

DECISION-MAKING SKILLS

DEFINITION

Decision-making is the process of selecting a course of action among several available options. It involves evaluating and analyzing the benefits and risks of each choice. This cognitive process is vital for problem-solving, planning, and achieving desired outcomes. Effective decision-making often requires gathering information and assessing potential impacts.

EXAMPLES

- Critical Thinking: This aids decision-making by allowing you to analyze, evaluate, and interpret information objectively, leading to more informed choices.
- Cost-Benefit Analysis: This assists in decision-making by quantifying and comparing the anticipated costs and benefits of an action.

Education A Time For Decisions:

The Role of Leaders in Educational Decision-Making Nancy H. Matthews, 2023-07-21 This book presents insights into the experiences and perspectives of educators in formal positions of leadership involved in decision making processes in an education system Drawing on qualitative research conducted in the New Brunswick education system the author identifies factors in the decision making process which influence whether or not a decision is implemented Probing what is required for effective decision making defined as decision making that results in implementation the book examines not only the role of formal educational leaders of schools administrators but also the roles played by district and department of education formal leaders It uses five central themes that surfaced from research to develop a novel leadership model for ensuring implantation of decisions These include knowledge and skill collaboration and communication balance of autonomy accountability and direction political and bureaucratic considerations and strong moral imperative The newfound model is presented in the form of antecedent steps to the decision making process Extending the literature by offering new empirically grounded insights for influencing the likelihood of implementation following a decision making process it will appeal to leaders scholars and students of educational leadership and reform

Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 1992-12 Entrustable Professional Activities and Entrustment Decision-Making in Health Professions Education Olle ten Cate, Vanessa C. Burch, H. Carrie Chen, Fremien Chihchen Chou, Marije P. Hennis, 2024-10-29 This book discusses the ins and outs of a new approach to competency based education in the education and training of health professionals including doctors and medical specialists but also nurses dentists pharmacists veterinarians physiotherapists and others Embedded in a conceptual discussion of what competence in health professionals means the book discusses theoretical foundations of trust and entrustment of trainees with the practice of patient care tasks It elaborates the implications for identifying the objectives of training formulated as entrustable professional activities EPAs for the associated curriculum development for assessment of trainees in the clinical workplace for faculty development and for the management of large scale change in health professions education In the past decade EPAs have been proposed piloted or implemented in all sectors of health professions education and in countries across all continents Yet there is a widely felt desire for a better understanding of all related concepts This text was written with teachers educational managers educational scholars and health profession trainees in mind The book is the result of a collaboration of fifty highly engaged authors all actively involved in their own projects and studies around EPAs and workplace based assessment as teachers developers and managers All chapters have been critically read and commented on by internal and external reviewers making this work a state of the art document about the topic

Fundamentals and Frontiers of Medical Education and Decision-Making Jordan Richard Scheonherr, Meghan McConnell, 2024-07-22 Fundamentals and Frontiers of Medical Education and Decision Making brings together international experts to consider the theoretical practical and sociocultural foundations of health professions education In this volume the authors review the foundational theories that have informed the early transition to competency based education Moving beyond these monolithic models the authors draw from learning and psychological sciences to provide a means to operationalize competencies The chapters cover fundamental topics including the transition from novices to experts the development of psychomotor skills in surgery the role of emotion and metacognition in decision making and how practitioners and laypeople represent and communicate health information Each section provides chapters that integrate and advance our understanding of health professions education and decision making Grounded in psychological science this book highlights the fundamental issues faced by healthcare professionals and the frontiers of learning and decision making It is important reading for a wide audience of healthcare professionals healthcare administrators as well as researchers in judgment and decision making

Higher Education, Place, and Career Development Rosie Alexander, 2024-11-21 Drawing connections between the findings of a research project following young graduates from the Scottish islands of Orkney and Shetland current international evidence and theoretical literature this book argues that understanding rural and island student transitions can expose the wider dynamics of place and mobility at play during student and early career experiences Highlighting the importance of a career perspective Rosie Alexander encourages readers to consider how career pathways develop across time and across transition points unsettling the notion of a straightforward transition through university into the workplace The book uncovers how student trajectories are developed through interweaving dynamics of relationships place and career routes and unpacks the implications for policymakers and practitioners It contends that a much greater spatial awareness is necessary to understand and support the educational and career pathways of higher education students This is a crucial read for higher education researchers policymakers and students interested in rurality as well as access to and transition from higher education

Educational Research and Innovation Promoting Education Decision Makers' Use of Evidence in Flanders Shewbridge Claire, Köster Florian, 2021-11-22 The introduction of standardised tests in Flemish schools aims to generate regular reliable data for educators and policy makers At an early stage of development this report uses a research based framework to engage stakeholders in thinking about the opportunities standardised tests could bring for their work

