Education And Social Emancipation:

Education and Social Emancipation B.J. Hake, 1975-10-31 Student Engagement, Higher Education, and Social Justice Corinna Bramley, Keith Morrison, 2022-12-30

Student engagement is a catch all term irresistible to educators and policy makers and serving many agendas and purposes This ground breaking book provides a powerful theory of student engagement rooted in critical theory and social justice It sets out a compelling argument for student engagement to promote social justice and to repel neoliberalism in and through higher education addressing three key questions Student engagement in what Student engagement for what Student engagement for whom The answers draw on Habermas Honneth Gramsci Foucault and Giroux in examining ideology power recognition resistance and student engagement with examples drawn from across the world It sets out key features limitations and failures of neoliberalism in higher education and indicates how student engagement can resist it Student engagement calls for higher education institutions to be sites for challenge debate on values and power action for social justice and for students to engage in the struggle to resist neoliberalism taking action to promote social justice democracy and the public good This book is essential reading for educators researchers managers and students in higher education social scientists and social theorists It is a call to reawaken higher education for social justice human rights democracy and freedoms

Education for Democracy 2.0, 2021-01-04 Winner of the 2022 AESA Critics Choice Book Award Winner of the 2022 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award This diverse and global collection of scholars educators and activists presents a panorama of perspectives on media education and democracy in a digital age Drawing upon projects in both the formal and non formal education spheres the authors contribute towards conceptualizing developing cultivating building and elaborating a more respectful robust and critically engaged democracy Given the challenges our world faces it may seem that small projects programs and initiatives offer just a salve to broader social and political dynamics but these are the types of contestatory spaces openings and initiatives that enable participatory democracy This book provides a space for experimentation and dialogue and a platform for projects and initiatives that challenge or supplement the learning offered by traditional forms of education The Foreword is written by Divina Frau Meigs Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris and the Postscript by Roberto Apirici and David Garc a Mar n UNED Madrid Contributors are Roberto Aparici Adelina Calvo Salvador Paul R Carr Colin Chasi Sandra L Cuervo Sanchez Laura D Olimpio Milena Droumeva Elia Fernandez Diaz Ellen Field Michael Forsman Divina Frau Meigs Aquilina Fueyo Gutierrez David Garc a Mar n Tania Goitandia Moore Jos Gutierrez Perez Ignacio Haya Salm n Bruno Salvador Hernandez Levi Michael Hoechsmann Jennifer Jenson Maria Korpijaakko Sirkku Kotilainen Emil Marmol Mar a Dolores Olvera Lobo Tania Ouariachi Mari Pienim ki Anna Renfors Ylva Rodney Gumede Carlos Rodriguez Hoyos Mar Rodriguez Romero Tafadzwa Rugoho Juha Suoranta Gina Th se Robyn M Tierney Robert C Williams and Mar a Luisa Zorrilla Abascal

History and Educational Philosophy for Social Justice and Human Rights Chowdhury, Jahid Siraz, Vadevelu, Kumarashwaran, Zakaria, A.F.M., Al-Mamun, Abdullah, Ahmed,

Sajib,2024-03-22 In the complex landscape of educational philosophy and policy a difficult challenge arises the entwined issues of racism and other demographic differences and evolving education policies Traditional historical accounts fall short of addressing the broader historical patterns that underscore these challenges particularly their colonial legacy The need for a fresh perspective becomes evident one that transcends chronology and delves into the intricate dynamics shaping contemporary educational thought History and Educational Philosophy for Social Justice and Human Rights emerges as a groundbreaking solution to this conundrum Through a broad developmental and historical lens the book provides a fresh perspective on the role of differences as the core content and subject of education It advocates for cultural resistance and a permanent political struggle by political cultural minorities and social movements while also challenging public institutions especially schools to actively embrace and utilize differences in their foundational work By engaging with the tensions and struggles around differences the book contends that institutions can transform becoming agents of positive change and contributing to the foundation of an inclusive and participatory democracy This book invites scholars and educators to not only understand the challenges but to actively participate in shaping a future where differences are not merely acknowledged but celebrated within the realms of education and society at large

Social Justice Education in European Multi-ethnic Schools Cinzia Pica-Smith,Rina Manuela Contini,Carmen N. Veloria,2018-11-20 Europe is a multi ethnic society experiencing a rise of anti immigration racist xenophobic discourses and right wing political rhetoric and movements proposing legislation to further solidify structural inequality and institutionalized systems of oppression that fuel educational inequities Social Justice Education in European Multi ethnic Schools brings together researchers in the fields of sociology and education to examine debates in multicultural education Drawing on critical theory the book takes an in depth look at how these challenges are being addressed or not addressed in educational contexts and in the proposed framework of intercultural education adopted as a conceptual and educational framework by the European Union over the last two decades The book begins with an analysis of the sociological models and theories of migration and their connection to multiculturalism and interculturalism It engages in the current debate between multiculturalism and interculturalism bringing to light the political rhetoric that fueled narratives about the failures of multiculturalism which ushered in the intercultural framework It puts forth a critical analysis of interculturalism linking it to neoliberalism and policies of civic integration and the concept of governmentality Advocating for a transformative framework informed in social justice education that aims to promote more equity in schools it critically analyzes and discusses intercultural education the pedagogical extension of interculturalism as per the European documents highlighting its goals pedagogies tensions and challenges Social Justice Education in European Multi ethnic Schools will be of great interest to academics researchers and scholars in the fields of intercultural multicultural and transformative education

