Handbook For Integrating Poverty Impact In Economic Analysis Of Projects:

Handbook for integrating poverty impact assessment in the economic analysis of projects Economics and Development Resource Center,2001 Handbook for Integrating Poverty Impact Assessment in the Economic Analysis of Projects Asian Development Bank,Economics and Development Resource Center (Asian Development Bank),2001 This handbook provides practical recommendations and examples that build on current practice in project economic analysis In addition to discussing conceptual aspects it provides examples based on ADB projects Guidelines for the Economic Analysis of Projects Asian Development Bank,2017-03-01 Project economic analysis is a tool used by the Asian Development Bank ADB to ensure that ADB operations comply with its Charter The guidelines in this publication are a revised version of the 1997 edition The revision responds to the changing development context and ADB operational priorities and aims to address the recommendations of the ADB Quality at Entry Assessments for more methodological work on project economic analysis The revised guidelines provide general principles for the conduct of project economic analysis and should be read together with handbooks technical reports and other reference materials published by ADB dealing with sector specific project economic analysis in detail Handbook on Poverty and Social Analysis Asian Development Bank,2012-12-01 The Asian Development Bank ADB supports inclusive growth in the Asia and Pacific region by giving attention to the poverty impact and social dimensions of its operations This publication contributes to this endeavor by providing practical guidance to ADB staff government officers project stakeholders and consultants involved in programming preparing and implementing activities for them to effectively address poverty and social dimensions in ADB financed operations The handbook provides a road map to specific ADB policies and procedures related to poverty and social analysis with the end view of achieving inclusive equitable and sustainable development outcomes Current Issues in Project Analysis for Development John Weiss,David Potts,2012-01-01 For over fifty years project analysis techniques have been applied in the assessment of development projects where poorly designed and appraised projects can waste scarce resources This study examines the continued relevance of this approach assesses methodological developments over this period and investigates current practical problems in the application of these techniques This major work brings together authors with experience of both academic and operational project work to focus on issues such as the shadow exchange rate the shadow wage the discount rate and assessment of poverty impact and risk as well as problems relating to specific sectors covering environmental projects transport education and health There are also general chapters on the experience of semi input output based estimation of shadow prices and the relevance of shadow pricing techniques to the context of developed economies in the EU An overview by the editors sets out the evolution of the literature and highlights current issues The general conclusion is that project analysis techniques remain relevant albeit within a very different development context to that in which they were originally envisaged to be applied With new perspectives on key economic parameters this book will appeal to academics working on development officials involved with project aid programmes postgraduate students of development and professional economists working on development projects

Assessing the Impact of Transport and Energy Infrastructure on Poverty Reduction Cynthia C. Cook, Asian Development Bank, 2005 The objectives of the RETA regional technical assistance project a study based on a literature and project review and on field research in three Asian countries People's Republic of China Thailand and India were to enhance current understanding of how transport and energy infrastructure contribute to poverty reduction to fill knowledge gaps and to identify lessons learned and good practices P 1

