Kuban, 2005-07-08 How did a collection of neighborhood volunteer organizations come to influence the development of a major Canadian city Few other North American cities have embraced the community league movement with the vigor of Edmonton For 87 years tens of thousands of volunteers from the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues EFCL have often acted as a counterweight to large private and institutional interests shaping municipal development by providing a voice and a training ground for grassroots civic participation In its wake the EFCL has left a host of sports cultural and civic initiatives for the improvement of Edmonton and an important lesson on how to create community      I Was There Ellen Schoeck, 2006-10-01 I Was There shares the insights and experiences of the generations of students professors and staff who lived and worked at the U of A for the past 100 years First person stories and period photographs present a unique insight into university lore from the vantage point of those who were most intimately involved in making the university what it is today the students and alumni Foreword by Hon Jim Edwards PC      The Vision Zero Handbook Karin Edvardsson Björnberg, Sven Ove Hansson, Matts-Åke Belin, Claes Tingvall, 2022-11-30 This open access handbook provides a comprehensive treatment of Vision Zero an innovative policy on public road safety developed in Sweden Covering all the major topics of the subject the book starts out with a thorough examination of the philosophy ideas and principles behind Vision Zero It looks at conditions for the effectiveness of the policy principles of safety and responsibility as well as critique on the policy Next the handbook focuses on how the Vision Zero ideas have been received and implemented in various legislations and countries worldwide It takes into account the way Vision Zero is looked at in the context of international organizations such as the WHO the UN and the OECD This allows for a comparison of systems models and effects The third part of the handbook discusses the management and leadership aspects including ISO standards equity issues other goals for traffic and transportation and opportunities for the car industry Part four delves into tools technologies and organizational measures that contribute to the implementation of Vision Zero in road traffic Examples of specific elements discussed are urban and rural road designs human factor designs and avoiding drunk and distracted driving The final part of the handbook offers perspectives on the transfer of Vision Zero policy to other areas ranging from air traffic to suicide prevention and nuclear energy Vision Zero is a public road safety policy including both a long term goal that no one shall be killed or seriously injured as a consequence of accidents in road traffic and a safety principle stating that the design and function of the road transport system shall be adapted to meet the requirements that follow from that goal It is a new road safety paradigm which has resulted in new types of responsibilities among stakeholders technological innovations and new strategies and organizational measures to achieve a safe system The road safety work based on Vision Zero has shown promising results and although Sweden has not yet reached a safe system the number of fatalities and severe injuries has decreased substantially This is an open access book Gateway City Alex Mair,2000 From historic buildings to local characters Alex Mair takes an entertaining look at Edmonton the way it used to be This collection of local history captures the spirit of days gone by with photographs newspaper headlines biographies and significant events from Edmonton s past Gateway City describes the days when boys on bicycles delivered groceries for the neighbourhood stores the Alberta Legislature sat for the first time ice wagons went up and down the streets The Edmonton Journal produced its first newspaper and Edmonton s landmark hospitals churches and hotels were being constructed Filled with details and reminiscences this is a fascinating tribute to Alberta s capital city Spaces and Places for Art Anne Whitelaw,2017-04-01 When the Edmonton Museum of Arts opened in 1924 it was only the second art gallery in Canada west of Toronto Spaces and Places for Art tells the story of the financial and ideological struggles that community groups and artist societies in booming frontier cities and towns faced in establishing spaces for the cultivation of artistic taste Mapping the development of art institutions in western Canada from the founding of the Winnipeg Art Gallery in 1912 to the 1990s heyday of art museums in Manitoba Saskatchewan Alberta and British Columbia Anne Whitelaw provides a glimpse into the production circulation and consumption of art in Canada throughout the twentieth century Initially dependent on paintings loaned from the National Gallery of Canada art galleries across the western part of the country gradually built their own collections and exhibitions and formed organizations that made them less reliant on institutions and government agencies in Ottawa Tracing the impact of major national arts initiatives such as the Massey Commission the funding programs of the Canada Council and the policies of the National Museums Corporation Whitelaw sheds light on the complex relationships between western Canada and Ottawa surrounding art Building on extensive archival research and in depth analysis of government involvement Spaces and Places for Art is an invaluable explanation of the roles of cultural institutions and cultural policy in the emergence of artistic practice in Canada Bibliographie de L'histoire Du Québec Et Du Canada, 1981-1985 Paul Aubin,1990 Liste signal tique des documents parus entre 1981 et 1985 livres articles th ses L organisation de la bibliographie est en trois sections syst matique par ordre des grands sujets analytique par ordre des sujets particuliers auteur par ordre des noms avec renvois la section syst matique Les auteurs ont int gr l instrument des documents non recens s dans les ouvrages couvrant les p riodes ant rieures 1948 1965 1966 1975 1976 1980 Mississauga Portraits Donald B.
