History of Opinions on the Scriptural Doctrine of Retribution Edward Beecher, 1878 Retribution at Last Charles Brewer, 1899 Future Rewards and Punishments Wilbur Fisk, 1836 Post-mortem Divine Retribution Angukali Rotokha, 2023-05-31 While a Christian understanding of divine judgement tends to focus on the afterlife the Hebrew Bible is far more concerned with divine retribution as something experienced in this life Yet if the same God enacts both should there not be significant continuity between biblical accounts of divine retribution whether experienced in this world or the hereafter In this study Dr Angukali Rotokha provides an overview of Old Testament and Second Temple sources that express conceptions of post mortem judgement Alongside these passages she examines the perspective on judgement presented in Deuteronomy with its orientation towards divine retribution as experienced on this side of death She explores Deuteronomy's varying emphases on the impersonal anthropocentric theocentric and limited aspects of divine retribution as well as the relevance of these conceptions to the descriptions of post mortem judgement found in Isaiah Daniel 1 Enoch and 2 Maccabees In clarifying points of continuity and discontinuity between earthly and post mortem divine retribution she provides a foundation for deeper insight into the Judeo Christian understanding of both God's judgement and God's grace

Practices of Reparations in International Criminal Justice Christoph Sperfeldt,2022-07-07 Combining interdisciplinary techniques with original ethnographic fieldwork Christoph Sperfeldt examines the first attempts of international criminal courts to provide reparations to victims of mass atrocities The observations focus on two case studies the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia where Sperfeldt spent over ten years working at and around and the International Criminal Court s interventions in the Democratic Republic of Congo Enriched with first hand observations and an awareness of contextual dynamics this book directs attention to the social life of reparations that too often get lost in formal accounts of law and its institutions Sperfeldt shows that reparations are constituted and contested through a range of practices that produce change and give meaning to reparations Appreciating the nature and effects of these practices provides us with a deeper understanding of the discrepancies that exist between the reparations ideal and how it functions imperfectly in different contexts A Discussion of the Subject of Universalism Nelson Doolittle,1846 Reparations for
