Hand Me My Griot Clothes Peter Harris, 1993      African American Review, 1996 As the official publication of the Division on Black American Literature and Culture of the Modern Language Association of America African American review promotes an exchange among writers and scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences who hold diverse perspectives of African American literature and culture      Beyond the Frontier E. Ethelbert Miller, 2002 This anthology begins with the memory of landscapes and landmarks presenting poems in the For My People tradition of Margaret Walker It includes a section titled Blood and Disappointment in the Land which documents ongoing social struggles Other poems focus on the love that is essential for survival rebirth and dreams More than 100 prominent African American poets contribute including the distinguished and award winning poets Toi Derricotte Sam Cornish Jabari Asim and Pinkie Gordon Lane      African Life and Customs Edward Wilmot Blyden, 1994 In African Life and Customs Blyden examined the culture of pure Africans those untouched by European and Asiatic influences He identified the family as the basic unit in African society and polygamy as the foundation of African families He described African social systems as cooperative everyone worked for each other No one went without work food or clothing Blyden challenged white racial theorists who held Africans were inferior and whose arguments supported their preconceived ideas He assumed Africans to be distinct rather than inferior and he analyzed African culture within the context of African social experiences      The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: U-Z Hans A. Ostrom, J. David Macey, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher      HOW TO ACQUIRE BOOKS LISTED IN CURRENT CONTENTS, 1996      What Makes a Man Rebecca Walker, 2004 One of Time magazine's 50 Future Leaders of America brings together novelists essayists men and women to talk about the future of masculinity What does it mean to be male in the twenty first century What does the concept of masculinity even mean in the wake of four decades of modern feminism What makes a man a man today and a woman a woman Are those distinctions even real anymore In this groundbreaking collection Michael Datcher Michael Moore Anthony Swofford Ruth Bettelheim and a whole host of the world's most influential authors address these questions and many others Through diverse themes that touch all of our lives including sex grief power money family privilege violence marriage and work these accomplished contributors lend their unique perspectives as they share their thoughts experiences and stories on forging new men and defining masculinity in a constantly changing world Rebecca Walker's feminist anthology To Be Real published nearly a decade ago is a standard text in women's studies courses across the country. Considered one of the defining texts of contemporary feminism To Be Real successfully bridged chasms between generations and ideologies. Similarly revolutionary and challenging in scope What Makes a Man will be the first book to articulate and define the contours and concerns of a new generation of men.
