Educating for Global Responsibility Betty Reardon, 1988

Educating for Human Dignity Betty A.

Reardon, 2010-08-03 Issues of universal human rights are critically important topics in education today Educators scholars and activists urge schools to promote awareness and understanding of human rights in their curricula from the earliest levels Written by by Betty A Reardon one of the foremost scholars on human rights education for the primary and secondary levels Educating for Human Dignity is designed for both teachers and teacher educators It is the first resource offering both guidance and support materials for human rights education programs from kindergarten through high school It opens possibilities for an holistic approach to human rights education that directly confronts the values issues raised by human rights problems in a context of global interrelationships

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah

Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria
