Excerpt from Education for Life The Story of Hampton Institute Told in Connection With the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Foundation of the School
The Pilots of Hampton I Into what storms of sharp adversity Our untried venture first put out to sea
As new launched ships their distant harbors seek Beyond the eddies of the Chesapeake What ancient feuds sprang up to bar her way Like angry seas that surge across the Bay What perils met the course she had to shape Like gales that lurk beyond the sheltering Cape Yet through the tortuous channels of his time With fearless foresight and with faith sublime In risks rejoicing and by truth made free Our pilot steered us toward our destiny II With precious lives deep laden hastening home
Her canvas lifting and her bow a foam Our vessel answers to the hand that steers Straight to the harbor of her fifty years Serene the inward pilot is and wise To Mark the portents of the sea and skies As one who running for the Capes once more Sights the low land marks of Virginia s shore So through her calms and storms of ill and good Our ship has weathered life s vicissitude Her outward voyage beset by hostile seas Her homeward passage with a following breeze III Here then she waits for new adventurings And restless at her straining cable swings While eagerly her new commander hears His summons to explore the uncharted years Through the swift currents of the coming age Clear be his sight and sure his pilotage Strong be his faith and loyal be his crew And firm the hand that holds his rudder true Blow winds of God like the unswerving Trades While he fares sea ward and the coast line fades Pacing his deck to know that all is well Daring as Armstrong prudent as

Education for Life: the Story of Hampton Institute, Told in Connection with the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Foundation of the School ... Illustrated Francis Greenwood PEABODY,1918 The Oxford History of Popular Print Culture Gary Kelly,Joad Raymond,Christine Bold,2011 Planned nine volume series devoted to the exploration of popular print culture in English from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the present History of Education: Studies of education systems Roy Lowe,2000 Education for Extinction David Wallace Adams,2020-06-10 The last Indian War was fought against Native American children in the dormitories and classrooms of government boarding schools Only by removing Indian children from their homes for extended periods of time policymakers reasoned could white civilization take root while childhood memories of savagism gradually faded to the point of extinction In the words of one official Kill the Indian and save the man This fully revised edition of Education for Extinction offers the only comprehensive account of this dispiriting effort and incorporates the last twenty five years of scholarship Much more than a study of federal Indian policy this book vividly details the day to day experiences of Indian youth living in a total institution designed to reconstruct them both psychologically and culturally The assault on identity came in many forms the shearing off of braids the assignment of new names uniformed drill routines humiliating punishments relentless attacks on native religious beliefs patriotic indoctrinations suppression of tribal languages Victorian gender rituals football contests and industrial training Especially poignant is Adams s description of the ways in which students resisted or accommodated themselves to forced assimilation Many converted to varying degrees but others plotted escapes committed arson and devised ingenious strategies of passive resistance Adams also argues that many of those who seemingly cooperated with the system were more than passive players in this drama that the response of accommodation was not synonymous with cultural surrender This is especially apparent in his analysis of students who returned to the reservation He reveals the various ways in which graduates struggled to make sense of their lives and selectively drew upon their school experience in negotiating personal and tribal survival in a world increasingly dominated by white men The discussion comes full circle when Adams reviews the government s gradual retreat from the assimilationist vision Partly because of persistent student resistance but also partly because of a complex and sometimes contradictory set of progressive humanitarian and racist motivations policymakers did eventually come to view boarding schools less enthusiastically Based upon extensive use of government archives Indian and teacher autobiographies and school newspapers Adams s moving account is essential reading for scholars and general readers alike interested in Western history Native American studies American race relations education history and multiculturalism Living Church ,1918

Lee,2017-12-10 While public debates over America s current foreign policy often treat American empire as a new phenomenon this lively collection of essays offers a pointed reminder that visions of national and imperial greatness were a cornerstone of the new country when it was founded In fact notions of empire have long framed debates over western expansion Indian removal African slavery Asian immigration and global economic dominance and they persist today despite the proliferation of anti imperialist rhetoric In fifteen essays distinguished historians examine the central role of empire in American race relations nationalism and foreign policy from the founding of the United States to the twenty first century The essays trace the global expansion of American merchant capital the rise of an evangelical Christian mission movement the dispossession and historical erasure of indigenous peoples the birth of new identities and the continuous struggles over the place of darker skinned peoples in a settler society that still fundamentally imagines itself as white Full of transnational connections and cross pollinations of people appearing in unexpected places the essays are also stories of people being put quite literally in their place by the bitter struggles over the boundaries of race and nation Collectively these essays demonstrate that the seemingly contradictory processes of boundary crossing and boundary making are and always have been intertwined Contributors James T Campbell Brown University Ruth Feldstein Rutgers University Newark Kevin K Gaines University of Michigan Matt Garcia Brown University Matthew Pratt Guterl Indiana University George Hutchinson Indiana University Matthew Frye Jacobson Yale University Prema Kurien Syracuse University Robert G Lee Brown University Eric Love University of Colorado Boulder Melani McAlister George Washington University Joanne Pope Melish University of Kentucky Louise M Newman University of Florida Vernon J Williams Jr Indiana University Natasha Zaretsky Southern Illinois University Carbondale
