Filmguide To Triumph Of The Will

Filmguide To Triumph Of The Will:

Filmguide to Triumph of the Will Richard Meran Barsam, 1975 Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities The Documentary Film Reader Jonathan Kahana, 2016 Bringing together an expansive range of writing by scholars critics historians and filmmakers The Documentary Film Reader presents an international perspective on the most significant developments and debates from several decades of critical writing about documentary Each of the book's seven sections covers a distinct period in the history of documentary collecting both contemporary and retrospective views of filmmaking in the era And each section is prefaced by an introductory essay that explains its design and provides critical context Painstakingly selected from the archives of more than a hundred years of cinema practice and theory the essays reviews interviews manifestos and ephemera gathered in this volume suit the needs and interests of the beginning student the advanced scholar the casual reader and the working documentarian A Susan Sontag Reader Susan Sontag, 2014-09-09 Susan Sontag occupies a special place in Modern American letters She has become our most important critic while her brilliant novels and short fiction are at long last getting the recognition they deserve Sontag is above all a writer which is only to say that though the form may differ there is an essential unity in all her work The truth of this is perhaps more evident in A Susan Sontag Reader than in any of Sontag's individual books The writer selected a sampling of her work meaning the choice both to reflect accurately a career and also to guide the reader toward those qualities and concerns which she prizes in her own writing A Susan Sontag Reader is arranged chronologically and draws on most of Sontag's books There are selections from her two novels The Benefactor and Death Kit and from her collections of short stories I etcetera The famous essays from the 1960s Against Interpretation Notes on Camp and On Style which established Sontag's reputation and can be fairly said to have shaped the cultural views of a generation are included as are selections from her two subsequent volumes of essays Styles of Radical Will and Under the Sign of Saturn A part of Sontag's best selling On Photography is also included It is astonishing to read these works when they are detached from the books they appeared in and offered instead in the order in which Sontag wrote them The connections between various literary forms the progression of themes are revealed in often startling ways Moreover Sontag has included a long interview in which she moves more informally over the whole range of her concerns and of her work The volume ends with Writing Itself a previously uncollected essay on Roland Barthes which in the eyes of many is one of Sontag's finest achievements This collection is in a sense both a self portrait and a key for a reader to understand the work of one of the most important writers of our time Grand Illusion Karen Fiss, 2009 Franco German cultural exchange reached its height at the 1937 Paris

World's Fair where the Third Reich worked to promote an illusion of friendship between the two countries Through the prism of this decisive event Grand Illusion examines the overlooked relationships among Nazi elites and French intellectuals Their interaction Karen Fiss argues profoundly influenced cultural production and normalized aspects of fascist ideology in 1930s France laying the groundwork for the country's eventual collaboration with its German occupiers Tracing related developments across fine arts film architecture and mass pageantry Fiss illuminates the role of National Socialist propaganda in the French decision to ignore Hitler's war preparations and pursue an untenable policy of appeasement France's receptiveness toward Nazi culture Fiss contends was rooted in its troubled identity and deep seated insecurities With their government in crisis French intellectuals from both the left and the right demanded a new national culture that could rival those of the totalitarian states By examining how this cultural exchange shifted toward political collaboration Grand Illusion casts new light on the power of art to influence history Ministry of Illusion Eric Rentschler,1996-10-01 Eric Rentschler argues that cinema in the Third Reich emanated from a Ministry of Illusion and not from a Ministry of Fear His analysis of the sophisticated media culture of this period demonstrates in an unprecedented way the potent and destructive powers of fascination and fantasy Charlie Chaplin: The Complete Film Guide Chris Wade,2019-07-12 The complete guide to the films of Charlie Chaplin from his early silent comedies at Keystone to his seminal feature length masterpieces such as The Kid and City Lights In this book Chris Wade explores the making and legacy of these extraordinary movies Under the Sign of Saturn Susan Sontag,2013-10-01 This third essay collection by America's leading essayist brings together her most important critical writing from 1972 to 1980 in which she explores some of the most influential artists and thinkers of our time A Portrait Of Leni Riefenstahl Audrey Salkeld,2011-10-31 Leni Riefenstahl will always be remembered for her brilliant film of the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin still rated as one of the best documentaries ever made Before that she was acclaimed for her roles in silent feature films when German cinema was in its artistic heyday in the 1920s She pioneered the box office success of such classic mountaineering dramas as The White Hell of Piz Palu and then began to direct her own films The Blue Light was admired by Hitler and led to her filming the Wagnerian Nuremberg Rally of 1934 After the war she was shunned by the film industry despite a court in 1952 proclaiming her not guilty of supporting the Nazis in a punishable way Her undoubted charisma led to many affairs and grandiose schemes deep sea diving in her seventies and still filming wildlife in her nineties Audrey Salkeld has sifted the fact from the legend and gives us a moving portrait of the great movie star who suffered more in the wilderness than her enduring fame suggests Theorizing Documentary Michael Renov,2012-10-02 A key collection of essays that looks at the specific issues related to the documentary form Questions addressed include What is documentary and How fictional is nonfiction War and the Cosmos in Picasso's Texts, 1936-1940 Lydia Gasman,2007-04 War and the cosmos in Picasso's texts 1936-1940 is a study that builds upon the material and ideas discussed in my 1981 Ph.D dissertation Mystery magic and love in Picasso 1925-1938 Picasso and the Surrealist
