Selves in Question Judith Lutge Coullie, Stephan Meyer, Thengani H. Ngwenya, Thomas Olver, 2006-05-31 Wide ranging and engaging Selves in Question considers the various ways in which auto biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocution and that its status and representation are always in question The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture geo political locations social positions cultures languages generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages Afrikaans English Xhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Yiddish An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies Interviewees Breyten Breytenbach Dennis Brutus Valentine Cascarino Vanitha Chetty Wilfred Cibane Greig Coetzee J M Coetzee Paul Faber David Goldblatt Stephen Gray Dorian Haarhoff Rayda Jacobs Elsa Joubert K Limakatso Kendall Ester Lee Doris Lessing Sindiwe Magona Margaret McCord N Chabani Manganyi Zolani Mkiva Jonathan Morgan Es kia Mphahlele Rob Nixon Mpho Nthunya Robert Scott Gillian Slovo Alex J Thembela Pieter Dirk Uys Johan van Wyk Wilhelm Verwoerd David Wolpe D L P Yali Manisi The New Order of War Bob Brecher,2010 At the Interface Probing the Boundaries seeks to encourage and promote cutting edge interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary projects and inquiry By bringing people together from differing contexts disciplines professions and vocations the aim is to engage in conversations that are innovative imaginative and creatively interactive

Visions of Freedom Piero Gleijeses,2013 Visions of Freedom Havana Washington Pretoria and the Struggle for Southern Africa 1976 1991 The Botswana Defense Force in the Struggle for an African Environment D. Henk,2007-12-25

The book describes how Botswana s leaders effectively employed the instruments of power at their disposal portraying a state that works It argues that Africans are contributing meaningfully to emerging global thinking on security and urges Africa s friends to take advantage of opportunities for productive partnerships over environmental issues Angola S. Weigert,2011-10-24 This study is the first comprehensive assessment of warfare in Angola to cover all three phases of the nation s modern history the anti colonial struggle the Cold War phase and the post Cold War era It also covers in detail the final phase of warfare in Angola culminating in Jonas Savimbi s death and the signing of the Luena Accord A Certain

Security Escort Teams in Iraq where the author spent two years Ivory Keith Somerville,2017-01-01 Half of Tanzania s elephants have been killed for their ivory since 2007 A similar alarming story can be told of the herds in northern Mozambique and across swathes of central Africa with forest elephants losing almost two thirds of their numbers to the tusk trade The huge rise in poaching and ivory smuggling in the new millennium has destroyed the hope that the 1989 ivory trade ban had capped poaching and would lead to a long term fall in demand But why the new upsurge The answer is not simple Since ancient times large scale killing of elephants for their tusks has been driven by demand outside Africa s elephant ranges from the Egyptian pharaohs through Imperial Rome and industrialising Europe and North America to the new wealthy business class of China And who poaches and why do they do it In recent years lurid press reports have blamed mass poaching on rebel movements and armed militias especially Somalia's Al Shabaab tying two together two evils poaching and terrorism But does this account stand up to scrutiny This new and ground breaking examination of the history and politics of ivory in Africa forensically examines why poaching happens in Africa and why it is corruption crime and politics rather than insurgency that we should worry about Fighting and Writing Luise White,2021-02-08 In Fighting and Writing Luise White brings the force of her historical insight to bear on the many war memoirs published by white soldiers who fought for Rhodesia during the 1964-1979 Zimbabwean liberation struggle In the memoirs of white soldiers fighting to defend white minority rule in Africa long after other countries were independent White finds a robust and contentious conversation about race difference and the war itself These are writings by men who were ambivalent conscripts generally aware of the futility of their fight not brutal pawns flawlessly executing the orders and parroting the rhetoric of a racist regime Moreover most of these men insisted that the most important aspects of fighting a guerrilla war tracking and hunting knowledge of the land and of the ways of African society were learned from black playmates in idealized rural childhoods In these memoirs African guerrillas never lost their association with the wild even as white soldiers boasted of bringing Africans into the intimate spaces of regiment and regime Parks and People in Postcolonial Societies M. Ramutsindela,2006-01-14 Against the background of colonial and postcolonial experiences this volume shows that power relations and stereotypes embedded in the original Western idea of a national park are a continuing reality of contemporary national and transnational parks The volume seeks to dispel the myth that colonial beliefs and practices in protected areas have ended with the introduction of new nature conservation policies and practices It explores this continuity against the backdrop of the development of the national park idea in the West and its trajectories in colonial and postcolonial societies particularly southern Africa This volume analyses the dynamic relations between people and national parks and assesses these in southern Africa against broader experiences in postcolonial societies It draws examples from a broad range of situations and places It reinserts issues of prejudices into contemporary national park systems and accounts for continuities and interruptions in national parks ideals in different contexts Its interpretation of material transcends the North-South divide This volume is accessible to readers from different academic backgrounds It is of special interest to academics policymakers and Non Governmental Organisations This book can also be used as prescribed or reference material in courses taught at university Cold War in Southern Africa Sue Onslow,2009-09-10 This edited volume examines the complexities of the Cold War in Southern Africa and uses a range of archives to develop a more detailed understanding of the impact of the Cold War environment upon the processes of political change In the aftermath of European decolonization the struggle between white minority governments and black liberation movements encouraged both sides to appeal for external support from the two superpower blocs Cold War in Southern Africa highlights the importance of the global ideological environment on the perceptions and consequent behaviour of the white minority regimes the Black Nationalist movements and the newly independent African nationalist governments Together they underline the variety of archival sources on the history of Southern Africa in the Cold War and its growing importance in Cold War Studies This volume brings together a series of essays by leading scholars based on a wide range of sources in the United States Russia Cuba Britain Zambia and South Africa By focussing on a range of independent actors these essays highlight the complexity of the conflict in Southern Africa a battle of power blocs of systems and ideas which intersected with notions and practices of race and class This book will appeal to students of cold war studies US foreign policy African politics and International History Sue Onslow has taught at the London School of Economics since 1994 She is currently a Cold War Studies Fellow in the Cold War Studies Centre IDEAS Putting Teeth in the Tiger Michael Brzoska, George A. Lopez, 2009-08-07 Foreign affairs practitioners and policy analysts claim that international arms embargoes usually fail due to the lack of political will among national governments to implement and enforce these restrictions This book includes chapters that examine some of the complex cases of arms embargoes such as Iraq Pakistan Angola and Liberia Piero Gleijeses' International History of the Cold War in Southern Africa, Omnibus E-Book Piero Gleijeses, 2013-12-01 This Omnibus E Book brings together Piero Gleijeses s two landmark books for the first time Visions of Freedom Havana Washington Pretoria and the Struggle for Southern Africa 1976 1991 During the final fifteen years of the Cold War southern Africa underwent a period of upheaval with dramatic twists and turns in relations between the superpowers Americans Cubans Soviets and Africans fought over the future of Angola where tens of thousands of Cuban soldiers were stationed and over the decolonization of Namibia Africa s last colony Beyond lay the great prize South Africa Piero Gleijeses uses archival sources particularly from the United States South Africa and the closed Cuban archives to provide an unprecedented international history of this important theater of the late Cold War Conflicting Missions Havana Washington and Africa 1959 1976 This sweeping history of Cuban policy in Africa from 1959 to 1976 is based on unprecedented research in African Cuban and American archives Among Gleijeses s many sources are Cuban archival materials to which he is the only non Cuban to ever have access Setting his story within the context of U S policy toward both Africa and Cuba during the Cold War Gleijeses challenges the notion that Cuban policy in Africa was directed by the Soviet Union From the Barrel of a Gun Gerald Horne, 2015-12-01 In November 1965 Ian Smith s white minority government in Southern Rhodesia now Zimbabwe made a unilateral declaration of independence breaking with Great Britain With a European population of a few hundred thousand dominating an African majority of several million Rhodesia s racial structure echoed the apartheid of neighboring South Africa Smith s declaration sparked an escalating guerrilla war that claimed thousands of lives Across the Atlantic President Lyndon B Johnson nervously watched events in Rhodesia fearing that racial conflict abroad could inflame racial discord at home Although Washington officially voiced concerns over human rights violations an attitude of tolerance generally marked U S relations with the Rhodesian government sanctions were imposed but not strictly enforced and hundreds perhaps thousands of American mercenaries joined white Rhodesia's side in battle with little to fear from U.S. laws. Despite such tacit U.S. support, Smith's regime fell in 1980 and the independent state of Zimbabwe was born. The first comprehensive account of American involvement in the war against Zimbabwe, this compelling work also explores how our relationship with Rhodesia helped define interracial dynamics in the United States and vice versa.

