Gotthard Graubner Gotthard Graubner, Annely Juda Fine Art, 1991 Gotthard Graubner Gotthard Graubner, 1995

Gotthard Graubner: Painting Gotthard Graubner, Heinz Liesbrock, 2010 This publication celebrates the eightieth birthday of German painter Gotthard Graubner born 1930 spanning his work from the 1950s to the present Devoid of figuration or metaphoric allusions the artist's Farbraumkörper or color space bodies evolve entirely out of evanescent color effects somewhat in the vein of Rothko Working on highly absorbent ground Graubner maximizes the murkier tendencies of his pigments Gotthard Graubner, 1995 Gotthard Graubner: Drawings Erich Franz, Gotthard Graubner, 2011

Gotthard Graubner's drawings in an elementary form embody what his entire artwork his canvas paintings his paintings on paper his graphic prints and his installations define for art They show a becoming a genesis you experience them as a process that leads you to what in them becomes visible Their visuality is not a given it materializes and in its manifestation lies their content The form evolving intensity of the line comes about from its hatched penetration and variation its concentration or disintegration Published in this book is a chronological cross section of his drawings since the end of the 1940s to the present that show how much his works ensue from within and move outwards and in their transition find themselves English and German text Gotthard Graubner. Mit Den Bildern Atmen / Breathing with the Paintings Oliver Kornhoff, 2018-02 As one of the most important representatives of abstract painting Gotthard Graubner idiosyncratically pursued the various effects of colour This catalogue brings together around 50 pieces from graphic works to the large format object like colour space bodies The palette progresses from shades of grey brown and black to vibrant colours Ten extraordinary black and white photographs which poetically capture the movements of Buddhist monks dancing form the starting point The meditative moment as the central aspect in Graubner's art is also evident in the encounter with his vividly coloured painterly explorations 00Exhibition Arp Museum Bahnhof Rolandseck Remagen Germany 18.02.2018 - 10.02.2019

Gotthard Graubner, Gotthard Graubner: Chroma Eva Kraus, 2020-08 Gotthard Graubner 1930-2013 was a painter who celebrated the pure color freed from all object references and gave to it a physical presence in pillow like image carriers The Neues Museum Nürnberg has an impressive inventory of his works spanning four decades including many color space bodies This allows the development of the work to be traced in all important stages The majority of the paintings come from the Bockmann Collection which from the beginning entrusted the museum with permanent loans from Gotthard Graubner Gerhard Richter and A.R. Penck In 2016 the New Museum in Nuremberg dedicated an exhibition to Gotthard Graubner entitled Chroma which turned into a festival of color in the wide light flooded exhibition hall The catalog documents the show and presents all 24 Graubner works from the Bockmann Collection in full page images Jürgen Schilling the former director of Villa Massimo in Rome was won as an author He introduces Graubner as an artist who defies all common classifications and with his color space body created a tailor made instrument for his chromatic expeditions Visual proficiency - A perspective on art education Kunibert Bering, Rolf Niehoff, 2015-12-18 Every day over a million images are uploaded to flickr This is a striking example of the so called flood of images that emerged with the beginning of the digital age A generation of adolescents has already been socialised with this flood of images and deals with it on a daily basis both in their networks and elsewhere Art education thus faces significant challenges art is the only school subject that deals with the problems inherent in images as images making them the focus of pedagogic activity This volume presents both the foundations for engaging with the phenomenon of the image in a competent and historically informed manner as well as the perspectives for art education that arise from these foundations It is based upon the conviction that providing orientation in a world defined by images does not mean following solely a technocratic functionalist or even neoliberal concept of education Quite the contrary providing an orientation for how to deal with images in a world that is dominated by them is a crucial part of the holistic development of young people s personalities The volume s main focus lies upon the new functions taken on both by the image and by art more generally It takes into account aspects of globalisation and participation and also includes more unusual views often from a cross media perspective of art and its historical repertory which even current image creation is unable to dispense with The volume also deals extensively with architecture and the images it conveys The Artwork of Gerhard Richter Darryn Ansted, 2017-07-05 By uniquely treating Gerhard Richter s entire oeuvre as a single subject Darryn Ansted combines research into Richter s first art career as a socialist realist with study of his subsequent decisions as a significant contemporary artist Analysis of Richter s East German murals early work lesser known paintings and destroyed and unfinished pieces buttress this major re evaluation of Richter s other well known but little understood paintings By placing the reader in the artist s studio and examining not only the paintings but the fraught and surprising decisions behind their production Richter s methodology is deftly revealed here as one of profound yet troubled reflection on the shifting identity culture and ideology of his period This rethinking of Richter s oeuvre is informed by salient analyses of influential theorists ranging from Theodor Adorno to Slavoj i ek as throughout meticulous visual analysis of Richter s changing aesthetic strategies shows how he persistently attempts to retrace the border between an objective reality structured by ideology and his subjective experience as a contemporary painter in the studio Its innovative combination of historical accuracy philosophical depth and astute visual analysis will make this an indispensable guide for both new audiences and established scholars of Richter s painting Pop Impressions Europe/USA Wendy Weitman, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 Essay by Wendy Weitman Edinburgh's Festivals David Pollock, 2023-08-04 In August 1947 an migr Austrian opera impresario launched the Edinburgh International Festival of Music and Drama to heal the scars of the Second World War through a celebration of the arts At the same time a socialist theatre group from Glasgow and other amateur companies protested their exclusion from the festival by performing anyway inventing the concept of fringe theatre Now the annual celebration known collectively as the Edinburgh Festival is the largest arts festival in the world

