Middle English Medical Recipes and Literary Play, 1375-1500 Hannah Bower, 2022-03-21 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Middle English Medical Recipes and Literary Play 1375-1500 is the first detailed book-length study of Middle English medical recipes in their literary imaginative social and codicological contexts Analysing recipe collections in over seventy late medieval manuscripts this book explores how the words and structures of recipes could contribute to those texts healing purpose but could also confuse impede exceed and redefine that purpose The study therefore presents a challenge to recipes' traditional reputation as mundane unartful texts written and read solely for the sake of directing practical action Crucially it also relocates these neglected texts and overlooked manuscripts within the complex networks forming medieval textual culture demonstrating that though marginalized in modern scholarship medical recipes were actually linguistically formally materially and imaginatively interconnected with many other late medieval discourses including devotional writings romances fabliaux and Chaucerian

poetry The monograph thus models for readers modes of analysis and close reading that might be deployed in relation to recipes in order to understand better their allusive fragmentary and playful qualities as well as their wide ranging influence on medieval imaginations The Index of Middle English Prose, Handlist XII Ralph Hanna, 1997-09-04 The Index of Middle English Prose is an international collaborative project which will ultimately locate identify and record all extant Middle English prose texts composed between c 1200 and c 1500 in both manuscript and printed form in medieval and post medieval versions The first step towards this goal has been this series of Handlists each recording the holdings of a major library or group of libraries Compiled by scholars Handlists include detailed descriptions of each prose item with identifications categorisations and full bibliographical data Every Handlist will also contain a series of indexes including listings of opening and closing lines authors titles subject matter and rubrics For students of the middle ages Handlists provide essential bibliographical tools and shed light on a wide range of subjects A Check-list of Middle English Prose Writings of Spiritual Guidance P. S. Jolliffe, 1974 Manuscripts in the Library of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge Kari Anne Rand, Kari Anne Rand Schmidt, 2001 Fifty five catalogued manuscripts include major religious works and medical writing on uroscopy surgery bloodletting and pestilence Re-using Manuscripts in Late Medieval England Hannah Ryley, 2022 A fresh appraisal of late medieval manuscript culture in England examining the ways in which people sustained older books exploring the practices and processes by which manuscripts were crafted mended protected marked gifted and shared During the long fifteenth century here 1375 1530 the demand for books in England flourished The fast developing book trade produced them in great quantity Fragments of manuscripts were often repurposed as flyleaves and other components such as palimpsests and alongside the creation of new books medieval manuscripts were also repaired recycled and re used This monograph examines the ways in which people sustained older books exploring the practices and processes by which manuscripts were crafted mended protected marked gifted and shared Drawing on the codicological evidence gathered from an extensive survey of extant manuscript collections in conjunction with historical accounts recipes and literary texts it presents detailed case studies exploring parchment production and recycling the re use of margins and second hand exchanges of books Its engagement with the evidence in and inscribed on surviving books enables a fresh appraisal of late medieval manuscript culture in England looking at how people went about re using books and arguing that over the course of this period books were made used and re used in a myriad of sustainable ways
