Good News From The Barrio Prophetic Witness For The Church:

Good News from the Barrio Harold Joseph Recinos, In a world divided by race ethnicity gender violence and hate Harold Recinos's Good News from the Barrio explores the ways in which the good news of the gospel is at work in Latino barrios He challenges Christians to listen to the gospel in these contexts and offer a prophetic witness to the nation and the church

Wading Through Many Voices Harold Recinos, 2011-04-16 Wading through Many Voices brings together the voices of Latino a African American Asian American Native American and Euro American scholars to produce a dialogue of public theology how faith communities divided by race class ethnicity and gender can find a common ground for life together The authors articulate a multiethnic perspective on public theology that counters the divisive identity politics of U S public life with systematic thinking that strengthens the commitment to critically transform social relations in light of a shared vision of public good The contributors develop a shared public theology that addresses social divisions while offering readers a broad vision to collaborate and struggle for an improved understanding of the common good for our pluralistic society In light of emerging social issues the contributors suggest that a fundamental respect for difference is a required first value for living together in a common social and political space Constructing Solidarity for a Liberative Ethic T. Day, 2012-11-09

Constructing Solidarity offers a critical path toward the transformation of white worldviews theologies ethics and praxis for scholars activists religious leaders and those seeking guidance

The Lord Roars (Theological Explorations for the Church Catholic) M. Daniel Carroll R., 2022-08-16 The world cries out for a prophetic word to the chaos unrest and destructiveness of our times Can the biblical prophets speak into our world today Old Testament ethicist M Daniel Carroll R shows that learning from the prophets can make us better prepared for Christian witness In this guide to the ethical material of Old Testament prophetic literature Carroll highlights key ethical concerns of the three prophets most associated with social critique Amos Isaiah and Micah showing their relevance for those who wish to speak with a prophetic voice today The book focuses on the pride that generates injustice and the religious life that legitimates an unacceptable status quo both of which bring judgment as well as the ethical importance of the visions of restoration after divine judgment Each of these components in the biblical text makes its own particular call to readers to respond in an appropriate manner The book also links biblical teaching with prophetic voices of the modern era

A Future for the Latino Church Daniel A. Rodriguez, 2011-05-04 Daniel Rodriguez argues that effective Latino ministry and church planting is now centered in second generation English dominant leadership and congregations Based on his observation of cutting edge Latino churches across the country Rodriguez reports on how innovative congregations are ministering creatively to the next generations of Latinos

Beyond the Pale Miguel A. De La Torre, Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, 2011-01-01 How should Origen Anselm Luther Wesley Kierkegaard Barth and Whitehead be read today in light of postcolonial theory and twenty first century understandings This book offers a reader friendly introduction to liberation theology by having scholars from the margins explore how questions of race and gender should be brought to bear on thirty classic theologians Each short chapter gives historical background for the thinker describes that thinker s most important contributions then raises issues of concern for women and persons of color Contributors include Rita Nakashima Brock Cheryl A Kirk Duggan Harold J Recinos M Shawn Copeland Kwok Pui Lan Joerg Rieger and many others

Engaging Latino/a/x Theologies Sharon E. Heaney, 2024-02-26 Sharon E Heaney describes how the life giving interruption of Latin American poets novelists artists and theologians changed her life in a conflict ridden Northern Ireland An outsider in this study she provides an engagement with a stream of theology in the United States she takes to be exemplary Latino a x theology is theolog a en conjunto collaborative theology It models ways to examine complicated and contested histories and identities and it resists dominant assumptions about theological points of departure in favor of also valuing the everyday as locus theologicus Identifying major themes and foundational thinkers alongside more recent developments Heaney offers an overview and invites readers to further reading study and formation Modelling what it esteems each chapter closes in conversation with a Latino a x leader in the church The conclusion is written by practical theologian Altagracia Prez Bullard She affirms this is not just an intellectual exercise this engagement is the practice of our lives as we journey with God and as we journey with one another It is an exciting journey It changes us

