one behind WHO's Fourteenth General Programme of Work 2025-2028 GPW 14 has an explicit and strong commitment to equity. In support of this, WHO has released a handbook with methods for the identification of barriers to effective coverage with health services. The 8-module handbook applies mixed method research approaches grounded in the Tanahashi framework for effective coverage to focus on barriers experienced by potential users and non-users of health services. The handbook facilitates the capturing of evidence on the interface between the population and the services. The handbook has four objectives: 1 To orient national authorities and partners on key concepts, definitions, frameworks and principles relevant to barriers assessments; 2 To build the capacity of national authorities and partners to design a research plan and apply diverse methods e.g. informant interviews, literature reviews, quantitative analysis and focus groups in barriers assessments; 3 To provide guidance for reporting on barrier assessment findings in a clear and actionable manner and convening key stakeholders to deliberate next steps; 4 To adapt the methods for humanitarian contexts accounting for the need for differentiated approaches.
