Andreassen,Gordon Crawford,2013-07-18 Human Rights Power and Civic Action examines the interrelationship between struggles for human rights and the dynamics of power focusing on situations of poverty and oppression in developing countries It is argued that the concept of power is a relatively neglected one in the study of rights based approaches to development especially the ways in which structures and relations of power can limit human rights advocacy Therefore this book focuses on how local and national struggles for rights have been constrained by power relations and structural inequalities as well as the extent to which civic action has been able to challenge alter or transform such power structures and simultaneously to enhance protection of people s basic human rights Contributors examine and compare struggles to advance human rights by non governmental actors in Cambodia China Ghana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe The country case studies analyse structures of power responsible for the negation and denial of human rights as well as how rights promoting organisations challenge such structures Utilising a comparative approach the book provides empirically grounded studies leading to new theoretical understanding of the interrelationships between human rights struggles power and poverty reduction Human Rights Power and Civic Action will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights politics power development and governance Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States. Artists and Intellectuals and the Requests of Power Ivo De Gennaro,Hans Christian Günther,2009 A much discussed question in classical studies is the comparison between the situation of poets in Augustan Rome and that of artists and intellectuals in the totalitarian regimes of the twentieth century As instructive as this question proves to be for an understanding of the relation between the freedom of art and thinking on the one hand and power on the other it also reveals the insufficiency of our present grasp of this crucial articulation of our humanity This volume offers a multidisciplinary and comparative approach to the problem complementing the historical perspective with a regard on Eastern traditions It thus explores tentative paths for future research on an issue of critical importance for the shaping of the global world
