“They Have Seen The Elephant”: Veterans’ Remembrances from World War II

Lynn L. Simms,2016-07-26 These stories happened over 40 years ago all over the world and they are set down here so they can remind us of other times and places where Americans fought for their country No single soldier won the war rather each was trained went where he was told and did his job when needed War became a way of life an opportunity for undreamed of travel a time in which many grew up some received equal treatment for the first time some enjoyed working as part of a team some felt proud but for all it was an experience few would have wanted to miss but none would want to repeat

The Old Gray Mare John S Eberhardt,2005 The 112th Field Artillery Regiment Horse Drawn was a New Jersey Army National Guard unit called into active military service in January of 1941 The Old Gray Mare describes life in this unit the Army s last horse drawn field artillery unit through the eyes of a young lieutenant during the Plattsburg Training Maneuvers in 1939 and during the 112th s post activation training at Fort Bragg North Carolina The Old Gray Mare provides an insightful picture of the daily routine in garrison and the field of a horse unit during what proved to be the final year of its existence It describes the close bonds formed between men and their horses the care and handling required to maintain a well trained horse artillery unit the pride and professionalism developed by serving the guns and the archaic social environment that surrounded this elite formation It gives witness to the dreaded man and horse killing stampede of crazed animals as well as the excitement of the polo field that was so much a part of the fabric of the horse artillery The Old Gray Mare is a light and entertaining book that gives a nostalgic view of a military unit forced out of existence by advances in technology at the beginning of World War II It is an interesting and unique snapshot of a time and a life style that no longer exists

God Bless America Kathleen E.R. Smith,2021-10-21 After Pearl Harbor Tin Pan Alley songwriters rushed to write the Great American War Song an Over There for World War II The most popular songs however continued to be romantic ballads escapist tunes or novelty songs To remedy the situation the federal government created the National Wartime Music Committee an advisory group of the Office of War Information OWI which outlined proper war songs along with tips on how and what to write The music business also formed its own Music War Committee to promote war songs Neither group succeeded The OWI hoped that Tin Pan Alley could be converted from manufacturing love songs to manufacturing war songs just as automobile plants had retooled to assemble planes and tanks But the OWI failed to comprehend the large extent by which the war effort would be defined by advertisers and merchandisers Selling merchandise was the first priority of Tin Pan Alley and the OWI never swayed them from this course Kathleen E R Smith concludes the government s fears of faltering morale did not materialize Americans did not need such war songs as Goodbye Mama I m Off To Yokohama There Are No Wings On a Foxhole or even The Sun Will Soon Be Setting On The Land Of The Rising Sun to convince them to support the war The crusade for a proper war song was misguided from the beginning and the music business then and now continues to make huge profits selling love not war songs Boonton ,2001 In 1830 Isaac S Lyon wrote Boonton was one of the wildest rockiest briariest and most romantic places that the mind of man could imagine More than a century later a visitor told his wife May you should see that town of Boonton The whole Main Street is on a hill I never saw a town with a Main Street on a hill These were the first impressions of a town built upon the foundation of its ironworks and iron town populated by hardy self reliant men and women Among the earliest immigrants were the English recruited by the New Jersey Iron Company in 1830 and numbering about thirty families Within the next two decades Irish laborers came to work in the mills followed by Slovaks in the 1890s and Italians Poles and Germans around the beginning of the 1900s Two smaller groups were African Americans some of whose ancestors had come to Boonton 150 years earlier and Jews who arrived c 1900 and later In Boonton the descendants of these early families and newcomers reveal the Boonton of yesterday and today and anticipate the Boonton of tomorrow Among them is a retired kindergarten teacher who was greeted by the local fellas when she got off the bus in Boonton for the first time at age twenty one A ninety four yearold recalls his experiences eighty years ago as a truck driver running molasses for the local gin mills An eighty one year old tells of the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in the 1920s and a woman remembers the horror of the 1918 flu epidemic Rainbow Milestones Sue Handley,2023-06-06 Rainbow Milestones is the story of Sue Handley The story follows her life growing up in turbulent times and her fight to establish gay rights Sue was a fighter for her community stood up to the government when it came to adoption rights marriage and more
