The Take-Action Guide to World Class Learners Book 2 Yong Zhao, Homa Tavangar, Emily McCarren, Gabriel F. Rshaid, Kay Tucker, 2016-02-03 Your blueprint for product-oriented learning The World Class Learners series provides the most complete information available on designing twenty-first century schools poised to leapfrog into the future These practice-oriented books expand on Dr Yong Zhao's acclaimed World Class Learners, which presents a new framework for cultivating creative and entrepreneurial students Now with this second book in the follow-up three-volume set, Zhao digs much deeper, revealing how exactly to put that framework into effect The second book in the series outlines how to Understand entrepreneurship and project-oriented learning Implement making as learning POL curriculum Help students create quality entrepreneurial products Understand ownership, copyrights, and patents Implement Zhao's new paradigm shift one phase at a time, starting with any book depending upon your priorities Better yet, read all three volumes for a complete blueprint to entrepreneur-minded schooling The ideal school should provide opportunities and resources to enable students to personalize their educational experiences instead of receiving a uniform, standardized, externally prescribed education diet Yong Zhao Liberalism Unveiled: Forging A New Third Way In Singapore Bryan Yi Da Cheang, Donovan Choy, 2021-01-04

Since 1965 Singapore has been propelled to the dizzying heights of first world prosperity Yet the People's Action Party's signature style of technocratic elitism has come under increasing criticism by a new generation of left leaning progressive scholars and activists condemning the excesses of neoliberalism The PAP's mode of governance that prioritizes economic growth is criticised in favour of a vaguely European style welfare state and greater state intervention Bryan Cheang and Donovan Choy break this traditional pro PAP versus anti PAP dichotomy by providing a fresh classical liberal perspective The authors contend that both sides discern only parts of the political puzzle correctly This book envisions a new path forward for Singapore's policy making one characterised by greater competition freedom It critiques the conservative right through a fresh take on the philosophical underpinnings of the Singapore Consensus communitarianism meritocracy and technocracy The authors also engage with the new social democratic orthodoxy demonstrating the dangers of egalitarian interventions state based environmentalism Applying the interdisciplinary insights of political philosophy and political economy this novel account recommends epistemic liberalism a system of governance based on intellectual humility limited government and decentralisation
