The Good Negress A. J. Verdelle, 2016-11-22 Haunting To read The Good Negress is to fall under a spell to open a window to fly Los Angeles Times Book Review Twenty years after its initial publication The Good Negress continues to be an important part of the literary canon as relevant and necessary as ever Set in 1960s Detroit the novel centers around Denise Palms who leaves her grandmother s home in rural Virginia to reunite with her mother stepfather and older brothers As a black teenage girl Denise is given scarce opportunity beyond cooking cleaning and raising her mother s baby But an idealistic demanding teacher opens Denise's eyes to a future she has never considered and soon she begins to question the limits of the life prescribed to her With lyrical evocative prose A J Verdelle captures Denise's journey from adolescence to womanhood as she navigates the tension between loyalty and independence and between circumstance and desire The Good Negress is an unforgettable debut simultaneously the portrait of a family and a glimpse into an era of twentieth century America Winner of the Harold D Vursell Memorial Award from the American Academy of Arts and Letters Finalist for the PEN Faulkner Award for Fiction The Good Negress A. J. Verdelle, 1996 After leaving rural Virginia for Detroit in 1963 a young African American girl struggles with divided loyalties as she begins to see her family in a new light Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction Darryl Dickson-Carr, 2005-10-14 From Ishmael Reed and Toni Morrison to Colson Whitehead and Terry McMillan Darryl Dickson Carr offers a definitive guide to contemporary African American literature This volume the only reference work devoted exclusively to African American fiction of the last thirty five years presents a wealth of factual and interpretive information about the major authors texts movements and ideas that have shaped contemporary African American fiction In more than 160 concise entries arranged alphabetically Dickson Carr discusses the careers works and critical receptions of Alice Walker Gloria Naylor Jamaica Kincaid Charles Johnson John Edgar Wideman Leon Forrest as well as other prominent and lesser known authors Each entry presents ways of reading the author's works identifies key themes and influences assesses the writer's overarching significance and includes sources for further research Dickson Carr addresses the influence of a variety of literary movements critical theories and publishers of African American work Topics discussed include the Black Arts Movement African American postmodernism feminism and the influence of hip hop the blues and jazz on African American novelists In tracing these developments Dickson Carr examines the multitude of ways authors have portrayed the diverse experiences of African Americans The Columbia Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction situates African American fiction in the social political and cultural contexts of post Civil Rights era America the drug epidemics of the 1980s and 1990s and the concomitant war on drugs the legacy of the Civil Rights Movement the struggle for gay rights feminism the rise of HIV AIDS and racism s continuing effects on African American communities Dickson Carr also discusses the debates and controversies regarding the role of literature in African American life The volume concludes with an extensive annotated bibliography of African American fiction and criticism

Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris, 2021-12-06 In Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris analyzes fictional homespaces in African American literature from those set in the time of slavery to modern urban configurations of the homespace She argues that African American writers often inadvertently create and follow a tradition of portraying dysfunctional and physically or emotionally violent homespaces Harris explores the roles race and religion play in the creation of homespaces and how geography space and character all influence these spaces Although many characters in African American literature crave safe happy homespaces and frequently carry such images with them through their mental or physical migrations few characters experience the formation of healthy homespaces by the end of their journeys Harris studies the historical cultural and literary portrayals of the home in works from well known authors such as Richard Wright James Baldwin Toni Morrison and August Wilson as well as lesser studied authors such as Daniel Black A J Verdelle Margaret Walker and Dorothy West Building Houses out of Chicken Legs Psyche A. Williams-Forson, 2006-12-08 Chicken both the bird and the food has played multiple roles in the lives of African American women from the slavery era to the present It has provided food and a source of income for their families shaped a distinctive culture and helped women define and exert themselves in racist and hostile environments Psyche A Williams Forson examines the complexity of black women s legacies using food as a form of cultural work While acknowledging the negative interpretations of black culture associated with chicken imagery Williams Forson focuses her analysis on the ways black women have forged their own self definitions and relationships to the gospel bird Exploring material ranging from personal interviews to the comedy of Chris Rock from commercial advertisements to the art of Kara Walker and from cookbooks to literature Williams Forson considers how black women arrive at degrees of self definition and self reliance using certain foods She demonstrates how they defy conventional representations of blackness and exercise influence through food preparation and distribution Understanding these complex relationships clarifies how present associations of blacks and chicken are rooted in a past that is fraught with both racism and agency The traditions and practices of feminism Williams Forson argues are inherent in the foods women prepare and serve Mulatto Aluisio Azevedo, 1990 Set in the provincial Brazilian state of Maranhao before the abolition of slavery and the establishment of the first republic this scathing expose relates the story of Raimundo a young Brazilian of liberal ideas Mulatto is also a love story set in motion by biology and sentiment The South in the Building of the Nation: History of the intellectual life, ed. by J.
