Film Theory And Philosophy:

Film Theory and Philosophy Richard Allen, Murray Smith, 1999 While concepts from and debates within Continental philosophy have long formed a backdrop to arguments in film theory and criticism exchanges between Anglo American analytic philosophy and film studies have been relatively few and far between In recent years this has begun to change as the consensus around semiotic and psychoanalytic approaches has weakened as film scholars have turned their attention to other sources such as cognitive theory and analytic philosophy and as philosophers have taken a more focused interest in film This volume provides further momentum to these developments It is comprised of new essays on a wide range of topics by both film scholars and philosophers who share the commitment to conceptual investigation logical consistency and clarity of argument that characterizes analytic philosophy The first section addresses the nature of cinematic representation while the second section re examines notions of authorship and intentionality in our understanding and appreciation of films Sections 3 and 4 look at ideology and aesthetics respectively while the final section considers the nature and place of emotion in film spectatorship The diversity of the questions addressed here aesthetics and politics in black film theory film music authorship genre comedy epistemology feminism and film theory is matched by the range of positions argued for and demonstrates a vital plurality of perspectives rather than a single line of thought Film, Theory and Philosophy Felicity Colman, 2014-12-05

Philosophy and in particular continental philosophy has provided a conceptual underpinning for cinema since its beginnings especially in the development of cinematic aesthetics In its turn film has rethought the abstractions of space and time and the categories of sex and gender and has created new concepts which illuminate phenomenology metaphysics and epistemology Film and Philosophy brings together leading scholars to provide a detailed overview of the key thinkers who have shaped the field of film philosophy The thinkers include continental and post continental philosophers analytic philosophers film makers film reviewers sociologists and cultural theorists The essays reveal how philosophy can be applied to film analysis and how film can be used to illustrate philosophical problems But more importantly the essays explore how film has shaped what philosophy thinks and how philosophy has lead to a reappraisal of film The book will prove an invaluable reference and guide to readers interested in a deeper understanding of the issues and insights presented by film philosophy Film and Philosophy includes essays on Hugo Munsterberg Vilem Flusser Siegfried Kracauer Theodor Adorno Antonin Artaud Henri Bergson Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Andre Bazin Roland Barthes Serge Daney Jean Luc Godard Stanley Cavell Jean Luc Nancy Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Sarah Kofman Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson Felix Guattari Raymond Bellour Christian Metz Julia Kristeva Laura Mulvey Homi Bhabha Slavoj Zizek Stephen Heath Alain Badiou Jacques Ranciere Leo Bersani Giorgio Agamben and Michel Chion Philosophy and Film Cynthia A. Freeland, Thomas E. Wartenberg, 2016-01-08 Philosophy and Film moves from broad theoretical reflections on film as a medium to concrete examinations of individual films Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures

Noël Carroll, Jinhee Choi, 2009-02-09 Designed for classroom use this authoritative anthology presents key selections from the best contemporary work in philosophy of film. The featured essays have been specially chosen for their clarity, philosophical depth and consonance with the current movement towards cognitive film theory. Eight sections with introductions cover topics such as the nature of film, film as art, documentary cinema, narration and emotion in film, film criticism and film's relation to knowledge and morality. Issues addressed include the objectivity of documentary films, fear of movie monsters and moral questions surrounding the viewing of pornography. Replete with examples and discussion of moving pictures throughout.

Film, Theory and Philosophy Felicity Colman, 2009 Philosophy and in particular continental philosophy has provided a conceptual underpinning for cinema since its beginnings especially in the development of cinematic aesthetics. In its turn film has rethought the abstractions of space and time and the categories of sex and gender and has created new concepts which illuminate phenomenology, metaphysics and epistemology. Film and Philosophy brings together leading scholars to provide a detailed overview of the key thinkers who have shaped the field of film philosophy. The thinkers include continental and post continental philosophers, analytic philosophers, film makers, film reviewers, sociologists and cultural theorists. The essays reveal how philosophy can be applied to film analysis and how film can be used to illustrate philosophical problems. But more importantly the essays explore how film has shaped what philosophy thinks and how philosophy has led to a reappraisal of film. The book will prove an invaluable reference and guide to readers interested in a deeper understanding of the issues and insights presented by film philosophy. Film and Philosophy includes essays on Hugo Münsterberg, Vilém Flusser, Siegfried Kracauer, Theodor Adorno, Antonin Artaud, Henri Bergson, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Emmanuel Levinas, André Bazin, Roland Barthes, Serge Daney, Jean-Luc Godard, Stanley Cavell, Jean-Luc Nancy, Jacques Derrida, Gilles Deleuze, Sarah Kofman, Paul Virilio, Jean Baudrillard, Jean-François Lyotard, Fredric Jameson, Félix Guattari, Raymond Bellour, Christian Metz, Julia Kristeva, Laura Mulvey, Homi Bhabha, Slavoj Žižek, Stephen Heath, Alain Badiou, Jacques Rancière, Leo Bersani, Giorgio Agamben and Michel Chion.

