Hancocks Last Stand:

Hancock's Last Stand Edward Joffe, 1998 Dear John Joan Le Mesurier, 2012-05-03 A magical memoir of Dad's Army star John Le Mesurier one of the greatest actors and gentleman of his generation Some years after John Le Mesurier's death his widow Joan re-read her carefully stored cache of John's letters to her and to him from his closest friends Dear John is her letter back to him today helping us to understand their remarkable life together taking us with her behind the scenes on Dad's Army and his many films and into the world of their friendships including with Clive Dunne and maverick Beatles publicist Derek Taylor Through her own recollections and John's correspondence Joan reveals the real John Le Mesurier a man of kindness charm and integrity She describes how they first met when John was unhappily married to Hattie Jacques It was Hattie a wonderful woman who became a lifelong friend who encouraged Joan and John to get married Their marriage lasted 21 years and survived Joan's love affair with Tony Hancock Although deeply hurt John nevertheless welcomed her back Honest touching nostalgic this is a story that will warm every reader's heart as well as give a new understanding of a remarkable man , I'll Be Here in the Morning Brian T. Atkinson, 2011-11-28 The writer of such influential songs as Pancho and Lefty To Live's to Fly If I Needed You and For the Sake of the Song Townes Van Zandt exerted an influence on at least two generations of Texas musicians that belies his relatively brief deeply troubled life Indeed Van Zandt has influenced millions worldwide in the years since his death and his impact is growing rapidly Respected singer songwriter John Gorka speaks for many when he says Pancho and Lefty changed it unchained my idea of what a song could be In this tightly woven intelligently written book Brian T Atkinson interviews both well known musicians and up and coming artists to reveal in the performers own words how their creative careers have been shaped by the life and work of Townes Van Zandt Kris Kristofferson Guy Clark Billy Joe Shaver Rodney Crowell Lucinda Williams and Lyle Lovett are just a few of the established musicians who share their impressions of the breathtakingly beautiful tunes and lyrics he created along with their humorous poignant painful and indelible memories of witnessing Van Zandt's rise and fall Atkinson balances the reminiscences of seasoned veterans with the observations of relative newcomers to the international music scene such as Jim James My Morning Jacket Josh Ritter and Scott Avett the Avett Brothers presenting a nuanced view of Van Zandt's singular body of work his reckless lifestyle and his long lasting influence Forewords by Cowboy Jack Clement and longtime Van Zandt manager and friend Harold F Eggers Jr open the book and each chapter begins with an introduction in which Atkinson provides context and background linking each interviewee to Van Zandt's legacy Historians students and fans of all music from country and folk to rock and grunge will find new insights and recall familiar pleasures as they read I'll Be Here in the Morning The Songwriting Legacy of Townes Van Zandt Hancock's Diary Richard R. Hancock, 1887 Hancock The Superb Glenn Tucker, 2015-11-06 This is the life story of a great fighting general of the Civil War Winfield Scott Hancock In the early fighting on the Peninsula when the Confederates were flanked out of Fort Magruder McClellan reported Hancock was superb Before long people were referring to him as Hancock the Superb and for the next three years he re earned the sobriquet in battle after battle He was able to distinguish himself equally in disastrous defeat as at Chancellorsville and in victory as at Gettysburg Tucker feels personally that some of Hancock's work with Grant in the Wilderness and at Spotsylvania was the most fascinating of his career and he makes a good case for this view Glenn Tucker chose to write about Hancock primarily because of his interesting personality and remarkable career These are reason enough He also had another reason For more than three years while a succession of commanding generals came and went Hancock was a growing power in the Army of the Potomac Along with his study of Hancock Tucker also presents a graphic picture of the Army of the Potomac It was a much maligned army Because of its inept bumbling commanders it took some crushing and much publicized defeats But in spite of Pope Burnside Hooker and others not much better it weathered the worst blows Lee could inflict on it preserved a bloody stalemate and at last wore down the enemy Hancock and the Army of the Potomac fought together right up to the end Never seeking top command Hancock was the best and most trusted of the subordinate generals Under good commanders and bad his steadiness unfailing courage and incisive military judgment many times helped to preserve the Army of the Potomac as an efficient fighting force Glenn Tucker's reporting skill puts you right in the action You are at Hancock's elbow in a score of battles in Virginia and you are there for three cataclysmic days at Gettysburg

Do You Think That's Wise? Graham McCann, 2010-09-25 Best known for Dad's Army in which his Sergeant Wilson played the languid rakish foil to Arthur Lowe's pompous chippy Captain Mainwaring John Le Mesurier was one of Britain's favourite and most recognisable character actors The epitome of insouciance and languor on screen in real life this charming quietly spoken bon viveur was plagued by private turmoil and heartbreak Married three times he saw his first wife succumb to alcoholism his second the comedy diva Hattie Jacques move her lover into the family home and his third enjoy a passionate dalliance with troubled comic Tony Hancock As Graham McCann reveals in this fully authorised and moving biography as an actor John Le Mesurier was a key ingredient in the success of Britain's greatest sitcom but as a man he was far more courageous than Sergeant Wilson was ever meant to be

