Waiting for the Electricity Christina Nichol,2014-06-26 In the republic of Georgia the Communists are long gone replaced by well by what Something much more confusing There are no jobs in the cities And when there are jobs employees aren t compensated And when they are compensated it s because the jobs are not strictly scrupulous In the village life goes on much as it always did but these days the homemade farmers cheese is giving way to the oil pipeline And as for romance in this strange confounding modern age the less said the better But there s one man in Georgia who remains unseduced by corruption unfazed by nostalgia and unable to abandon chivalry no matter how antiquated a notion it may be This man is Slims Achmed Makashvili a humble maritime lawyer and the hero of this brilliant novel When Slims discovers an application for an American small business internship program sponsored by Hillary Clinton he knows that he has found his calling In his letters to Senator Clinton Slims dreams of bringing efficiency opportunity and the American dream to his homeland even as his friends and relatives embrace decadence lethargy and a staggering array of unsavory business practices But when he finally gets to America specifically to utopian San Francisco where the streets are paved with quinoa Slims sees what reform and progress look like up close And suddenly his loud bickering family and his anguished joyful country no longer seem so grim A gleeful picaresque a visionary satire and a work of extraordinary empathy and imagination Waiting for the Electricity is a marvelously imaginative debut novel Merchants Record and Show Window, 1922

Trübner's American and Oriental Literary Record Nicolas Trübner, 1865 Trübner's American and Oriental Literary Record, 1865 Leap Forward Andrew Obara, 2017-10-13 This book was written for people who probably feel they never need it Its main purpose is to motivate and encourage the reader whoever and wherever they are that it is possible to rise up do better and excel as a person It is easy to get into the trap of daily painful existence blaming circumstances the environment other people and things around us for our negative outcomes in life None of us love to remain poor or insignificant We all want to achieve and attain status in life We all love to excel yet very few of us do The book argues with compelling stories and evidence from history science society and academiathat human destiny in its most crude form is like a garden When left alone a garden only grows with useless weeds but when good seeds are sown in it the ground is well cultivated the crops cared for and the garden teeming lively with crops that feed us well The author shares with the reader his personal experiences and those of scores of other people in the world to demonstrate the indomitable power of the human being to get better Spiced with easy witty poems and scores of true stories the book convinces the reader of their power to excel The book does this using sequential themes built around eight instructively captivating chapters as follows 1 Leap forward and get better 2 Use you power you are more powerful than you think 3 Pursue excellence it is your calling 4 Avoid mediocrity and all its roots 5 Accept that you are different 6 Dedicate yourself to service And when you do all these and you realize it is tough 7 Take heart the world seldom cheers excellence 8 Now do this and leap forward Illustrated
