register photographically and what remains beyond the frame What is hidden by design and what is obscured by cultural blindness Smith studies manifestations of photography's brush with the unseen in her own photographic work and across the wide ranging images of early American photographers including F Holland Day Eadweard Muybridge Andrew J Russell Chansonetta Stanley Emmons and Augustus Washington She concludes by showing how concerns raised in the nineteenth century remain pertinent today in the photographs of Abu Ghraib Ultimately Smith explores the capacity of photography to reveal what remains beyond the edge of sight