The Elgar Companion to Development Studies David Clark, 2006 If handbooks can be inspiring this is it Like a true companion it takes in its stride conversations both big and small Its entries do not just present an international and multidisciplinary mix but true to life they work on several different scales And importantly the book makes its authority evident For it is like an extended website but with all the added advantages of an encyclopaedia that actually tells you about the authors and the sources on which they have drawn The resulting compilation is highly intelligent thoughtful and above all usable Dame Marilyn Strathern University of Cambridge UK The Elgar Companion to Development Studies is a major production in the development studies field authored by a star studded cast of contributors With 136 entries covering a vast range of topics it should quickly establish itself as a leading work of reference We should all feel indebted to David Clark who has successfully brought this substantial publishing project to completion John Toye University of Oxford UK This is a most comprehensive handbook on development studies It brings together a wide varied array of carefully crafted summaries of 136 key topics in development by an international cast of well respected academics and other experts in respective areas of study The handbook is heavily interdisciplinary organically combining economic political historical social cultural institutional ethical and human aspects of development While the wide range of entries might appear as a simple glossary listing or an encyclopedic collection each of the 136 entries offers more depth and discussion than the average handbook Viewed in this light this companion is highly likely to become known as a leading reference work on the topic Highly recommended Ismael Hossein Zadeh Choice The Elgar Companion to Development Studies is an innovative and unique reference book that includes original contributions covering development economics as well as development studies broadly defined This major new Companion brings together an international panel of experts from varying backgrounds who discuss theoretical ethical and practical issues relating to economic social cultural institutional political and human aspects of development in poor countries It also includes a selection of intellectual biographies of leading development thinkers While the Companion is organised along the lines of an encyclopaedia each of its 136 entries provide more depth and discussion than the average reference book Its entries are also extremely diverse they draw on different social science disciplines incorporate various mixes of theoretical and applied work embrace a variety of methodologies and represent different views of the world The Elgar Companion to Development Studies will therefore appeal to students scholars researchers policymakers and practitioners in the field of development as well as the interested layman Cost-Benefit Analysis for Development Asian Development Bank,2013-01-01 The Asian Development Bank ADB has been continuously undertaking measures to enhance the effectiveness of its operations To improve projects both at the preparation and implementation stages ADB issued the Guidelines for Economic Analysis of Projects in 1997 as a means to enhancing project quality at entry The conduct of proper economic analysis helps ensure the efficient use of development funds and public resources and thereby increase aid effectiveness This practical guide is a supplement to the Guidelines for the Economic Analysis of Projects It provides an overview of recent methodological developments in cost benefit analysis as well as suggested improvements in the economic analysis of projects in selected sectors through case studies These case studies illustrate the application of suggested methodologies taking into account sector specific needs as well as difficulties faced by practitioners in terms of data and time constraints during project processing It also aims to contribute to ADB s capacity building initiatives as this will be the main reference material for conduct of economic analysis Practices of Poverty Measurement and Poverty Profile of Nepal Devendra Chhetry,2009-03 Reviews the poverty measuring practices available measures of poverty and economic growth figures of Nepal The poverty rates for FY 1976 77 1984 85 and 1995 96 are found to be not comparable due to change in methodology over time The three poverty rates average 40% Nepal has experienced high economic growth during the 7th 1985 86 to 1989 90 and 8th 1992 93 to 1996 97 Plan periods with no strong evidences of poverty reduction This incompatible result is partially explained by comparing growth of the agricultural sector with the role of the sector in providing employment and income generation at the household level and by comparing social indicators particularly literacy rate with the growth of the nonagricultural sector

Tables Investing in Resilience Asian Development Bank,2013-01-01 Investing in Resilience Ensuring a Disaster Resistant Future focuses on the steps required to ensure that investment in disaster resilience happens and that it occurs as an integral systematic part of development At risk communities in Asia and the Pacific can apply a wide range of policy capacity and investment instruments and mechanisms to ensure that disaster risk is properly assessed disaster risk is reduced and residual risk is well managed Yet real progress in strengthening resilience has been slow to date and natural hazards continue to cause significant loss of life damage and disruption in the region undermining inclusive sustainable development Investing in Resilience offers an approach and ideas for reflection on how to achieve disaster resilience It does not prescribe specific courses of action but rather establishes a vision of a resilient future It stresses the interconnectedness and complementarity of possible actions to achieve disaster resilience across a wide range of development policies plans legislation sectors and themes The vision shows how resilience can be accomplished through the coordinated action of governments and their development partners in the private sector civil society and the international community The vision encourages investors to identify and prioritize bundles of actions that collectively can realize that vision of resilience breaking away from the current tendency to pursue disparate and fragmented disaster risk management measures that frequently trip and fall at unforeseen hurdles Investing in Resilience aims to move the disaster risk reduction debate beyond rhetoric and to help channel commitments into investment incentives funding and practical action IBSS: Economics: 2002 Vol.51 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2013-05-13 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features Authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on merit by some of the world s most expert librarians and academics Breadth today the IBSS covers over 2000 journals more than any other comparable resource The latest monograph publications are also included International Coverage the IBSS reviews scholarship published in over 30 languages including publications from Eastern Europe and the developing world User friendly organization all non English titles are word sections Extensive author subject and place name indexes are provided in both English and French Place your standing order now for the 2003 volumes of the the IBSS Anthropology 2002 Vol 48 December 2003 234x156 Hb 0 415 32634 6 195 00 Economics 2002 Vol 51 December 2003 234x156 Hb 0 415 32635 4 195 00 Political Science 2002 Vol 51 December 2003 234x156 Hb 0 415 32636 2 195 00 Sociology 2002 Vol 52 December 2003 234x156 Hb 0 415 32637 0 195 00 Technical Assistance (cofinanced by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) to the Republic of Indonesia for Preparing the Shelter Sector Project Asian Development Bank,2002 Technical Assistance to India for Preparing the National Highway Corridor (Sector) Project S.
