The Jack Chambers Film Project ,2001 DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder,2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema s lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film s provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media s materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author s previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema Hamilton Babylon Stephen Broomer,2016-02-24 Founded in 1966 at McMaster University by avant garde filmmaker John Hofsess and future frat comedy innovator Ivan Reitman the McMaster Film Board was a milestone in the development of Canada s commercial and experimental film communities McMaster s student film society quickly became the site of art filmmaking and an incubator for some of the country s most famous commercial talent as the well as the birthplace of the first Canadian film to lead to obscenity charges Hofsess s Columbus of Sex In Hamilton Babylon Stephen Broomer traces the history of the MFB from its birth as an organization for producing and exhibiting avant garde films through its transformation into a commercial industrial enterprise and into its final decline as a show business management style suppressed many of its voices The first book to highlight the work of Hofsess an innovative filmmaker whose critical role in the MFB has been almost entirely eclipsed by Reitman s legend Hamilton Babylon is a fascinating study of the tension between art and business in the growth of the Canadian film industry Image and Identity R. Bruce Elder,2006-01-01 What do images of the body which recent poets and filmmakers have given us tell us about ourselves about the way we think and about the culture in which we live In his new book A Body of Vision R Bruce Elder situates contemporary poetic and cinematic body images in their cultural context Elder examines how recent artists have tried to recognize and to convey primordial forms of experiences He proposes the daring thesis that in their efforts to do so artists have resorted to gnostic models of consciousness He argues that the attempt to convey these primordial modes of awareness demands a different conception of artistic meaning from any of those that currently dominate contemporary critical discussion By reworking theories and speech in highly original ways Elder formulates this new conception The works of Brakhage Artaud Schneeman Cohen and others lie naked under Elder s razor sharp dissecting knife and he exposes the essence of their work cutting deeply into the themes and theses from which the works are derived His remarks on the gaps in contemporary critical practices will likely become the focus of much debate

Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb, 2020-07-10 Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon a newsreel possibly a serial and a short before launching into the feature film Shorts could tackle any topic of interest an unusual travelogue a comedy musical revues sports nature or popular vaudeville acts With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s

Guide to the Cinema(s) of Canada Peter Rist, 2001-07-30 This new volume in the Greenwood Press series Reference Guides to the World s Cinema discusses the films and personalities of the Canadian cinema This guide encompasses the diverse output of both the English and French Canadian communities and includes 175 films and 125 filmmakers and actors Alphabetically arranged entries discuss important films actors directors shorts and a number of experimental films With few exceptions films are included only if their production company was incorporated in Canada Similarly filmmakers and actors represent people who have worked primarily in Canada This guide will interest scholars students and film buffs Brief bibliographies after each entry provide sources for further reading Three appendixes provide additional information regarding Canadian born filmmakers and actors excluded from the main text winners of Canadian film awards and a listing of the top ten Canadian films

Modern Lusts Detlef Siegfried, 2020-07-01 As a jazz musician filmmaker anthropologist sexologist and crime novelist the boundlessly curious German autodidact Ernest Borneman exemplified the conflicting cultural and intellectual currents of the twentieth century In this long awaited English translation acclaimed historian Detlef Siegfried chronicles Borneman s journey from a young Jewish Communist in Nazi Berlin to his emergence as a celebrated and reliably controversial transatlantic polymath Through an innovative structure organized around the human senses this biography memorably portrays a figure whose far flung obsessions comprised a microcosm of postwar intellectual life

John Walker's Passage Darrell Varga, 2012-01-01 John Walker is one of Canada s most prolific and important documentary filmmakers and is known for his many thoughtful personally inflected films His masterwork Passage centres on Sir John Franklin s failed expedition to find the final link of the Northwest Passage connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans through the Canadian Arctic It also gives us the story of John Rae the Scottish explorer who discovered the fate of Franklin and the final link in the passage but was left to the margins of history Walker s film brings to this story a layering of dramatic action and behind the scenes documentary footage that build tension between the story of the past and interpretations of the present Darrell Varga provides a close analysis of Passage situating it within Walker s rich body of work and the Canadian documentary tradition Varga illuminates how the film can be viewed through the lens of Harold Innis s theories of communication and culture opening up the work of this great Canadian political economist to film studies
