Gospel Of St Matthew 1946:

The Gospel According to Matthew R. T. France, 1985 R T France's study of Matthew's Gospel is a contribution to the Tyndale New Testament Commentaries a popular commentary designed to help the general Bible reader understand clearly what the text actually says and what it means without undue recourse to scholarly technicalities The Gospel According To Matthew Leon Morris, 2020-05-21 In the Christian Church the Gospel of Matthew has been considered the most important portrait of Jesus life and message Containing Jesus Sermon on the Mount and a uniquely rich collection of parables among many other things Matthew has made a major contribution to the church throughout the centuries and it still has much to say to the church today This superb commentary in the Pillar series explores the meaning and relevance of Matthew in an eminently straightforward fashion Leon Morris writes for readers who use commentaries to discover further what the Bible means Throughout he makes clear what he considers to be the meaning of the Greek text that Matthew has bequeathed to the church A perceptive introduction precedes Morris's warmhearted verse by verse exposition of Matthew an exposition based on his own literal translation of the text Now a standard reference work on the Gospel of Matthew this mature evangelically oriented commentary will continue to meet the needs of students pastor and general readers alike A Catholic Commentary on Holy Scripture Bernard Orchard, 1953 Matthew's Bible M. J. J. Menken, 2004 What type of Old Testament text did Matthew use as editor of his Gospel On the one hand the editorially inserted fulfilment quotations with their peculiar textual form may be expected to represent Matthew's biblical text On the other hand the remaining OT quotations are mainly Septuagintal and it is often assumed that Matthew reinforced the Septuagintal character of the quotations which he found in his sources In the first part of this study the fulfilment quotations are examined Their textual form is best explained as a Septuagint text that was revised to make it better agree with the Hebrew and to improve the quality of its Greek the evangelist took these quotations from a continuous text In the second part Matthew's remaining OT quotations are investigated If Matthew borrows quotations from his sources he does not adjust them to the LXX but he simply copies them or edits them in his usual way if he inserts quotations into his sources he makes use of his revised Septuagint On the whole this revised Septuagint seems to have been Matthew's Bible Sacra Pagina: The Gospel of Matthew Daniel J. Harrington, SJ, 2023-06-13 Matthew wrote his Gospel from his perspective as a Jew It is with sensitivity to this perspective that Father Harrington undertakes this commentary on the Gospel of Matthew After an introduction he provides a literal translation of each section in Matthew's Gospel and explains the textual problems philological difficulties and other matters in the notes He then presents a literary analysis of each text content form use of sources structure examines the text against its Jewish background situates it in the context of Matthew's debate with other first century Jews and reflects on its significance for Christian theology and Christian Jewish relations Bibliographies direct the reader to other important modern studies The Christian World Around the New Testament Richard Bauckham, 2017-10-20 Most of these thirty one essays by Richard Bauckham a well known New Testament scholar were first published between 1979 and 2015 in journals and multi authored volumes Two are previously unpublished and one has not been published in English before They range widely over early Christianity and early Christian literature in both the New Testament period and the early patristic period reflecting the author s conviction that the historical study of early Christianity should not isolate the New Testament literature from other early Christian sources such as the apostolic fathers and the Christian apocryphal literature Some of the essays develop further the themes of the author s books on aspects of the Gospels such as the intended audiences of the Gospels the way in which Gospel traditions were transmitted the role of the eyewitnesses in the origins of the Gospels the importance of Papias s evidence about Gospel traditions and the relationship between canonical and Gnostic Gospels Some of the essays relate to important persons such as Peter Barnabas Paul and James These include a full investigation of the evidence for the martyrdom of Peter and an attempt to locate the estate of Publius where Paul stayed on Malta There are studies of the Sabbath and the Lord s Day in both the New Testament and patristic periods There are studies that survey most of the main categories of apocryphal Christian literature including apocryphal Gospels and Acts and with a special focus on the non canonical apocalypses such as the Apocalypse of Peter and the Latin Vision of Ezra

The Structure of Matthew's Gospel David Bauer, 2015-01-29 This book addresses a central issue confronting the reader of the Gospel Professor Bauer describes the impasse that has been reached in recent investigation of the structure of Matthew and demonstrates that an appreciation of literary design can provide a way forward After identifying rhetorical features that relate to literary structure he devotes the major part of his book to a systematic examination of such features as they appear in the Gospel in order to gain a fresh insight into the shape of the work This study is valuable both for its comprehensive and judicious review of the question of structure in Matthew s Gospel and for the new direction which it establishes

