Final Pabage True Shipwreck Adventures:

Final Passage Frederick Stonehouse, 2002 Stories of the famous shipwrecks including the wrecks of the Griffon the Edmund Fitzgerald and others The Sea Hunters Clive Cussler, Craig Dirgo, 1996 Collects accounts of the underwater discoveries made by the author and his team of volunteers dedicated to the exploration of historic wrecks including the Lexington and the Arkansas The True and Surprising Adventures, Voyages, Shipwreck, and Distresses, of Mons. Pierre Viaud, a French Sea-captain, and a Native of Bourdeaux Jean-Gaspard Dubois-Fontanelle, Mrs. Griffith (Elizabeth), 1797 Treasure Islands Alec Crawford, 2020-11-11 Crawford's absorbing account of his first adventures in the salvage trade an unusually likeable as well as interesting memoir The Scotsman In 1971 Alec Crawford is determined to make his fortune from ship salvage Early attempts lead nowhere until he teams up with a new partner Simon Martin Diving in Hebridean waters they explore remains of the Spanish Armada and the wreck of the SS Politician the vessel made famous in the film Whisky Galore But money is scarce and irregular and the work is fraught with danger and disappointment Until they hear of one of the most incredible wrecks of all time the White Star liner RMS Oceanic which when built in 1899 was the biggest and most luxurious ship in the world Widely regarded as an undiveable wreck lying somewhere off the remote island of Foula they decide to take the challenge They face unbelievably dangerous waters and appalling weather conditions and when a large salvage company takes action against them they also have a huge legal fight on their hands But if they succeed the rewards will be enormous Crawford pioneered many of the methods now used in deep sea recovery but this book is more about the excitement than the technicalities It is also a love song to Scotland and a vanishing way of life Sorted Magazine Crawford is a born story teller and his tales unfold as easily and naturally as he were an old friend The Shetland Times A story of genuine adventure Desperate Reader The True & Surprising Adventures, Voyages, Shipwreck & Distresses, of Mons. sealer Captain Charles Barnard recounts his harrowing experiences as a castaway in the Falkland Islands during the War of 1812 After rescuing the crew of a British ship Barnard s own vessel is seized leaving him and his men stranded on a remote island Facing harsh conditions and dwindling supplies they must rely on their wits and resilience to survive until rescue finally arrives two years later This book was originally published under the title A Narrative of the Sufferings and Adventures of Capt Charles Barnard Island of the Lost Joan Druett,2007 In January of 1864 five sailors from the wrecked schooner Grafton are stranded on remote and icy Auckland Island some three hundred miles from New Zealand An isolated speck in the Southern ocean it is a godforsaken place with winds howling at sixty miles an hour rain three hundred days a year and an almost impenetrable coastal forest Under the leadership of Captain Thomas Musgrave these men defy their slim chance of survival They build a cabin and incredibly a forge where they manufacture every single nail as well as most of their tools Miraculously all the Grafton men survive for nearly two years before finally building a getaway vessel and setting off on one of the most courageous sea voyages ever Meanwhile on the opposite end of the same island twenty miles of impassable cliffs and chasms away the ship Invercauld wrecks during a horrible gale in May 1864 Nineteen men struggle ashore They eventually succumb to utter anarchy and only three survive Using the survivors journals award winning maritime historian Joan Druett tells a gripping cautionary tale about leadership endurance and the fine line between order and chaos Publisher

Teenage Castaways Elly Blue, 2020-11-16 These five true stories are about teens who survived shipwrecks and lived to tell their incredible stories. Stories follow the adventures of 19th Century teens from Japan whose paths back home were complicated by global politics, two different white teens who are found belonging with Indigenous communities in northeast Australia in a time when their respective societies had little positive interaction, and six Tongan teens in the 1960s who survived on a deserted island for over a year. These stories of adventure, trauma, colonialism, and community all highlight the resilience of their youthful heroes in difficult and dangerous circumstances.
