Memories Best Forgotten Richard Parke-Taylor, 2019-07-10. Nothing is simple for Rickey Parkitt Mann, an innocent and impressionable boy who relocates with his family to No 1 Fighter Wing Air Force Base in Marville, France. The year is 1956 and at the tender age of six, Rickey is thrown into early adolescence which is filled with surprise, excitement and insecurity. He lives with his mother, father and little sister in C block of the Private Married Quarters (PMQs), eleven miles from the Base. The PMQs are their own little microcosm with no phones, television or police to regulate what goes on. Rickey meets a variety of friends and foes, some who seem to be both, including the Air Force Brats, one of the PMQs' infamous boy gangs. Teased, taunted and taken for granted, Rickey quickly matures beyond his years. When he's not navigating the slippery rungs of schoolyard hierarchies, he also travels around Europe with his family, camping, meeting odd characters and learning more about the world. His life of adventure and learning is occasionally punctuated by moments of shock and tragedy, including the suicide, perhaps murder, of a burgeoning friend. In this exciting work of autobiographical fiction, Richard Andrew Parke Taylor brings us a stunningly detailed and realistic portrait of boyhood and distant life in the wake of the Second World War. Oscillating between moments of humor and horror, Memories Best Forgotten will rivet the reader until the dramatic final pages.