The Gospel of Matthew and the Sayings Source Q Frans Neirynck, Joseph Verheyden, R. Corstjens, 1998 The present Bibliography covers the research on the Gospel of Matthew and on the Gospel Source Q from 1950 to 1995 The new volume has adopted the model of the previously published The Gospel of Mark A Cumulative Bibliography 1950 1990 It contains about 15 000 entries and is arranged alphabetically by name of author the author s works are given in chronological order Each entry includes the complete bibliographical references information about reprints new editions and translations and summary indications of the content Gospel passage subject The companion volume furnishes detailed Indexes of Gospel Passages and Subject matters related to Mt and to Q All indexes are prepared by J Verheyden The Bibliography completes the series of Leuven repertoires on the Gospels published in BETL 82 John 1988 88 Luke 1989 and 102 Mark 1992

Jesus on the Mountain: A Study in Matthew Terence Donaldson, 1987-03-01 Donaldson s book on Jesus on the Mountain assesses the use of the mountain motif in the Gospel of Matthew and argues for its significance in a myriad of ways both as a literary device and a theological symbol He argues that the order of the book may even have been subverted in order that the literary device of the book ending of the mount of temptation and commission may be prominent and bear impact Donaldson's argument is a fascinating and insightful comment on the narrative of Matthew and the use of literary device to complement theological symbol by the author

Matthew's New David at the End of Exile Nicholas G. Piotrowski, 2016-09-07 Matthew crowds more Old Testament quotations and allusions into the prologue than anywhere else in his gospel In this volume Nicholas G Piotrowski demonstrates the narratological and rhetorical effects of such frontloading Particularly seven formula quotations constellate to establish a redemptive historical setting inside of which the rest of the narrative operates This setting is defined by Old Testament expectations for David's great son to end Israel's exile and rule the nations Piotrowski contends that the rhetorical effect of this intertextual storytelling was to provide the Matthean community with an identity in a contentious atmosphere in terms of God's historical design for the ages now fulfilled in Jesus and his followers

Matthew Warren Carter, 1968-02-01 For ten years the well received first edition of this introduction offered readers a way to look at scriptural texts that combines historical narrative and contemporary interests Carter explores Matthew by approaching it from the perspective of the authorial audience by identifying with and reading along with the audience imagined by the author Now an updated second edition is available as part of a series focusing on each of the gospel writers as storyteller interpreter and evangelist This edition preserves the essential identity of the original material while adding new insights from Carter's more recent readings of Matthew's gospel in relation to the Roman Imperial world Four of the seventeen chapters have been significantly revised and most have had minor changes There are also new endnotes directing readers to Carter's more recent published work on Matthew Scholars and pastors will use the full bibliography and appendix on redaction and narrative approaches while lay readers will appreciate the clear and straightforward text

The Christology of Early Jewish Christianity Richard N. Longenecker, 1994-10 Temptations of Jesus in Early Christianity Jeffrey Gibson, 2004-11-11 This study lays the groundwork for establishing the validity of the thesis that the early church held a selective and unified view of the nature and content of the various temptations to which Jesus was regarded as having been subjected in his lifetime This leads to a clearer view of how the early church perceived the exigencies of its Lord's mission and message and provides fresh insights into key New Testament themes such as sonship obedience faithfulness and discipleship It also opens up new possibilities for firmly establishing the occasion of those New Testament writings such as the Gospel of Mark and even the Epistle to the Hebrews where notice of and appeal to the example of Jesus in temptation appears prominently

The Gospels for All Christians Richard Bauckham, 1998 In this groundbreaking work the consensus that each of the Gospels was written for a specific audience is challenged by the thesis that they were written for general circulation with the intention that they should circulate around all the churches

An Introduction to the New Testament D. A. Carson, Douglas J. Moo, 2009-05-26 Grasp the message of the New Testament by focusing on the essentials An Introduction to the New Testament focuses on historical questions dealing with authorship date sources purpose destination and so forth ensuring that the New Testament books will be accurately understood within historical settings For each New Testament document the authors also provide a substantial summary of the book s content discuss the book s theological contribution to the overall canon and give an account of current studies on the book including recent literary and social science approaches to interpretation This second edition reflects significant revision and expansion from the original making this highly acclaimed text even more valuable A new chapter provides a historical survey examining Bible study method through the ages The chapter on Paul has been expanded to include an analysis of debates on the new perspective The discussion of New Testament epistles has been expanded to form a new chapter This new edition is an ideal textbook for seminary students and will help a new generation better grasp the message of the New Testament

The Setting of the Sermon on the Mount Davies, Glyn, W. D. Davies, Striking New Images Larry Joseph Kreitzer, 1996-10-01 The eight chapters of this volume explore the contribution that numismatic studies can make to a serious investigation of the New Testament and its world The first two chapters focus on themes connected with the reign of the Julio Claudian emperors the next three on aspects of Pauline letters that may be illuminated by specific issues of Roman coinage and the final three concentrate on coinage minted during the reign of the Emperor Hadrian

