Financing The European Community:

Financing the European Community Michael Shackleton, 1990 The operation and structure of collective revenue and expenditure are always the subject of lively debate in the European Community In February 1988 agreement was reached on the so called Delors package which sets the framework for the EC budget over the longer term This agreement made important innovations with regard to the level of agricultural expenditure spending on other policies and the development of own resources Subsequent decisions altered the institutional arrangements for managing the EC budget This paper examines the implementation of these decisions and assesses the implications for the future financing of the EC

Funding the European Union Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2007-03-14 This report finds that the funding of the EU is complex and lacks transparency and that there is a need for a simpler system that would reduce the administrative burden It concludes that a Gross National Income based revenue source is the best way of providing the bulk of the budget s funding Apart from other considerations the Committee has seen no evidence that any other new form of taxation would provide the same level of clarity and certainty

Financing the European Union Commission of the European Communities, 2004 Future Financing of the European Union Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. European Union Committee, 2005 Negotiations are underway to agree the details of the European Union budget for the period of 2007 to 2013 known as the Financial Perspective covering the newly enlarged EU of 25 member states Further enlargement is likely with Bulgaria and Romania due to join in 2007 and the possible accession of Croatia and Turkey being considered The Committee s report considers a range of issues in relation to the current budget debate including the merits of the Commission s proposals within the framework of recent and future EU enlargement the Common Agricultural Policy Structural and Cohesion Funds the Lisbon Agenda other spending categories the functioning of the Own Resources and a EU tax UK abatement and the Commission s proposal for a Generalised Corrective Mechanism Conclusions reached include support for the UK Government s insistence that the UK rebate is non negotiable given the inadequate reforms of the CAP however if real reform of the budget was offered then the UK Government should be prepared to negotiate Structural funds should be focused on the 10 new member states as well as the two applicant countries of Romania and Bulgaria with the phasing out of EU regional development funds for all old member states with the exception of Greece and Portugal

Financing the European Union Commission of the European Communities, 1998 EU Development Cooperation Policy Van den Sanden, Tina, 2022-06-16 Timely and incisive this book offers a critical insight into the legal structure of EU development cooperation policy exploring the innate complexities that give rise to legal challenges in this crucial area of EU external action Investigating the interaction between the key tenets of coherence and conferral Dr Tina Van den Sanden assesses how the Union s legal framework affects the attainment of its development cooperation objectives EU Law and Economics Armin Steinbach, 2024-12-17 The intersection between law and economics is a dynamic field of research Yet

European law has so far not been the subject of comprehensive systematic economic analysis. Instead, issues such as the European debt crisis, COVID-19 pandemic and the climate emergency have largely escaped scholarly analysis through the nexus of EU law and economics. EU Law and Economics closes this gap providing an overview of the application of economics to the institutional, procedural and substantive aspects of European law. Drawing on various branches of the economic sciences including rational choice and game theory and institutional and behavioural economics, this book goes beyond conventional methods of EU legal scholarship to expand our understanding of EU law and its effects. This book devotes attention to EU Treaties and secondary law as well as their adjudicative interpretation while using economic theory to explain their core legal principles such as conferral, subsidiarity and mutual recognition. Systematic and original, this book offers additional descriptive and normative metrics that expand our understanding of the decision-making behaviour of EU institutions and member states while opening a new dialogue between two distinct disciplines. Sustainable Finance Regulation in the European Union Rachel Calipha, Dafna M. DiSegni, Shirit Katav-Herz, 2025-05-30. This book explores the regulation of sustainable finance within the European Union, examining its background and development at a practical level. It begins by providing a concise overview of the key events and strategies that have shaped the EU's sustainable finance landscape, including the Paris Agreement, the 2018 Action Plan, the renewed strategy and ESMA's roadmap. Furthermore, it elaborates on the regulations, tools and standards encompassed by the sustainable finance framework, all of which are founded on this overarching strategy. The core of the book focuses on how six countries—Estonia, Spain, Germany, the Netherlands, Italy and Israel—have adapted and implemented these regulations. It highlights the unique strategies and perspectives each country brings to the global sustainable finance landscape. The book concludes with a cross-country analysis comparing the regulatory approaches and examining key dimensions like adoption, implementation, social inclusion and enforcement challenges.

Making the EU's Multiannual Financial Framework Fit for Purpose Matthias Busse, Ms. Huidan Lin, Malhar Nabar, Mr. Malhar S. Nabar, Jiae Yoo, 2025-06-13. The European Union's budget, known as the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF), has over time been a key tool for enhancing economic efficiency, achieving redistribution and helping the Union tackle pressing challenges. As the Union navigates an increasingly complex global environment and faces looming structural and demographic changes, it is increasingly evident that decisive EU-level actions will be needed to boost productivity and resilience. The MFF is a critical policy lever that can enable the needed EU-level actions. This paper argues for three key changes to the next MFF (2028–34) to help the budget play this role. First, bottom-up estimates of investment needs suggest that spending on European Public Goods to boost productivity and resilience needs to be increased to at least twice the current level. While this would require an at least 50 percent increase in the budget's size or about 0.6 percent of EU GNI annually if spending on programs such as the Cohesion Policy and Common