Education and Humanism Wiel Veugelers,2011-11-16 Human beings have the possibility to give meaning to their lives and to create coherence in experiences Present day humanism strongly focuses on personal development in relation to others It is this tension between personal development and advancement of humanization that is creating the opportunities for the personal development of every world citizen Humanism is about personal autonomy moral responsibility and about solidarity with humanity The tension between autonomy and social involvement is the core of humanism Education can support persons in their moral and personal identity development The authors brought together in this book all address issues of developing autonomy and humanity in educational practices All the chapters try to link theory and practice They either make theoretical ideas more practical or they use practical experiences and concerns to rethink theoretical notions Together the chapters in the book give a broad overview of theoretical foundations concrete research and practices in education The book shows a diversity that can inspire scholars and practitioners in further developing their perspectives Creating meaning is an essential part of all education Focusing on the linking of autonomy and humanity is the humanist perspective in it Boaventura and Education Inês Barbosa de Oliveira, 2017-06-09 This book examines the work of the leading critical and decolonial intellectual Boaventura de Sousa Santos and its impact on education in general and curriculum in particular The volume brings to the table crucial itinerant theoretical rivers of thought in order to examine and understand the crises of modernity and their consequences The author insightfully articulates Sousa Santos major arguments prudent knowledge decent life sociology of absences and epistemicide among others to unpack some of the major issues facing the contemporary critical terrain In so doing she examines how Sousa Santos retools the critical emancipatory educational project towards a more just and participatory democratic society Boaventura de Sousa Santos groundbreaking theories on epistemology politics and society are weaved into brilliant focus against the backdrop of educational practice What emerges is a powerful expos of political tensions contestations and ruptures inherent to the struggle against the persistent colonizing forces in the lives of oppressed populations Central to this decolonizing treatise are the paradigmatic transformations essential to an education truly in the service of democratic life Antonia Darder Levey Endowed Chair of Ethics that is more just democratic and united Jurjo Torres Santom Professor Universidade de A Coruña Spain In her work of art precision and clarity on the work of Boaventura Inês Barbosa de Oliveira offers us a new framework with which to analyze and critically understand education Oliveira's Boaventura and Education is a fundamental tool for thinking critically for all those who oppose the mental paralysis that harasses us Jos Félix Angulo Rasco Professor of Education University of Cadiz Spain Professor of Education Universidad Católica de Valparaíso Chile EDUCATION AND SOCIAL EMANCIPATION : SOME IMPLICATIONS FOR GENERAL SECONDARY EDUCATION TOWARDS THE YEAR 2000 Barry J. Hake, 1975 2.1 Evolution of Indian Education Credits:4 Semester: S-1 KHRITISH SWARGIARY, 2025-04-03 As the author of Evolution of Indian Education I am delighted to present this comprehensive text meticulously crafted for the ITEP 4 year Undergraduate Programme FYUP In an era where the role of an educator is constantly evolving it is paramount for aspiring teachers to not only grasp contemporary pedagogical practices but also to deeply understand the historical currents that have shaped our educational landscape This book embarks on an enlightening journey through the annals of Indian education from the profound wisdom of ancient Gurukuls to the transformative vision of Education 4.0 and the National Education Policy 2020 Our aim is to foster a nuanced understanding among student teachers enabling them to locate themselves effectively within the broader educational ecosystem By exploring the genesis vision and evolution of education in India from the Vedic period through the Mauryan Gupta colonial and post independence eras we seek to provide a robust historical perspective Furthermore this text highlights the invaluable contributions of towering Indian thinkers such as Savitribai and Jyotiba Phule Rabindranath Tagore Swami Vivekananda Mahatma Gandhi and Dr Bhim Rao Ambedkar whose philosophies continue to inspire and guide our educational endeavors Ultimately this book is not merely a historical account it is a vital tool designed to empower student teachers to critically analyze educational paradigms anticipate future developments and most importantly to shape their own educational perspectives to act as effective and impactful educators in the 21st century

Rethinking Education and Emancipation Nataša Lacković,Igor Cvejic,Predrag Krstić,Olga Nikolić,2024-03-24 This edited collection responds to the contemporary need for deeper analysis and rethinking of the relation between education and emancipation in a world beset by social digital educational and ecological crises Among the diverse interdisciplinary perspectives explored are rethinking the Anthropocene in the time of environmental emergency the concept of relational thinking as emancipatory practice and a more encompassing concept of relational pedagogy that includes questions about the environment and digitalisation the notion of indoctrination from the perspective of political education reconnecting with the body as a form of emancipatory education and how schools reproduce socio cultural ideologies in synergy with material and visual culture The book chapters also consider the role of social media postcolonialism and feminism in understanding emancipatory education and a historical reception of John Dewey's ideas in other than Western contexts This volume will be of interest to those seeking well known as well as further and novel acquaintance with the philosophical and critical issues surrounding different forms and ideas of emancipation and or through education including related practical propositions and examples Educators scholars in education social justice philosophy sociology and curriculum developers will find this collection valuable in contemplating practising and theorising the futures of emancipatory education across contexts and themes
