Keller, 2000-06 The most impressive thing about Wayne Keller s body of ideas for worship throughout the Christian Year is his boldness He is bold in demanding that we his colleagues in liturgical leadership plan worship that has to do with the reality of our congregations experience in the world rather than just leading people through a proper agenda of acts and words that have no bearing on what we do the rest of the week He is bold in challenging us to bring that real world with its pains and its pleasures its hungers and its feasts its beauty and its ugliness to exposure before the living God And he is bold in helping us shine the strong exposing light of the transforming Word on our real lives and on that real world so that we may move beyond planning worship as a nice safe feel good routine from which we depart the same people we were when we arrived We are thrilled by the seriousness and authentic reverence with which this author approaches the planning of worship Thank God for Wayne Keller and for his deep respect for the central act of the Christian community the blessed and life transforming experience of the worship of God Richard Avery and Donald Marsh Port Jervis New York Wayne Keller s method creates not only a contemporary appeal but also effects a congregational involvement so necessary today within the liturgical context His approach is fresh and practical and yet a reflection consistently of a solid liturgical and homiletical background Keller has the ability to appeal to the everydayness of congregational experience Donald Macleod Francis L Patton Professor Emeritus Princeton Theological Seminary The good humor of Wayne Keller s work helps us feel at home in our imperfect world and feel more empathy for the rough edges of others and ourselves Wayne s work encourages hope and faith with the way we are Doug Adams Professor of Christianity and the Arts Pacific School of Religion and Graduate Theological Union A cascade of insights ideas suggestions and plans for stimulating the working pastor s imagination and guiding in worship planning Robert Coote Professor San Francisco Theological Seminary Editor Mustard Seed Churches Wayne Keller elevates us to an authentic bring your warts and smiles encounter with the living God a remarkable year round resource for the entire worship team Paul

Hackett Former pastor and member First Presbyterian Church Puyallup Washington Keller says I have seen people bored to death in worship seemingly because they come to worship as spectators not as participants For me no spectators are allowed Soren Kierkegaard s analogy of worship as drama has guided my thinking and planning Wayne H Keller graduated from Monmouth College in Monmouth Illinois and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary He has served pastorates in Pennsylvania Washington and Oregon and has also been the director of a halfway house for recovering mental patients A member of the Presbyterian Writers Guild Keller has published several books and numerous articles and has been a columnist for the Bellingham Herald He has also appeared frequently on radio and television programs and co hosted a call in counseling program and talk show Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 The Paulist Liturgy Planning Guide Lawrence Boadt,Celine M. Brown, 2012-05-03 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner A decade after the untimely death of renowned Scripture scholar Father Raymond E Brown SS he continues to inspire and inform scholars and preachers students and pastoral ministers lay and ordained It was only days after Father Brown s death that his final book was published by Liturgical Press That book Christ in the Gospels of the Ordinary Sundays completed his six volume series on preaching the Scriptures a series that had begun in the mid 1970s with the publication of his popular An Adult Christ at Christmas Those six volumes are collected here in one convenient commemorative edition to mark the tenth anniversary of Brown s death Brown s work is left largely untouched and readers will find that his wisdom is lasting Yet Brown being a scholar s scholar would recognize the need for some enhancement in a work being republished some thirty years after the first volume appeared Appropriately then this edition contains introductory essays by Brown s colleagues and friends John R Donahue SJ and Ronald D Witherup SS as well as useful indexes and a bibliography of resources for preaching the word of God in the context of the lectionary As Witherup notes in his preface Brown had the rare capacity to simplify complex biblical studies in a manner that did not dumb down the material but allowed it to be understood by a wide audience He did this in a fashion that was both inspiring and educational That very broad audience those who grew up with Brown so to speak as well as a whole new generation of readers and preachers of the word will find this book to be a source of inspiration and knowledge that they will turn to again and again Raymond E Brown S S 1928 1998 was the Auburn Distinguished Professor of Biblical Studies at Union Theological Seminary in New York City He was author of some forty books on the Bible and past president