Agricultural Policy is kept unchanged focusing on activities that maximize positive externalities and reduce costly duplication can generate net positive values for member states Second reforms are needed to make the budget more streamlined responsive to evolving needs and more effective by incentivizing good performance Lastly the financing framework should be strengthened by integrating borrowing as a regular tool alongside greater own resources to bolster debt service capacity Increasing own resources by about 0.2 percent of GNI annually to cover peak debt servicing costs along with additional reserves for unexpected challenges would likely provide financial security to support the proposed increase in the budget A clearer focus on strategic investments and measurable outcomes will reinforce the budget's positive sum value helping build support for a more ambitious EU budget

The Foreign Policy of the European Union Stephan Keukeleire, Tom Delreux, 2022-02-10 Keukeleire and Delreux demonstrate the scope and diversity of the European Union's foreign policy showing that EU foreign policy is broader than the Common Foreign and Security Policy and the Common Security and Defence Policy and that areas such as trade development environment and energy are inextricable elements of it This book offers a comprehensive and critical account of the EU's key foreign relations with its neighbourhood with the US China and Russia and with emerged powers and argues that the EU's foreign policy needs to be understood not only as a response to crises and conflicts but also as a means of shaping international structures and influencing long term processes This third edition reflects recent changes and trends in EU foreign policy as well as the international context in which it operates addressing issues such as the increasingly contested international order the conflict in Ukraine the migration and refugee crisis Brexit and Covid 19 The book not only clarifies the formal procedures in EU foreign policy making but also elucidates how it works in practice The third edition includes new sections and boxes on strategic autonomy European arms exports the EU's external representation the Brussels Effect and decentring and gender approaches to EU foreign policy Up to date jargon free and supported by its own website eufp.eu this systematic and innovative appraisal of this key policy area is suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as practitioners

The EU Budget: The UK Rebate and the CAP - Phasing them both out? Jorge Núñez Ferrer, 2007 The CEPS Task Force on the EU budget began its deliberations shortly after the December 2005 Council Decision embracing all aspects of the budget and culminating after more than a year of preparation in this report This report offers a structure for evaluating the EU's expenditures and future reform options based on a set of guiding principles drawn from the EU Treaties and precepts of good governance It goes on to identify the misallocation of resources as a central cause of the net balance disputes that plague the system and undermine its fairness To ensure that the EU is able to act in areas of real value the report concludes that improvements in the rationale for the expenditures and an increase in the quality of interventions must occur in tandem with an elimination of distortions in the resources mechanism

Tax Law in Times of Crisis and Recovery Dominic de Cogan, Alexis Brassey, Peter Harris, 2023-05-04 This book examines the relationship between tax law and crisis In times of environmental financial and public health breakdown policymakers look to tax for solutions Yet these crises also constrain the ways in which tax liabilities can be imposed and administered and limit the revenues that can be collected What should governments do in these circumstances and what are the wider consequences for states societies and institutions such as the EU The book shows how crises place strain on the basic functions of tax including revenue raising institution building regulation redistribution and the structuring of society These strains bear more heavily on some sections of business and society than others This makes the tax consequences of crisis unpredictable It also means that the best choice of legal response is not merely a technical matter Instead it engages deeper attitudes towards crisis relief change social values and democratic control These issues are highlighted by COVID 19 but are of utmost lasting importance The book takes a comprehensive approach and looks in more depth at the systemic roles that crises play in contemporary tax systems It features an impressive cast of leading researchers across multiple jurisdictions and is essential for policymakers and scholars alike sources of funding for environmental measures implemented by European Union institutions against the backdrop of national expenditure by Member States and analyses the plausibility of the adopted targets in the run up to 2050 in the context of the war in Ukraine and ad hoc energy policy solutions This book is a voice in an ongoing discussion among the community of practitioners and theoreticians on sources of financing for the energy transition to achieve independence from Russian sources in the quickest possible timeframe It demonstrates that environmental measures cannot occur without the financial participation of economic actors and financial institutions particularly the capital market and further underscores the scale of involvement in environmental projects as measured by the value of green loans and green bonds covered by European financial institutions The authors offer policy recommendations for financing activities related to environmental policy notably energy transition This book will appeal to scholars students and researchers of corporate finance banking strategic and public finance management as well as policymakers and practitioners involved in green finance investments

Priorities in negotiating Romania's accession to the European Union Perju Genoveva, 2019-12-15 Priorities in negotiating Romania's accession to the European Union by Prof. ec. Dr. Genoveva Elena

Period Priorities in negotiating Romania's accession to the European Union The competitiveness of the Romanian exports has improved both as a result of the restructuring of the economy and the devaluation of the currency The example of industrial production is illustrative Production of the processing industry decreased by 8% in 1999 compared to 1998 its share in exports increasing from 30.7% to 35.1% and the export growth rate was 5.9% The main effect was a reduction of the current account deficit Overall the current account deficit fluctuated representing on average 5.2% of GDP The budget deficit was difficult to control but it was achieved by applying the European Union's strictures We can also talk about performance in terms of the level of external debt relative to the level of the external debt of the Union which is at a higher level than other candidate countries The labor market was affected by imbalances both in the ratio of the active and inactive population and in the employment rate The population employed in agriculture owns about 40% of the total employed population In addition a large part of the population was affected by the poor approximately 33.8% population especially in rural areas 40.5% In such an internal and international framework marked by interdependencies with echoes internally from the Union or candidate countries resolving divergent situations or removing obstacles to assuming obligations and arousing political will the quality and experience of the negotiator can be considered decisive for further cooperation
