Nordtveit,2016-04-20 In 1900 the Swedish social theorist Ellen Key launched the idea of a Century of the Child Recent media reports from shooting and racial violence in the US to the latest news from ISIS dominated areas provide a darker vision it is certainly not a time for children it is a time during which children s wellbeing is being the cause of worry This book is about schools and protection of children and proposes ways to ensure the minimum standards of safety in schools The issue of protection is not only important in specific conflict settings but also more and more in mainstream schools in the Western context Therefore the book is not focusing on a specific geographic area but analyzing various contexts of adversity including those affected by poverty high incidence of HIV AIDS as well as conflict and post conflict affected areas It also illustrates the effects of such contexts non enrollment of children or early dropout from school various forms of abuse and bullying at home and school increased incidence of child marriage abusive child labor and in some cases the worst forms of child labor The school emerges as an institution that could play a stronger role in protection of children and that also could provide better support in the transition from childhood to work and marriage Social Sciences and Innovation OECD,2001-06-05 These workshop proceedings examine the contribution of the social sciences to improving our understanding of social and technological innovation processes to overcoming barriers to innovation and how innovation can improve social science

Sex Without Consent Shireen J Jejeebhoy,Iqbal Shah,Shyam Thapa,2013-07-04 The pressing need to break the silence on non consensual sex among young people an issue shrouded by denial underreporting and stigma is self evident Despite the growing body of research regarding young people s sexual behaviours the study of coercive sexual experiences has generally been overlooked by both researchers and national programmes Available evidence has been scattered and unrepresentative and despite this evidence non consensual sex among young people is perceived to be a rare occurrence This volume dispels any such misconception It presents a disturbing picture of non consensual sex among girls as well as boys and among married as well as unmarried young women in a variety of settings This volume documents moreover the expanse of non consensual experiences that young people face from unwanted touch to forced penetrative sex and gang rape Although the focus is on young females the volume also sheds light on the experience of young males as both victims and perpetrators This pioneering volume highlights key factors placing young people at risk whilst outlining the significant distinctive health and social implications they face Sex Without Consent also documents the unsupportive and sometimes abusive or negligent roles of families teachers health care providers and law enforcement agents outlines promising efforts intended to prevent non consensual sex or support survivors and argues for profound changes in norms and values that tolerate or encourage non consensual sex The editors based at the Population Council New Delhi the World Health Organization Geneva and Family Health International Virginia argue compellingly for a radical review and reform of existing programmes designed to prevent this kind of abuse and to support young survivors of sexual trauma in the developing world Addressing the magnitude determinants and consequences of sex without consent this volume provides evidence based directions for programming
