Financing Protected Areas Guidelines For Protected Area Managers:

Financing Protected Areas IUCN World Commission on Protected Areas, 2000 These guidelines explore financing options for protected areas and provide advice and information on sustainable financing Both public and private financing is needed to ensure provision of the private and public goods and services which protected areas provide A step by step process is given which protected area managers can use to create business and financial plans tailored to the needs and strengths of their protected area Mechanisms are discussed for generating revenue flows from both public and private sources and an overview of potential grant based sources of financing is given It concludes with case studies demonstrating how protected area managers worldwide have developed cohesive funding strategies Guidelines for Protected Areas Legislation Barbara J. Lausche, 2011 The central aim of this publication is to consider the key elements of a modern comprehensive and effective legal framework for successful management of protected areas They provide practical guidance for all those involved in developing improving or reviewing national legislation on protected areas be they legal drafters and practitioners protected area managers interested NGOs or scholars These guidelines include fifteen case studies eight dealing with the protected area legislation of individual countries and six cases dealing with specific sites providing fundamental solutions that stand the test of time Managing Protected Areas Michael Lockwood, Graeme Worboys, Ashish Kothari, 2012-05-04 This handbook produced by world renowned experts from the World Conservation Union IUCN spans the full terrain of protected area management and is the international benchmark for the field The book employs dozens of detailed international cases studies hundreds of concise topical snapshots maps tables illustrations and a colour plate section as well as evaluation tools checklists and numerous appendices to cover all aspects of park management from biodiversity to natural heritage to financial management The book establishes a conceptual underpinning for protected area management presents guiding principles for the 21st century reflects recent work on international best practice and provides an assessment of skills required by professionals As the most authoritative guide ever compiled to the principles and practice of protected area management this volume is essential for all professionals and students in all countries and contexts Protected Area Governance and Management Graeme L. Worboys, Michael Lockwood, Ashish Kothari, Sue Feary, Ian Pulsford, 2015-04-08 Protected Area Governance and Management presents a compendium of original text case studies and examples from across the world by drawing on the literature and on the knowledge and experience of those involved in protected areas The book synthesises current knowledge and cutting edge thinking from the diverse branches of practice and learning relevant to protected area governance and management It is intended as an investment in the skills and competencies of people and consequently the effective governance and management of protected areas for which they are responsible now and into the future The global success of the protected area concept lies in its shared vision to protect natural and cultural heritage for the long term and organisations such as International Union for the Conservation of Nature are a unifying force in this regard Nonetheless protected areas are a socio political phenomenon and the ways that nations understand govern and manage them is always open to contest and debate The book aims to enlighten educate and above all to challenge readers to think deeply about protected areas their future and their past as well as their present The book has been compiled by 169 authors and deals with all aspects of protected area governance and management It provides information to support capacity development training of protected area field officers managers in charge and executive level managers Protected Area Management Barbara Sladonja,2012-08-08 Protected areas are at the base of the most national and international conservation strategies Due to the many unpredictable elements in ecology matters each protected area requires a case specific set of guidelines but a common issue is how to cope with human interaction The management of protected areas is replete with challenges and the only way to gain understanding and achieve greater management possibilities is to exchange experiences and knowledge Environmental managers are aware of that and together with scientists are looking for more modern and better solutions both with respect to natural resources and human interactions in many issues regarding nature protection This publication presents reviews and research results on protected areas management as well as 12 case studies derived from around the world with the aim of improving management effectiveness of the protected areas Regional action plan for the protected areas of East Asia 2006-2010 , Guidelines for protected area management planning Karadeniz N., Yenilmez Arpa, N.,2022-07-01 Management planning guidelines represent the second major step in the process for planning protected areas following implementation of the Establishment Guidelines This publication was developed as a part of the Conservation and Sustainable Management of Turkey's Steppe Ecosystem Project It is the one of seven sets of guidelines designed for the development of recommendations and strategies for the management of the country's natural assets This guidelines are based on international and national standards and are divided into 15 steps for successful management A fundamental pre condition for any form of management planning is clear definition of the overall management objectives to be achieved These management objectives are linked to the IUCN protected area categories which form the basis for the guidelines Important recommendations for successful management include the creation of thematic preparatory maps on topography habitats borders and zones and habitat based planning The guidelines provide basic recommendations for the integration of global trends and requirements connected with nature conservation and protected areas into the protected area management process A central element of this process is the management plan which sets out the management approach and goals together with a framework for decision making to be applied in the protected area over a given period of time The management plan is usually valid for a period of 10 years but may include a mid term review Changes can only be made to the plan on the basis of ecological or natural reasons Indigenous and Local Communities and Protected Areas Grazia Borrini,Ashish Kothari,Gonzalo Oviedo,2004 Conventional approaches to managing protected areas have often seen people and nature as separate entities They preclude human communities from using natural resources and assume that their concerns are incompatible with conservation Protected area approaches and models that see conservation as compatible with human communities are explored The main themes are co managed protected areas and community conserved areas Practical guidance is offered drawing on recent experience reflections and advice developed at the local national regional and international level

Guidelines for Financing Protected Areas in East Asia Andrea Athanas,2001 These guidelines address one of the most critical issues which protected area planners and managers face in the East Asia region obtaining the funds needed to ensure the survival and success of protected areas The publication explains how protected areas can generate more finance to help meet their needs and contains brief case studies It also includes a list of potential funding sources in the region It is hoped that the advice available in these guidelines will provide protected areas managers in East Asia with some of the tools and knowledge that they require to improve the financial bottom line of their protected areas and protected area systems