Securing Wilderness Landscapes in South Africa Harry Wels, 2015-05-12 Private wildlife conservation is booming business in South Africa. Nick Steele stood at the cradle of this development in the politically turbulent 1970s and 1980s by stimulating farmers in Natal, now KwaZulu Natal, to pool resources in order to restore wilderness landscapes but at the same time improve their security situation in cooperative conservancy structures. His involvement in Operation Rhino in the 1960s and subsequent networks to save the rhino from extinction brought him into controversial military-oriented networks around the Western world. The author's unique access to his private diaries paints a personal picture of this controversial conservationist. Killing for Profit Julian Rademeyer, 2012-11-08 A terrifying true story of greed, corruption, depravity and ruthless criminal enterprise. On the black markets of Southeast Asia, a rhino horn is worth more than gold, cocaine and heroin. This is the chilling story of a more than two-year-long investigation into a dangerous criminal underworld where merciless syndicates will stop at nothing to attain their prize. It is a tale of greed, folly and corruption and of an increasingly desperate battle to save the rhino, which has survived for more than 50 million years from extinction. Killing for Profit is a meticulous, devastating and revelatory account of one of the world's most secretive trades. It exposes poachers, gangsters, con men, mercenaries, killers, gunrunners, diplomats, government officials and other key players behind the slaughter. And it follows the bloody trail from the front lines of the rhino wars in South Africa, Zimbabwe and Mozambique to the medicine markets of Vietnam and the lair of a wildlife trafficking kingpin on the banks of the Mekong River in Laos. Ruling Nature, Controlling People Luregn Lenggenhager, 2018-09-17 Recent nature conservation initiatives in Southern Africa, such as communal conservancies and peace parks, are often embedded in narratives of economic development and ecological research. They are also increasingly marked by militarisation and violence. In Ruling Nature, Controlling People, Luregn Lenggenhager shows that these features were also characteristic of South African rule over the Caprivi Strip region in North-Eastern Namibia, especially in the fields of forestry, fisheries and ultimately wildlife conservation. In the process, the increasingly internationalised war in the region from the late 1960s until Namibia's independence in 1990 became intricately interlinked with contemporary nature conservation, ecology and economic development projects. By retracing such interdependencies, Lenggenhager provides a novel perspective from which to examine the history of a region which has until now barely entered the focus of historical research. He thereby highlights the enduring relevance of the supposedly peripheral Caprivi and its military, scientific and environmental histories for efforts to develop a deeper understanding of the ways in which apartheid South Africa exerted state power.
