centered IFS CCIFS combines the power of internal system therapy with the healing power of God for lasting change. Therapists with Christian clients, faith-based clients, or clients who need foundational grounding will benefit from the psychological and spiritual dimensions of Christ-Centered Therapy: Empowering the Self. This powerful therapeutic model posits a self surrounded by subpersonalities who carry anger, fear, distrust, and other negative responses. When the client's self takes the leadership role, the self becomes the channel for Christ's grace for all the subpersonalities. One by one, they become empowered, center around self and God, and contribute their resources to the functioning of the whole personality. Christ-Centered Therapy: Empowering the Self provides exercises and visual aids to help both client and counselor, including four tools to teach the self to lead effectively, worksheets to serve as a structural and visual guide to understanding, developing, and using each tool, a parts map for client and counselor to use collaboratively, cartoons, structural diagrams, and dialogues to illustrate new concepts and procedures. Each chapter of Christ-Centered Therapy: Empowering the Self provides specific help for the counselor, including case studies showing step-by-step clinical interventions, a content summary, a clinical outline listing the interventions in sequence, an exercise to help counselors discover their own inner and spiritual dynamics. Christ-Centered Therapy: Empowering the Self brings together the diagnostic and restorative power of IFS with the transforming power of Christian spirituality. It is essential for Christian counselors and for non-Christian counselors who are seeking more effective ways to treat Christian clients.

RESET: Living in God's Emotional and Instinctual Balance

Have you ever felt stuck? Have you been praying but feel like you're not getting any traction? Do you ever feel like you just need to start all over, hit the reset button? This book can walk you through the process of uncovering and discovering what is blocking you from living a life filled with the fruits of the Spirit. With a simple chart of nineteen instincts and emotions that can get out of balance, it's possible to identify key areas to recalibrate in order to claim the joy that Christ gifted us with. The middle column of the chart illustrates a balanced, joyful, and fruitful life, while the rest of the chart looks at the signs along the way that indicate we're out of balance. There are key elements of our faith that can help us to move toward this balance: getting to know our Savior better, donning the full armor that God provides us with to battle our very real enemy, looking with eyes wide open at the temptation we face today, centering our lives on Christ, demystifying and using prayer A closer look at these elements can help us reset leading us to a life free of the bondage of emotions and instincts that are out of control