Image and Mind Gregory Currie, 1995-09-29 This book develops a theory of the nature of the cinematic medium of the psychology of film viewing and of film narrative.

The Philosophy of Film Thomas E. Wartenberg, Angela Curran, 2005-02-11 Organized around a series of philosophic questions about film, The Philosophy of Film Introductory Text and Readings offers an accessible and engaging overview of the discipline. Provides thorough selection of readings drawn from philosophy, film studies and film criticism. Multiple points of view highlighted in discussion of film theory, narration, authorship, film and emotion and the social values of cinema. Presents thought provoking reading questions as well as clear and helpful introductions for each section. Realist film theory and cinema Ian Aitken, 2019-01-04 Realist film theory and cinema embraces studies of cinematic realism and 19th century tradition, the realist film theories of Lukács, Grierson, Bazin and Kracauer and the relationship of realist film theory to the general field of film theory and philosophy This is the first book to attempt a rigorous and systematic application of realist film theory to the analysis of particular films The book suggests new ways forward for a new series of studies in cinematic realism and for a new form of film theory based on realism It stresses the importance of the question of realism both in film studies and in contemporary life Aitken's work will be of interest to scholars and advanced students of film studies literary studies media studies cultural studies and philosophy

Noël Carroll and Film Mario Slušan, 2019-01-30 Noël Carroll is one of the most prolific widely cited and distinguished philosophers of art but how specifically has cinema impacted his thought This book one of the first in the acclaimed Film Thinks series argues that Carroll's background in both cinema and philosophy has been crucial to his overall theory of aesthetics Often a controversial figure within film studies as someone who has assertively contested the psychoanalytic semiotic and Marxist cornerstones of the field his allegiance to alternative philosophical traditions has similarly polarised his readership Mario Slušan proposes that Carroll's defence of the notions of truth and objectivity provides a welcome antidote to anything goes attitudes and postmodern scepticism towards art and popular culture including film Carroll's thinking has loosened the grip of continental philosophers on cinema studies from Maurice Merleau-Ponty to Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Lacan by turning to cognitive and analytical approaches Slušan goes further to reveal that Carroll's methods of evaluation and interpretation in fact usefully bridge gaps between these opposing sides to look at artworks anew Throughout Slušan revisits and enriches Carroll's definitions of popular art mass art horror humour and other topics and concludes by tracing their origins to this important thinker's relationship with the medium of cinema

The Palgrave Handbook of the Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Laura T. Di Summa, Shawn Loht, 2019-10-30 This handbook brings together essays in the philosophy of film and motion pictures from authorities across the spectrum It boasts contributions from philosophers and film theorists alike with many essays employing pluralist approaches to this interdisciplinary subject Core areas treated include film ontology film structure psychology authorship narrative and viewer emotion Emerging areas of interest including virtual reality video games and nonfictional and autobiographical film also have dedicated chapters Other areas of focus include the film medium's intersection with contemporary social issues film's kinship to other art forms and the influence of historically seminal schools of thought in the philosophy of film Of emphasis in many of the essays is the relationship and overlap of analytic and continental perspectives in this subject

Thinking in Images Catherine Constable, 2019-07-25 Thinking in Images addresses the current crisis in film theory by offering a new methodology for interrelating theory and film texts Drawing on the groundbreaking work of Michele Le Doeuff the author argues that philosophy is reliant on socio-cultural images such as the figures of the veiled woman the femme fatale and the seductress The author traces the key role played by such images of woman in the theorisations of beauty art and truth offered by Nietzsche and his successors Derrida Kofman and Baudrillard Importantly the recognition that images are crucial to theorising means that film images have the capacity to challenge and change previous theoretical models This is demonstrated by a case study of three films from the Dietrich Sternberg cycle The Scarlet Empress The Devil is a Woman and Shanghai Express The detailed readings focus on the ways in which Dietrich's glamorous characters challenge the theorisation of woman as a beautiful object thus offering new ways of conceptualising woman's role as the icon of beauty art and truth

Film Theory and Contemporary Hollywood Movies Warren Buckland, 2009-06-03 Film theory no longer gets top billing or plays a starring role in film studies today as critics proclaim that theory is dead and we are living in a post theory moment While theory may be out of the limelight it remains an essential key to understanding the full complexity of cinema one that should not be so easily discounted or discarded In this volume contributors explore recent popular movies through the lens of film theory beginning with industrial economic analysis before moving into a predominately aesthetic and interpretive framework The Hollywood films discussed cover a wide range from 300 to Fifty First Dates from Brokeback Mountain to Lord of the Rings from Spider Man 3 to Fahrenheit 9/11 from Saw to Raiders of the Lost Ark and much more Individual essays consider such topics as the rules that govern new blockbuster franchises the posthumanist realism of digital cinema video game adaptations increasingly restricted stylistic norms the spatial stories of social networks like YouTube the mainstreaming of queer culture and the cognitive paradox behind enjoyable viewing of traumatic events onscreen With its cast of international film scholars Film Theory and Contemporary Hollywood Movies demonstrates the remarkable contributions theory can offer to film studies and moviegoers alike