Handbook of the Economics of Education Eric Alan Hanushek, Finis Welch, 2006 The Handbooks in Economics series continues to provide the various branches of economics with handbooks which are definitive reference sources suitable for use by professional researchers advanced graduate students or by those seeking a teaching supplement With contributions from leading researchers each Handbook presents an accurate self contained survey of the current state of the topic under examination

These surveys summarize the most recent discussions in journals and elucidate new developments. Although original material is also included, the main aim of this series is the provision of comprehensive and accessible surveys. Every volume contains contributions from leading researchers. Each Handbook presents an accurate self-contained survey of a particular topic. The series provides comprehensive and accessible surveys. Critical Issues in Mathematics Education Philip Clarkson, Norma C. Presmeg, 2008-09-22. Critical Issues in Mathematics Education presents the significant contributions of Professor Alan Bishop within the mathematics education research community. Six critical issues, each of which have had paramount importance in the development of mathematics education research, are reviewed and include a discussion of current developments in each area. Teacher decision making, spatial visualizing, geometry, teachers and research, cultural social aspects of mathematics education, sociopolitical issues and values serve as the basic issues discussed in this examination of mathematics education over the last fifty years, during which Professor Bishop has been active in the field. A comprehensive discussion of each of these topics is realized by offering the reader a classic research contribution of Professor Bishop's together with commentary and invited chapters from leading experts in the field of mathematics education. Critical Issues in Mathematics Education will make an invaluable contribution to the ongoing reflection of mathematics education researchers worldwide but also to policy makers and teacher educators who wish to understand some of the key issues with which mathematics education has been and still is concerned and the context within which Professor Bishop's key contributions to these research issues were made.

AETS Yearbook, 1975. Supporting Real Time Decision-Making Frada Burstein, Patrick Brézillon, Arkady Zaslavsky, 2010-11-12. This volume of Annals of Information Systems will acknowledge the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the International Society for Decision Support Systems (ISDSS) by documenting some of the current best practices in teaching and research and envisioning the next twenty years in the decision support systems field. The volume is intended to complement existing DSS literature by offering an outlet for thoughts and research particularly suited to the theme of describing the next twenty years in the area of decision support. Several subthemes are planned for the volume. One subtheme draws on the assessments of internationally known DSS researchers to evaluate where the field has been and what has been accomplished. A second subtheme of the volume will be describing the current best practices of DSS research and teaching efforts. A third subtheme will be an assessment by top DSS scholars on where the DSS discipline needs to focus in the future. The tone of this volume is one of enthusiasm for the potential contributions to come in the area of DSS contributions that must incorporate an understanding of what has been accomplished in the past, build on the best practices of today and be integrated into future decision making practices. Decision Sciences and Technology for Globalisation (ISDSI_2008) B.S. Sahay, Jeet N.D. Gupta, Surinder Batra, Sanjay Kumar, Sushil Kumar, 2008-11-05. It is not uncommon to find books and other publications in the literature dealing individually with the subjects of decision sciences, technology and globalisation. However, there are very few instances of books which integrate these three dimensions in an umbrella framework This publication is one such attempt This book comprises of 58 papers contributed by leading academia from universities and management institutes in India and abroad Many of the contributions have come from USA Canada UK Japan Australia New Zealand UAE Bahrain Taiwan Brazil and Mexico adding to the rich diversity of the thought processes explored in the papers Some of these papers are country specific while some others provide a transnational perspective Also while some papers provide enriched conceptual frameworks in specific disciplines building upon existing frameworks several other papers provide application oriented coverage focused at select organizations or industries further adding unique value to this book There are eight sections in the book namely Supply Chain Management Operations Management Information Systems ICT IT E Business Strategies Business Modeling Global Business Issues Challenges Marketing and Globalisation New Paradigms in Education and Globalisation The issues touched upon by various papers within each section are diverse and yet highly relevant and contemporary We believe this book would be useful not only to academia research scholars and students of various disciplines of management but also to those in the industry in India and abroad who are seeking conceptual inputs and experience sharing in their respective positions

Neoliberal Education Reform Sarah A. Robert, 2015-08-11 The restructuring of teaching is a global issue the result of a transnational movement of policy Gender shapes the occupational reform and binds the global to the local movement of reform ideas Gender is also implicated in how policy is done and how it leads to particular outcomes This volume examines the behind the scenes work done to make sense of reform and implement it during the workday and questions the new forms and controls over teaching reforms the labor process revealed to understand the implications of neoliberal education reform on teachers work Based on ethnographic research undertaken at public high schools in Argentina this volume introduces the everyday work lives of teachers It includes interviews and observations revealing what it means to be a teacher in the reform context and explores the ways masculinities and femininities shape teachers decision making about reforms At a time when teachers are at the center of political controversy around the world this volume is an important reminder that school change is about changing the work of teachers
