Religious Experience and Experiencing Religion in Religious Education Ulrich Riegel, Eva-Maria Leven, Daniel Fleming, 2018 In Europe religious and spiritual education happens in a context which is at the same time increasingly secular and religiously plural This places the problem of religious experience on the agenda Today most students of religious and spiritual education lack appropriate experiences and show different opinions about what religion or spirituality could be This setting raises several questions How can religious experience be conceptualized in a context of religious plurality and secularity with the traditional religious traditions as just one option among others How does lived religion contribute to such a conceptualization Do the concepts of spirituality and implicit religion give way to a new understanding of religious experience How can be grasped religious experience beyond the traditional religious practices Do traditional empirical methods still fit Which concepts and methods can we utilize in bringing religious experience into religious or spiritual education The Praeger Handbook of Religion and Education in the United States James C. Wilna A.J. Meijer,Siebre Miedema,Alma Lanser-van der Velde,2009 This volume brings together a selection of papers presented at the Fifteenth Session of the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values ISREV which took place in 2006 in Driebergen the Netherlands addressing the theme Religious Education in a World of Religious Diversity The authors were invited to combine the concept of diversity with the dimensions of temporality of time and history in reworking their contributions for this book This temporal aspect is in a sense inherent in educational thinking On the one hand education as intergenerational transmission has a conservative aspect tradition being what is actually and presently transmitted from the past and or what is considered worthwhile to be passed on On the other hand acknowledging the activity of students themselves as a prerequisite for any education to happen brings the open endedness and therefore the future into the pedagogical arena in terms of development learning reflection edification et cetera So the question answered in this volume is what does this inherent historicity mean for religious education as well as for the concept religion and religious diversity In answering this question the contributions represent the global character of the concern with religious diversity in relation to religious education and originate respectively from the following countries Canada Bhikkhu English United States Moran Latvia Ilishko Russia Kozyrev Germany Pirner South Africa Roux du Preez Ferguson Japan Omori Australia de Souza Turkey Sel uk and the Netherlands Meijer Miedema Religion in Education Joyce Miller, Kevin O'Grady, Ursula McKenna, 2013-04-02 This volume explores numerous themes including the influence of ethnography on religious education research and pedagogy the interpretive approach to religious education the relationship between research and classroom practice in religious education providing a critique of contemporary religious education and exploring the implications of this critique for initial and continuing teacher education Islamic Religious Education in Europe Leni Franken, Bill Gent, 2021-03-31 Against the backdrop of labour migration and the ongoing refugee crisis the ways in which Islam is taught and engaged with in educational settings has become a major topic of contention in Europe Recognising the need for academic engagement around the challenges and benefits of effective Islamic Religious Education IRE this volume offers a comparative study of curricula teaching materials and teacher education in fourteen European countries and in doing so explores local national and international complexities of contemporary IRE Considering the ways in which Islam is taught and represented in state schools public Islamic schools and non confessional classes Part One of this volume includes chapters which survey the varying degrees to which fourteen European States have adopted IRE into curricula and considers the impacts of varied teaching models on Muslim populations Moving beyond individual countries approaches to IRE chapters in Part Two offer multi disciplinary perspectives from the hermeneutical critical to the postcolonial to address challenges posed by religious teachings on issues such as feminism human rights and citizenship and the ways these are approached in European settings Given its multi faceted approach this book will be an indispensable resource for postgraduate students scholars stakeholders and policymakers working at the intersections of religion education and policy on religious education

Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana Yonah Matimba, Richardson Addai-Mununkum, 2021-03-15 Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana contributes to the literature on opportunities and complexities of inclusive approaches to Religious Education RE It analyses how RE in Malawi and Ghana engages with religious pluralisation and provides a compelling case for the need to re evaluate current approaches in the conceptualisation curriculum design and delivery of RE in schools in Malawi and Ghana The book explains how a pervasive tradition of selection involving exclusion and inclusion of religion in RE leads to misrepresentation and in turn to misclusion of non normative religions where religion is included but marginalized and misrepresented The book contributes to wider discourse of RE on opportunities as well as complexities of post confessional approaches including the need for RE to avoid perpetuating the continued legitimisation of selected religions and in the process the delegitimization of the religious other as a consequence of misrepresentation and misclusion Inspired by Braten s methodology for comparative studies in RE the book draws on two qualitative studies from Malawi and Ghana to highlight the pervasive problems of religious misclusion in RE This book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of RE African education educational policy international education and comparative education

International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Kathleen Engebretson,Robert Jackson,Andrew McGrady,2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it as today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world
