Movement as Meaning in Experimental Cinema Daniel Barnett, 2017-08-10 Movement as Meaning in Experimental Cinema offers sweeping and cogent arguments as to why analytic philosophers should take experimental cinema seriously as a medium for illuminating mechanisms of meaning in language Using the analogy of the movie projector Barnett deconstructs all communication acts into functions of interval repetition and context He describes how Wittgenstein s concepts of family resemblance and language games provide a dynamic perspective on the analysis of acts of reference He then develops a hyper simplified formula of movement as meaning to discuss with true equivalence the process of reference as it occurs in natural language technical language poetic language painting photography music and of course cinema Barnett then applies his analytic technique to an original perspective on cine poetics based on Paul Valery s concept of omnivalence and to a projection of how this style of analysis derived from analog cinema can help us clarify our view of the digital mediasphere and its relation to consciousness Informed by the philosophy of Quine Dennett Merleau Ponty as well as the later work of Wittgenstein among others he uses the film work of Stan Brakhage Tony Conrad A K Dewdney Nathaniel Dorsky Ken Jacobs Owen Land Saul Levine Gregory Markopoulos Michael Snow and the poetry of Basho John Cage John

Telotte, 2023-07-18 How science fiction films in the 1950s were marketed and helped create the broader genre itself For Hollywood the golden age of science fiction was also an age of anxiety Amid rising competition fluid audience habits and increasing government regulation studios of the 1950s struggled to make and sell the kinds of films that once were surefire winners These conditions the leading media scholar J P Telotte argues catalyzed the incredible rise of science fiction Though science fiction films had existed since the earliest days of cinema the SF genre as a whole continued to resist easy definition through the 1950s In grappling with this developing genre the industry began to consider new marketing approaches that viewed films as fluid texts and audiences as ever changing Drawing on trade reports film reviews pressbooks trailers and other archival materials Selling Science Fiction Cinema reconstructs studio efforts to market a promising new genre and in the process shows how salesmanship influenced what that genre would become Telotte uses such films as The Thing from Another World Forbidden Planet and The Blob as well as the influx of Japanese monster movies to explore the shifting ways in which the industry reframed the SF genre to market to no longer static audience expectations Science fiction transformed the way Hollywood does business just as Hollywood transformed the meaning of science fiction The Art of Motion Picture Editing Vincent LoBrutto, 2012-09 A list of 100 essential films Avant-Garde Film Scott MacDonald, 1993-02-26 The past thirty years have seen the proliferation of forms of independent cinema that challenge the conventions of mass market commercial movies from within the movie theatre Avant Garde Film examines fifteen of the most suggestive and useful films from this film tradition The films discussed include No 4 Bottoms by Yoko Ono Wavelength by Michael Snow Serene Velocity by Ernie Gehr Print Generation by J J Murphy Standard Gauge by Morgan Fisher Zorns Lemma by Hollis Frampton The Ties that Bind by Su Friedrich From the Pole to the Equator by Yervant Gianikian and The Carriage Trade by Warren Sonbert Through in depth readings of these works Scott MacDonald takes viewers on a critical circumnavigation of the conventions of movie going as seen by filmmakers who have rebelled against the conventions MacDonald s discussions do not merely analyse the films they provide a useful accessible jargon free critical apparatus for viewing avant garde film and communicate the author s pleasure in exploring impenetrable works Persistent Images Utterson Andrew Utterson, 2020-05-01 Considers the nature and status of contemporary cinema by way of a series of technological reflections on its past Argues for a progressive historiography that looks forward moving beyond the sense of anxiety and loss that has dominated accounts of cinema s postulated demise Draws on the latest thinking on evolving screen technologies and media archaeology and the development of cognate areas such as memory studies Charts the historical memory of cinema with a view to considering how our engagement with and understanding of this history might be reconfigured in the present Channelling a focus on the history of cinema into the present and beyond Persistent Images Encountering Film History in Contemporary Cinema explores the continuing resonance of the memory of cinema as revealed in the technological and aesthetic expressions of a range of experimental practices With case studies of films that reflexively foreground and creatively reimagine the past including Shirin 2008 Goodbye to Language 2014 and Francofonia 2015 the book demonstrates how the medium of film can look simultaneously backwards and forwards encountering and reframing the past in the present and offering new ways of thinking about both film history and contemporary cinema alike     Yoruba Cinema of Nigeria S.
