Handbook Of Air Conditioning Heat:

Handbook of Air Conditioning, Heating, and Ventilating Eugene Stamper, Richard L. Koral, 1979 This comprehensive and acclaimed volume provides a wealth of practical information on the design installation and operation of air conditioning heating and ventilating systems

Handbook of Air Conditioning, Heating, and Ventilating Clifford Strock, William B. Foxhall, 1959

Handbook of Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning Jan F. Kreider, 2000-12-26 The building industry accounts for about 25 percent of the US gross national product through the design construction operation and maintenance of commercial institutional and residential buildings The Handbook of Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning provides a current comprehensive review of the latest procedures and trends in the industry It combines practice and theory systems and control and modern methods and technologies to provide in one volume all of the design and operation information needed by HVAC engineers Through a link on the CRC Web site owners of the handbook can access new material periodically posted by the author

Air-conditioning System Design Manual Walter T. Grondzik, 2007 The Air Conditioning Manual assists entry level engineers in the design of air conditioning systems It is also usable in conjunction with fundamental HVAC R resource material as a senior or graduate level text for a university course in HVAC system design The manual was written to fill the void between theory and practice to bridge the gap between real world design practices and the theoretical calculations and analytical procedures or on the design of components This second edition represents an update and revision of the manual It now features the use of SI units throughout updated references and the editing of many illustrations Helps engineers quickly come up with a design solution to a required air conditioning system Includes issues from comfort to cooling load calculations New sections on Green HVAC systems deal with hot topic of sustainable buildings