Philosophical Problems of Classical Film Theory Noël Carroll, 1988 This book is an analytical inquiry into classical film theory that is film theory before the advent of the semiotics and poststructuralism that began to dominate academic film literature in the 1970s The author brings his training and experience as both an analytical philosopher and a film scholar to bear on its chief tenets Using Rudolf Arnheim Andre Bazin and V F Perkins as representatives of major types of thinking about film he provides clear and concise overviews of their work and locates their thought against the critical and theoretical currents of their times the historical development of the cinema and the prevalent issues in philosophical aesthetics This closely reasoned book characterizes the structure of classical film theory attempts to diagnose its shortcomings and suggests avenues of inquiry for postclassical film theory In addition it includes many illuminating discussions of particular films and cinematic techniques Arnheim and Bazin represent opposing positions on the nature of photographic recording that are so deeply entrenched in our intellectual culture that these arguments seem to return over and over whenever discussion of the photographic arts is broached Professor Carroll offers a uniquely penetrating appraisal of their work Perkins a more contemporary thinker has not been subjected to any detailed analysis until now

European Film Theory Temenuga Trifonova, 2009-09-10 European Film Theory explores the Europeanness of European film theory its philosophical origins the culture wars between Continental and Analytical film theory and philosophy the major discursive and epistemological shifts in the history of Continental film theory the relationship between Continental philosophy of art and philosophy of history and European film

Engaging the Moving Image Noel Carroll, 2008-10-01 No 1 Carroll a brilliant and provocative philosopher of film has gathered in this book eighteen of his most recent essays on cinema and television what Carroll calls moving images The essays discuss topics in philosophy film theory and film criticism Drawing on concepts from cognitive psychology and analytic philosophy Carroll examines a wide range of fascinating topics These include film attention the emotional address of the moving image film and racism the nature and epistemology of documentary film the moral status of television the concept of film style the foundations of film evaluation the film theory of Siegfried Kracauer the ideology of the professional western and films by Sergei Eisenstein and Yvonne Rainer Carroll also assesses the state of contemporary film theory and speculates on its prospects The book continues many of the themes of Carroll s earlier work Theorizing the Moving Image and develops them in new directions A general introduction by George Wilson situates Carroll s essays in relation to his view of moving image studies

New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink, 2011-10-13 A concise but comprehensive student guide to studying Emily Bronte s classic novel Wuthering Heights It covers adaptations such as film and TV versions of the novel and student friendly features include discussion points and a comprehensive guide to further reading

Film as Philosophy Bernd Herzogenrath, 2017-03-21 Film and philosophy have much in common and books have been written on film and philosophy But can films be or do philosophy Can they think Film as Philosophy is the first book to explore this fascinating question historically thematically and methodically Bringing together leading scholars from universities across the globe Film as Philosophy presents major new research that leads film studies and philosophy into a productive dialogue It provides a uniquely sweeping historical overview of the confluence of film and philosophy for more than a century considering films from Jean Renoir Lars von Trier J rgen Leth David Lynch Michael Haneke and others the written works of filmmakers who also theorized on the medium including Sergei Eisenstein and Jean Epstein and others who have written on cinema including Hugo Münsterberg Béla Balázs André Bazin Henri Bergson Gilles Deleuze Stanley Cavell Alain Badiou Jacques Rancière and many more Representing a major step toward establishing a media philosophy that puts the status role and function of film into a new perspective Film as Philosophy removes representational techniques from the center of inquiry replacing these with the medium s ability to think Hence it

Quentin Tarantino and Film Theory Federico Pagello, 2020-10-20 This book examines a set of theoretical perspectives that critically engage with the notion of postmodernism investigating whether this concept is still useful to approach contemporary cinema This question is explored through a discussion of the films written and directed by Quentin Tarantino largely regarded as the epitome of postmodern cinema and considered here as theoretical contributions in their own right Each chapter first presents key ideas proposed by a specific theorist and then puts them in conversation with Tarantino's films Jacques Rancière's theory of art is used to reject postmodernism's claims about the death of the aesthetic image in contemporary cinema Fredric Jameson's and Slavoj Žižek's dialectical thinking is mobilized to challenge simplistic ideological readings of postmodern cinema in general and Tarantino's films in particular Finally the direct influence of Carol Clover's psychoanalytical approach to the horror genre on Tarantino's work is discussed to prove the director's specific contribution to a theoretical understanding of contemporary film aesthetics
