Native-Speakerism in Japan Stephanie Ann Houghton, Damian J. Rivers, 2013-02-19 The relative status of native and non native speaker language teachers within educational institutions has long been an issue worldwide but until recently the voices of teachers articulating their own concerns have been rare Existing work has tended to focus upon the position of non native teachers and their struggle against unfavourable comparisons with their native speaker counterparts However more recently native speaker language teachers have also been placed in the academic spotlight as interest grows in language based forms of prejudice such as native speakerism a dominant ideology prevalent within the Japanese context of English language education This innovative volume explores wide ranging issues related to native speakerism as it manifests itself in the Japanese and Italian educational contexts to show how native speaker teachers can also be the targets of multifarious forms of prejudice and discrimination in the workplace Asia as Method in Education Studies Hongzhi Zhang, Philip Chan, Jane Kenway, 2015-02-11 Unlearning and re-inventing the theoretical frameworks of Intercultural and Asian Studies is central to this book as it is to Chen Kuan Hsing's evocative Asia as Method this book's inspirational source Chen insists that studies of Asia move beyond their paralysing fixation on the West as either a positive or negative referent and that they develop their own standpoints reference points and research agendas Asia as Method in Education Studies is therefore a provocative and suggestive exploration of educational ideas imported from the West Chen's challenge provokes the writers in this collection to consider the implications of colonial and imperialist forces for education systems policies and practices as well as for educational research itself The writers offer examples of what it means to rethink and re-examine education in Asia beyond both the Western imperialist eye and the post-colonial politics of resentment Asia as Method in Education Studies combines the diverse research of scholars from various countries of Asia as they consider for example Struggles to Construct New Research Imaginations in Response to Chen's Challenges East West Dialogue Three Cases in Chinese Educational Research Asia as a method of Complexity and Dialogue Generalizing the Self Asianizing Perspectives on International Education and the Formation of Self Against Asia-centric Methods Australia China Theoretic linguistic Knowledge Co-production Highly anticipated for its novel contemporary perspectives this book offers researchers specialising in educational studies and policy making fresh practices of thought International Perspectives on Teacher Research S. Borg, H. Sanchez, 2015-03-04 Teacher research is recognized in ELT and education more generally as a powerful transformative strategy for teacher development and school improvement This volume provides original insights into this issue by focusing on the processes involved in becoming and being a teacher researcher Proceedings of IAC in Budapest 2018 Group of Authors, 2018-08-14 International Academic Conference on Global Education Teaching and Learning and International Academic Conference on Management Economics Business and Marketing and International Academic Conference on Engineering Transport IT and Artificial Intelligence Budapest Hungary 2018 IAC GETL IAC MEBM IAC ETITAI August 17 18 2018 Japanese Higher Education as Myth Brian J. McVeigh, 2015-03-04 In this dismantling of the myth of Japanese quality education McVeigh investigates the consequences of what happens when statistical and corporatist forces monopolize the purpose of schooling and the boundary between education and employment is blurred

Silence in the Second Language Classroom J. King, 2013-10-31 Why are second language learners in Japan's universities so silent This book investigates the perplexing but intriguing phenomenon of classroom silence and draws on ideas from psychology sociolinguistics and anthropology to offer a unique insight into the reasons why some learners are either unable or unwilling to speak in a foreign language Deviance and inequality in Japan Yoder, Robert Stuart, 2011-03-30 Japanese youth and foreign migrants face stringent institutionalised controls in Japan This book questions the efficacy of such social controls focusing on the interrelation of inequality powerlessness discriminate controls and class inequality and deviance largely derived from power and the violation of informal and formal norms It provides a comprehensive detailed description and explanation of inequality and deviance of Japanese youth and 17 foreign migrant groups The book is aimed at individuals students and academicians interested in Japan area studies New Directions in the Analysis of Multimodal Discourse Terry D. Royce, Wendy Bowcher, 2013-01-11 New Directions in the Analysis of Multimodal Discourse offers a comprehensive international view of multimodal discourse and presents new directions for research and application in this growing field With contributions from top scholars around the world this work opens up the field of multimodal discourse analysis as it covers a wide range of interests such as computational linguistics education ideology and media discourse The range and scope of the chapters in this book provide groundbreaking insights into exploring and accounting for the various facets of multimodality in a range of texts and contexts Initial chapters specifically aim to tackle theoretical issues while subsequent chapters focus on important research areas such as writing and graphology genre ideology computational concordancing literacy and cross cultural and cross linguistic issues In the final chapters an emphasis is placed on the educational implications of multimodality in first and second language contexts a particularly new and interesting contribution
