The Island of the Great Mother Gerhart Hauptmann, Edwin Muir, 1925 Begun in 1916 first published in 1924 this an almost poetic utopian work About one hundred women and a twelve year old boy shipwrecked from a luxury liner on an unknown South Sea island establish a matriarchal society a paradise of natural existence In this society children are regarded as of divine origin and there is a taboo on even considering who the father of any given child may be The island religion resembles ancient Greek mythology but with Hindu and Buddhist aspects As the male children grow up they are exiled to the other side of the island where they develop a different kind of society and even establish contact with the outside world Eventually the matriarchal rule is ended by a revolt of the men who bring society back to the more usual civilized aspects and end this temporary utopian ideal world Leo Jessica Adams, 1999
