach:

Elephants on the Beach Irene Brady, 1986 Describes the physical characteristics and habits of the northern elephant seal
Elephant Beach Christine Devane, 2025-04-14 A young girl is expecting a quiet peaceful beach day of reading but she is in for some disappointment It turns out elephants love to play especially at the beach At first the girl is annoyed when the elephants break her beach chair Then they block her sun amidst other loud and distracting shenanigans Soon though the girl becomes intrigued by the elephants playful nature She still tries to read but their games continue and can't be ignored Having a change of heart the young girl joins in when the elephants play volleyball She surfs huge waves and even helps the elephants when they are scared The young girl came to the beach to be alone but she now finds herself surrounded by new friends The silliness of these gentle giants amuse her and what was once a plan to find some peace turns into a feast of fun Come along to Elephant Beach where distractions are welcome and adventure arrives with each and every wave