The Religion of Jesus the Jew Géza Vermès, 1993 This book completes a remarkable trilogy The basic premise on which the project is founded is that a careful and impartial reconstruction of Jesus Jewish background is an essential preliminary to any reconstruction of Jesus himself

Jewish-Christian Relations Abel Mordechai Bibliowicz, 2019-03-01 I am in fundamental agreement with Bibliowicz s thesis that the anti Jewish polemic in the New Testament reflects debates between Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus not a polemic between Christians and Jews and with the implications which he has drawn for Christian theology May this book find a wide readership among people devoted to the cause of the healing of memories between Jews and Christians

Peter C Phan Professor Chair of Catholic Social Thought Georgetown University President of the Catholic Theological Society of America Standing on a brilliant and insightful reconstruction of Paul and on a quite shocking but perhaps compelling reading of Mark the author offers a number of original and in some cases quite compelling theoretical reconstructions of the context and purposes of early Christian texts a work of sublime moral passion

David P Gushee Distinguished University Professor of Christian Ethics and Director Center for Theology and Public Life Mercer University President elect American Academy of Religion Author of Kingdom Ethics Following Jesus in Contemporary Context An intrepid excursion into the Christian discourse The quest of an intellectual a humanist Interesting and in fact overwhelming A timely and honest engagement of the Christian texts authors and scholars by a Jewish intellectual

Burton L Mack Professor of Early Christianity Claremont School of Theology California author of A Myth of Innocence Mark and Christian Origins There is great merit to Bibliowicz s approach I highly recommend this book for anyone interested in the Jewish Christian dialogue Scholars may disagree with a number of Bibliowicz conclusions as I do with his interpretation of the Epistle to the Hebrews But even in disagreeing scholars in the field of Jewish Christian studies will learn new ways of challenging and thinking about old presumptions Eugene J Fisher Distinguished Professor of Theology Saint Leo University Former staff person for Catholic Jewish relations for the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops Consultor to the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews member of the International Catholic Jewish Liaison Committee representing the Holy See An important work Sensitive and deeply researched In the deepest sense a profound theological work Clark M Williamson Professor Christian Theological Seminary Indiana author of Way of Blessing Way of Life A Christian Theology I very much appreciated the depth and scope of the scholarship accompanied by the kind and humble spirit of the author it may also prove to be one of the formidable and formative scholarly contributions of the decade for both biblical and historical scholars Michael Thompson Professor Religious Studies Oklahoma State University In methodical and precise fashion Bibliowicz takes the reader through the relevant ancient Christian texts bearing on the question at hand In so doing he proposes an intriguing compelling thesis The book should prove to be a major voice in the ongoing debate Brooks Schramm Professor of Biblical Studies Lutheran Theological Seminary Impressive work With this impassioned study available to us it will no longer be possible for us to ignore the unintended ways the unthinkable came to be and still say we did not know Didier Pollefeyt Professor Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies Katholieke Universiteit Leuven Belgium coauthor of Anti Judaism and the Fourth Gospel and Paul and Judaism An original and plausible claim that goes beyond most of modern scholarship a solid contribution to the study of anti Judaism in early Christianity Joseph B Tyson Professor Religious Studies Southern Methodist University author of Marcion and Luke Acts A Defining Struggle Well researched and thorough Intelligent and thoughtful accessible the argumentation compelling Michele Murray Professor Bishop s University Canada author of Playing a Jewish Game Gentile Christian Judaizing in the First and Second Centuries C E A detailed and insightful exploration of the writings of the early Jesus movement argues convincingly that the origins of Christian anti Judaism are to be found among early non Jewish followers of Jesus who were in conflict with Jesus s disciples and first followers a must read Tim Hegedus Professor of New Testament Waterloo Lutheran Seminary Wilfrid Laurier University Canada Bibliowicz uses solid scholarship to engage large and difficult topics while managing to be balanced and clear invites Christians to walk a deep journey toward truth and suggests a compelling nuance that the conflicts in the early texts were between Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus not between Jews and Christians David L Coppola Executive Director Center for Christian Jewish Understanding Sacred Heart University A meticulous study a mammoth endeavor goes beyond others in his interpretation of the evidence tracing and documenting distinctions and tensions in the early Jesus movement N A Beck Professor of Theology and Classical Languages Texas Lutheran University author of Mature Christianity in the 21st Century The Recognition and Repudiation of the Anti Jewish Polemic of the New Testament The topics Bibliowicz engages are complex Although some of his interpretations are controversial Gentile Christians should set aside apologetical agendas and honestly ponder the challenges put forward by the author Dale C Allison Jr Professor of New Testament Princeton Theological Seminary author of
