Kane,2016-05-06 This challenging new book argues that the People s Republic of China is pursuing a long term strategy to extend its national power by sea Fighting Identity Amit Singh,2022-10-21 This book is an immersive ethnographic account of how fighters at a Polish owned Muay Thai kickboxing gym in East London seek to reject prior identity markers in favour of constructing one another as the same as fighters a category supposedly free from the negative assumptions and limitations associated with prior ascriptions such as race class gender and sexuality It explores questions of subjectivity and identity by examining how and why fighters sought to disavow identity which involved casting aside pre established ways of thinking feeling and acting about constructed differences to forge deep bonds of carnal convivial friendships Yet this book argues that becoming a fighter is highly socially contingent and remains subject to rupture due to the durability of taken for granted thinking about race gender and sexuality which if drawn upon could pull people out of the category of fighter and back into longer standing durable categories This book deploys Butler s theory of performativity and Bourdieu s conceptualisation of habitus to explore the context specific ways people transgress identity whilst remaining attentive to the constrained nature of agency The book is intended for undergraduate and master s students on courses looking at race racism gender social anthropology sociology and sociology of sport
