Fin De Siecle The Illustrators Of The Nineties:

Fin de Siecle Simon Houfe, 1992-01 The years 1890 1900 were rich and varied ones for the art of the illustrated book in Britain There were revivals of the Arts and Crafts movement the emergences of art nouveau a renaissance in etching and the first stirrings of commercial art in advertising The art of the fin de siecle is a recognizable and coherent body of work and the purpose of this study is to present a survey of illustration at this period and its principal exponents Aubrey Beardsley William Morris Walter Crane Charles Ricketts William Nicholson Gordon Craig and others Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siècle Frances Knight, 2015-10-23 The period known as the fin de siecle defined in this groundbreaking book as chiefly the period between 1885 and 1901 was a fluid and unsettling epoch of optimism and pessimism endings and beginnings as well as of new forms of creativity and anxiety The end of the century has attracted much interest from scholars of literary and cultural studies who regard it as a critical moment in the history of their disciplines but it has been relatively ignored by religious historians Frances Knight here sets right that neglect She shows how late Victorian society often said to be one of the most intensely Christian cultures the world has ever seen reacted to the bold agendas being set by the thinkers of the fin de siecle and how prominent Church figures during the era first identified many of the concerns that have preoccupied Christians latterly These include an active interest in social justice and the creation of new types of communities increasingly open discussion of the sexual exploitation of children debates about society's decadence new ideas about the role of women and the belief in the redemptive powers of art pioneered by figures as diverse as P T Forsyth Percy Dearmer and Samuel and Henrietta Barnett Examining in particular the Christian world of fin de siecle London the author offers penetrating insights into a society in which the ritual and culture of Christianity sometimes permeated the aesthetic movement and where devotees of the aesthetic movement like Walter Pater Oscar Wilde and their disciples often revealed a fascination with Christianity She argues that the long 1890s was a decisive decade in which various sections of Christian opinion both on the progressive and the more conservative wings of the faith began to express views which set the tone for attitudes which would become commonplace in the twentieth century Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siecle is the focussed treatment of religion and culture at the end of the nineteenth century that the field has long needed It will be welcomed by scholars of church history social and cultural history and the history of ideas Fin-de-Siècle Fictions, 1890s-1990s A. Mousoutzanis, 2014-05-27 Fin de Si cle Fictions 1890s 1990s focuses on fin de si cle British and postmodern American fictions of apocalypse and investigates the ways in which these narratives demonstrate shifts in the relations among modern discourses of power and knowledge Illustrations, Optics and Objects in Nineteenth-Century Literary and Visual Cultures L. Calè, P. Di Bello, 2009-12-09 Paying attention to the historically specific dimensions of objects such as the photograph the illustrated magazine and the collection the contributors to this volume offer new ways of thinking about nineteenth century practices of reading viewing and collecting revealing new readings of Wordsworth Shelley James and Wilde among others Christina Rossetti and Illustration Lorraine Janzen Kooistra, 2002 Lorraine Janzen Kooistra's reading of Rossetti's illustrated works reveals for the first time the visual verbal aesthetic that was fundamental to Rossetti's poetics. Her thorough archival research brings to light new information on how Rossetti's commitment to illustration and attitudes toward copyright and control influenced her transactions with publishers and the books they produced.

Dictionary of British Cartoonists and Caricaturists Mark Bryant, Simon Heneage, 2022-01-25 Originally published in 1994, this dictionary provides a unique who's who of the major figures in the world of British cartoons and caricatures. It was the first book to encompass the entire field from c. 1730 when Hogarth published the first of his modern moral pictures to 1980. In addition to describing the careers and achievements of the artists and the characteristics of their styles, more than 500 entries give details of their publications, their illustrations to books and periodicals, exhibitions of their work, public collections in which their work is represented, and literature on or referring to them. More than 150 illustrations are included. This is a comprehensive reference work and will be of interest to social and political historians as well as cartoon and caricature enthusiasts.

Britain in Transition Alfred F. Havighurst, 1985-09-15 This new edition extends and brings up to date the story of political, economic, and social change among the British. An entirely new chapter covers the Thatcher years, discussing such events as the Falkland Island crisis and the General Election of 1983. Other sections have been revised to reflect information only recently available. Throughout, Havighurst has incorporated material from official documents, monographs, biographies, articles, and the press. His fascinating narrative fully captures the ongoing importance of change itself in shaping the character of Britain.

Shakespeare's Women and the Fin de Siècle Sophie Duncan, 2016 Sophie Duncan illuminates iconoclastic performances of Shakespeare's heroines in late Victorian theatre through the celebrity commentary and careers of the actresses who played them. Duncan draws on a wealth of archival material to explore the vital ways in which fin de siècle Shakespeare and Victorian theatre culture conditioned each other.

The Fin de Siècle Imagination in Australia, 1890-1914 Mark Hearn, 2022-07-14 This book explores the fin de siècle, an era of powerful global movements and turbulent transition in Australia and beyond, through a series of biographical microhistories. From the first-wave feminist Rose Summerfield and the working-class radical John Dwyer to the indigenous rights advocate David Unaipon and the poet Christopher Brennan, Hearn traces the transnational identities, philosophies, ideas, and cultures that characterised this era. Examining the struggles and aspirations of fin de siècle lives, respect for the rights of women and indigenous peoples, the injustices and hardship inflicted on working men and women, and the ways in which they imagined a better world, this book examines the transformation and renewal brought about by fin de siècle ideas. It examines the distinctive characteristics of this great acceleration of economic, technological, and cultural forces that swept the globe at the turn of the 19th century, both within an Australian context and on the world stage. Asserting that the fin de siècle was significant for the making of modern Australia and demonstrating the impact Australian fin de siècle lives had on the transnational and global movements of the era Mark Hearn traces the turbulent nature of the fin de siècle imagination in Australia and its response to these dynamic forces

Marketing Modernism in Fin-de-Siècle Europe Robert Jensen, 2022-02-08 In this fundamental rethinking of the rise of modernism from its beginnings in the Impressionist movement Robert Jensen reveals that market discourses were pervasive in the ideological defense of modernism from its very inception and that the avant garde actually thrived on the commercial appeal of anti commercialism at the turn of the century The commercial success of modernism he argues depended greatly on possession of historical legitimacy The very development of modern art was inseparable from the commercialism many of its proponents sought to transcend Here Jensen explores the economic aesthetic institutional and ideological factors that led to its dominance in the international art world by the early 1900s He emphasizes the role of the emerging dealer gallery market and of modernist art historiographies in evaluating modern art and legitimizing it through the formation of a canon of modernist masters In describing the canon building of modern dealerships Jensen considers the new ideological dealer and explores the commercial construction of artistic identity through such rhetorical concepts as temperament and independent art and through such institutional structures as the retrospective His inquiries into the fate of the juste milieu a group of dissidents who saw themselves as true heirs of Impressionism and his look at a new form of art history emerging in Germany further expose a linear dealer oriented history of modernist art constructed by or through the modernists themselves The Art of Children's Picture Books Sylvia S.
