O'Rourke,1993-01-01 This book is O Rourke s first volume of nonfiction since his 1972 The Harrisburg 7 and the New Catholic Left which Garry Wills hailed as a clinical x ray of our society s condition That book prompted Herbert Mitgang to name O Rourke one of the finest writers of his generation Signs of the Literary Times provides new evidence for that assessment It brings together O Rourke s unique mixture of literary political and cultural criticism published periodically during the last twenty two years The collection ranges from autobiographical essays describing his generation s literary evolution to articles on free speech issues such as nude dancing and the Bush era NEA controversies as well as book reviews that provide a fresh and largely uncharted critical map of the period O Rourke is not only interested in genre bending and expansion but in persevering during this age of academic specialization as in his phrase a person of letters In the two decades between his first work of nonfiction and this volume O Rourke has published three highly acclaimed novels The

Changing the Images of Women in Selected Fiction by Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Sasikala Alagiri, 2017-11-21 Along with a range of socio cultural political and economic concerns the focus on self has been an inevitable assertion of writers during the last quarter of the twentieth century Individualistic in tone the contemporary women novelists are trying to portray realistically the predicament of modern women torn between the forces of tradition and modernity their sense of frustration and alienation the emotional and psychological turmoil and complexities of man women relationships and subtleties of feminine consciousness against the persistent patriarchal social set up Cognizant of the evils originating from patriarchy a positive sense of feminine identity has been recognized by them and the result is the emergence of a new woman in Indian society and its concept in the Indian English novel which has assumed a strident posture in the contemporary writings by women The shift from submission to assertion acquiescence to resistance and obedience to rebellion however has not been abrupt and effortless Women are still in the process of negotiation with different limiting factors and thresholds of patriarchy to claim their due space and affirm their identity The present study is an attempt to critically investigate the negotiations with cultural norms by the women characters in the selected novels by the contemporary novelists namely Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Almost all the women characters major and minor from the selected novels have been considered and positioned as per their ideological leanings and convictions under two thematic chapters namely Women in the Clutches of Traditional Norms and Tradition to Modernity The major issues around which the novels move education marriage gendered space and mother daughter relationships are taken up to put them within the contemporary social conditions in which women characters live The present book is divided into five chapters to make a critical and analytical study of the select novels of these contemporary Indian women writers in English The present work is focused on five selected novels Manju Kapur's Difficult Daughters Home and Custody and Anita Nair's Ladies Coup and Mistress

The Book of Kings V. N. Phillips, 1999 Much more than a simple portrait of a pioneer family this chronicle is actually a history of Bristol from a different perspective It would be virtually impossible to write a complete history of this city without including a record of the pioneer King family Likewise it would be very difficult to write of this family and not become involved in general Bristol history