Story, Ritual, Prophecy, Wisdom Mark W. Hamilton, Samjung Kang-Hamilton, 2024-04-04 Christianity Today Book Awards Bible and Devotional Finalist 2025 Discover how studying the Bible can renew your church community How do we teach the Bible in a way that makes a real difference in our students lives and our communities Too often biblical introductions treat Scripture as a mere historical artifact Mark W Hamilton and Samjung Kang Hamilton combine their decades of experience in theological and religious education to devise a new way to teach Scripture that brings out its life giving qualities The authors show how Scripture has four modes story ritual prophecy and wisdom With an eye toward spiritual formation the authors explore examples of each of the four genres within the Bible and show how they address real needs in the life of the church today They also recommend how to incorporate contemporary tools like digital media alongside art music and other practices to draw wisdom from Scripture Combining multicultural sensitivity with ecumenical spirit this guidebook is ideal for educators and pastors seeking to renew their own Christian communities through biblical education

Decolonizing Preaching Sarah Travis, 2014-11-13 Colonialism and imperialism continue to impact the personal and social identities of North American preachers and listeners In Decolonizing Preaching Sarah Travis argues that sermons have a role in shaping the identity and ethics of listeners by helping them formulate responses to empire and colonization Travis employs postcolonial theories to provide important insights for the practice of preaching today She also turns to the social doctrine of the Trinity to offer a vision of the divine human community that effectively deconstructs colonizing discourse This book offers preachers and other practical theologians a gentle introduction to colonial history postcolonial theories and Social Trinitarian theology while equipping them with tools to decolonize preaching and strategies for preventing resisting and responding to colonizing discourse Travis effectively casts a vision of a perichoretic space in which preacher and listener encounter the living God in Trinity and are transformed reconciled and sent out to others in the church and beyond The Next Evangelicalism Soong-Chan Rah,2009-08-20 Soong Chan Rah calls the North American church to escape its Western cultural captivity and to embody a next evangelicalism that is diverse and multiethnic This prophetic report casts a vision for a dynamic evangelicalism that fully embodies the cultural realities of the twenty first century

Missiology ,2008 An international review Theological Perspectives for Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness A. Isasi-Diaz,M. Fulkerson,R. Carbine,2013-11-07 Rather than wield religion as a weapon or a ruse in irrational appeals the book attempts to reimagine a shared American mythos and ethos by reminding us of our shared stake in creating an America committed to the life of all peoples and species and to the full developments of our capabilities as an exercise of liberty Divino Compañero Sammy Alfaro,2010-09-01 Divino Companero explores the necessary foundations for constructing a Hispanic Pentecostal Christology Although traditionally Pentecostal Christologies have been anchored in a two nature Chalcedonian model Alfaro proposes that Spirit Christology is a more suitable paradigm for a Hispanic Pentecostal Christology provided it is grounded in the experience faith and worship of its community and oriented toward liberative praxis After reviewing the christological reflection of early Pentecostals and the contemporary turn to Spirit Christology Alfaro lays out the main components needed to construct a christological model born out of the Hispanic Pentecostal reality rooted in the broader Pentecostal christological imagination and informed by the Pentecostal way of doing theology Following this method Alfaro concludes the central metaphor of Hispanic Pentecostal Christology is El Divino Companero for in their pilgrimage through this world it is Jesus the Divine Companion who through the Spirit guides and nurtures his followers on their way back home At the Still Point Sarah Arthur,2011-06-01 This is a guide to prayer for the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time that long stretch from Pentecost to Advent However it is not an ordinary guide to prayer It does not contain readings from spiritual or devotional writings discussing spiritual or devotional things through discursive thought Rather it is a journey of the imagination guided by poets and authors both classic and contemporary who have known the things of God but speak in metaphor These are writers who tell the truth as Emily Dickinson put it but they tell it slant In not stating out loud what they know they have left much to our imaginations which is a way of saying they have trusted the Holy Spirit Voices on the Corner Harold J. Recinos,2015-11-06 Harold J Recinos is the son of a Guatemalan father and Puerto Rican mother who at age twelve was abandoned to New York City streets After living on the streets between the ages of twelve and sixteen Recinos met a Presbyterian minister who had discovered the God of the oppressed while active in civil rights marches in the 60s The minister took Recinos into his family helped him kick a heroin habit and enrolled him in school Voices on the Corner documents life at the edges of American society in ways that are both personal and universal in the human experience The poems provide a fresh insight into the existential experiences of people excluded from mainstream