incorporating events dedicated to theatre film art literature comedy dance jazz and even military pageantry It has launched careers from Peter Cook and Dudley Moore in Beyond the Fringe to Phoebe Waller Bridge with Fleabag mirrored the political and social mood of its times shaped the city of Edinburgh around it and welcomed a huge all star cast including Orson Welles Grace Kelly Yehudi Menuhin and Mark E Smith s The Fall and many many more This is its story Art and architecture of the late 20th century Dorothea Eimert,2024-11-12 During the second half of the twentieth century in a world transformed by international tensions the centre of artistic creation shifted from Europe to the United States In a world where major countries asserted their power individualism now ruled The art world was a perfect example of this phenomenon even now the emphasis of creativity is placed on the individual instead of the trend Moreover growing globalization and the various types of media have facilitated a multiplication of means and offered artists new possibilities Now at the dawn of the twenty first century everything has the potential to be art and art more than ever is the opportunity to take risks to present and transform almost anything This work invites the reader to discover the diversity of this most recent artistic environment

Ketner II,2017-12-28 Witness to Phenomenon articulates a fresh examination of the German Group Zero Heinz Mack Otto Piene and G nter Uecker and other new tendency artists who rejected painting and introduced new art media in postwar Europe Group ZERO evolved into a network across Europe Amsterdam Milan Paris and Zagreb This pan European affiliation of artists generated a continuous stream of innovative artistic statements through the 1960s incorporating non traditional materials and new technologies to create kinetic art light installations performances immersive multimedia installations monumental land art and the communication media of video and television They transformed the visual arts from the inanimate objet d art to a sensory experience by adopting the ascendant philosophy of Phenomenology as their conceptual foundation Drawing from a decade of research on unpublished archives of the artists and critics of this period this publication positions Group ZERO as a catalytic art moment in the transition from modern to contemporary art

Demarco's Edinburgh Richard Demarco,Roddy Martine,2023-08-04 The Edinburgh Festival of those days was a much more accessible village The ground rules were well enough understood Everything about it was containable The Fringe was the seed bed for talent and ran happily in step with its established elders and betters They both knew their place But then something equally remarkable was about to take place in the New Town of the city I knew and loved The same year Roddy Martine is born In 1963 when at the age of sixteen he interviewed Sir Yehudi Menuhin and David Frost for an Edinburgh Festival magazine he edited and the following year met Marlene Dietrich Both Richard and Roddy have unique perspectives on the most remarkable international festival of the arts the world has ever known They have witnessed its evolution over the years and are passionate believers in the power of creativity within everyone In this fascinating book Richard the 2013 UK recipient of the Citizen of Europe medal explores the original world vision of Sir John Falconer and Rudolph Bing and with Roddy recalls the highs and lows of The Edinburgh International Festival The Fringe Art Book Jazz and Television Festivals and The Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo Now in its eighth decade can the Edinburgh Festival survive Where do we go from here
