Final Arrangements:

Final Arrangements 101 Kellie Richardson, 2017-07-23 Death is not a popular subject for many people The thought of making end of life plans can be very scary This fear prevents too many people from making decisions leaving instructions or even thinking about what will happen to their survivor s after they die The best time to make plans is now while you still can Not doing so will pass the burden to your family Do they know what your wishes are Do you or they have enough funds and other resources to take care of your final arrangements in addition to their other obligations There are so many things to consider and plan for Simply choosing between burial and cremation is just the beginning Final Arrangements 101 discusses many issues and situations that if not handled appropriately and timely can leave your survivor s in a tornado of emotional legal and financial entanglements that can last for months even years Topics include myths and misconceptions reasons to pre plan veteran issues and options burial cremation life insurance choosing the right funeral home and many horror stories about what happens to families when someone dies without taking care of these matters beforehand Don t wait until it s too late Do it now You will be glad you did and so will your family

Final Arrangements Miles Keaton Andrew, 2003-08-05 A black comedy as hip and quirky as Six Feet Under this no holds barred look at the funeral industry is every bit as funny as it is gruesome Beyond Final Arrangements David Merde, 2008-04 Clifton Mortuary was Jeremy Taylor s fourth employer in his sixteen year career in the death care industry A well proportioned fit and relatively handsome man Jeremy was considered personable although sometimes hard to read Working in a profession that had been reduced to a mere trade was depressing enough by itself There was little room for imagination and creativity but Jeremy s dedication to serving families was tempered with enthusiasm and when possible humor His mundane career and life however were destined to change when he met Rhonda Some misappropriate delegation and poor judgement mixed with bouts of mismanagement would result in a traumatic mistake at the mortuary The life altering event would be instrumental in changing him and the slumbering industry forever Beyond Final Arrangements provides an inside look at the death care business tempered with humor sadness romance sex conflict and lawsuits

Final Wishes Lisa Caraway Oliver Edd, Lisa

Oliver,2018-11-05 Here is the honest truth Making final arrangements for a loved one often brings about more pain and bad feelings among the surviving loved ones than healing Of course there is the inevitable pain of losing the loved one but I am referring to the unnecessary pain the deliberation over which funeral home should perform the service the discussions about paying for the service the arguments over whether the loved one even wanted a service in the first place the debates over what type of service to disagreements over how the deceased should be dressed for the service The examples are endless but I believe you get the picture If the loved one had just written down his or her wishes on what to do when he or she dies much of the drama around making final arrangements could be avoided Death is an important event and a certainty in our lives Unfortunately however like most events we deem significant many of us do not plan or prepare for our death When we pass on without leaving instructions about what to do when we die a massive burden is placed on our loved ones Many decisions must be made within a short period of time yet clear choices may be difficult to make By completing this document and distributing it among those you trust to carry out your final wishes you are sparing your loved ones the emotional and financial burden of making those final arrangements on your behalf This comprehensive document covers everything from the information required for a death certificate to if desired the type after service event to be held and who is to facilitate it