The Echo in the Stillness: A Sentinel's Choice Erika Rose, Jane Austen's Cousin Geri Walton, 2021-05-12 Eliza de Feuillide seemed fascinating and outlandish to her cousins in rural eighteenth century England When she visited their village her appearance was electrifying She was an attractive accomplished French countess with a vivacious personality who inspired their imaginations and regaled them with stories of life in London and Paris where she hobnobbed with French nobility and wore the latest fashions One of these impressionable younger cousins would find Eliza's stories so fascinating that she would incorporate elements of Eliza's life into some of the most famous novels in English literature This cousin was Jane Austen Yet Eliza's life was not as glamorous as Jane or her Austen cousins might have thought She faced many tragedies in her life that wealth and social class could not protect her against She was also forced to adapt and reexamine her priorities in a way that would dramatically change her life choices and result in a more sedate lifestyle Read about the perseverance and courage of the real person behind several fictional characters in Jane Austen's writings and novels and the deeper connection Eliza had to the Austen family Other Souths Pippa Holloway, 2008 Other Souths collects fifteen innovative essays that place issues of race class gender ethnicity and sexuality at the center of the narrative of southern history Using a range of methodologies and approaches contributing historians provide a fresh perspective to key events and move long overlooked episodes into prominence Pippa Holloway edited the volume using a chronological and event driven framework with which many students and teachers will be familiar The book covers well recognized topics in American history wars reform efforts social movements and political milestones Cultural topics are considered as well including the development of consumer capitalism the history of rock and roll and the history of sport The focus and organization of the essays underscore the value of southern history to the larger national narrative Other Souths reveals the history of what may strike some as a surprisingly dynamic and nuanced region a region better understood by paying closer and more careful attention to its diversity History of Kossuth, Hancock, and Winnebago Counties, Iowa, 1884 Before Mandela's Rainbow Edward Joffe, 2013-10-25 FUNNIER THAN ADRIAN MOLE AND FAR SEXIER Does not skirt round the vast injustice of apartheid SUPERB MEMOIR Joffe is a man sui generis Impish at times but always interesting Memorable and well written AN INTIMATE FUNNY AND PROFOUND PERSONAL HISTORY Reading this funny clever sometimes vicious portrayal of growing up in Johannesburg in the 1930s 40s and 50s I found myself reminded of Blake's line To see a world in a grain of sand This is because Joffe in writing a detailed and often very amusing account of his personal adventures and misadventures captures also the texture of the broader environment the brutal decades of racist horror of his native land Joffe relates events with the engaging rhythm of all great story tellers there are villains like sadistic teachers and fatuous fathers in law there are lost adolescents in pursuit of sex and meaning there are coming of age crises and triumphs and an almost Dickensian host of memorable often quirky family members and friends Read it and you will see what I mean Read it and you'll laugh frequently Read it and you'll better understand the last 80 years of South African history BRILLIANT MEMOIR Fascinating portrait of life in pre Mandela South Africa packed with very fine vignettes A page turning account of adolescence and the pains of growing up Source Amazon customer reviews Winfield Scott Hancock David M. CHAPTER I A DELIGHTFUL MYSTERY

I think we are ready to start girls Miss Elting folded the road map that she had been studying and placed it in a pocket of her long dust coat There was a half smile on her face a merry twinkle in her eyes Which way do I drive questioned Jane McCarthy Straight ahead out of the village answered Miss Elting the guardian of the party of young girls who were embarking on their summer s vacation under somewhat unusual circumstances It s the first time I ever started for a place without knowing what the place was or where I was going declared Jane McCarthy otherwise known as Crazy Jane Won t you please tell us where we are going lisped Grace Thompson Miss Elting shook her head with decision Do my father and mother know where we are going persisted Grace Of course they know Tommy The parents of each of you know and I know and so shall you after you reach your destination Have you everything in the car Jane Everything but myself nodded Jane The latter s automobile well loaded with camping equipment stood awaiting its passengers The latter were Miss Elting Jane McCarthy Harriet Burrell Grace Thompson Hazel Holland and Margery Brown the party being otherwise known as The Meadow Brook Girls Get in girls We ll shake the dust of Meadow Brook from our tires before you can count twenty continued Jane If Crazy Jane were to drive through the town slowly folks surely would think something startling had happened to her Is there anything you wish to do before we leave Miss Elting Not that I think of at the moment Jane Oh let s say good bye to our folks suggested Margery Brown I have said good bye answered Grace with finality We ll give them a farewell blast chuckled Jane With that she climbed into the car and with a honk of the horn drove down that street and into the next keeping the horn going almost continually As they passed the home of each girl the young women gave the yell of the Meadow Brook Girls Rah rah rah Rah rah rah Meadow Brook Meadow Brook Sis boom ah It was shouted in chorus at their homes and as the car passed the homes of their friends as well Hands were waved from windows hats were swung in the air by boy friends while the older people smiled indulgently and nodded to them as the rapidly moving motor car passed through the village I think the town knows all about it now Suppose we make a start suggested Miss Elting We haven t thenaded the potthmathter yet Tommy reminded her Nor the butcher the baker and the candle stick maker answered Harriet Burrell laughingly How long a drive have we Miss Elting Four or five hours ordinarily Jane undoubtedly will make it in much less time if she drives at her usual rate of speed Straight south Jane I will tell you when to change The faces of the girls wore a puzzled expression They could not imagine where they were going Miss Elting had made a mystery of this summer vacation and not a word had the girls been able to obtain from her as to where they were to go whether to tour the country in Crazy Jane s automobile or to go into camp Tommy declared that it was a perfectly delightful mythtery and that she didn t care where they were going while Margery on the contrary grumbled incessantly The start had been made late in the afternoon The day had been cloudy There were even indications of rain but the girls did not care They were too well inured to the weather to be disturbed by lowering skies and threatening clouds In the meantime Jane McCarthy was bowling along to the southward throwing up a cloud of dust having many narrow escapes from collisions with farmers wagons and wandering stock Grace Harlowe's Overland Riders in the Great North Woods Jessie Graham Flower, 1921
