Better Times Stories Ellen Olney Kirk, 1889      All We Have Is the Story James Kelman, 2024-04-30 Novelist playwright essayist and master of the short story Artist and engaged working class intellectual husband father and grandfather as well as committed revolutionary activist From his first publication a short story collection An Old Pub Near the Angel on a tiny American press through his latest novel God's Teeth and other Phenomena and work with Noam Chomsky Between Thought and Expression Lies a Lifetime both published on a slightly larger American press All We Have Is the Story chronicles the life and work to date of Probably the most influential novelist of the post war period The Times Drawing deeply on a radical tradition that is simultaneously political philosophical cultural and literary James Kelman articulates the complexities and tensions of the craft of writing the narrative voice and grammar imperialism and language art and value solidarity and empathy class and nation state and above all that it begins and ends with the story One of the things the establishment always does is isolate voices of dissent and make them specific unique if possible It's easy to dispense with dissent if you can say there's him in prose and him in poetry As soon as you say there's him him and her there and that guy here and that woman over there and there's all these other writers in Africa and then you've got Ireland the Caribbean suddenly there's this kind of mass dissent going on and that becomes something dangerous something that the establishment won't want people to relate to and go Christ you're doing the same as me Suddenly there's a movement going on It's fine when it's all these disparate voices you can contain that The first thing to do with dissent is say You're on your own you're a phenomenon I'm not a phenomenon at all I'm just a part of what's been happening in prose for a long long while James Kelman from a 1993 interview      Books for Boys and Girls in the Free Public Library, Newark, New Jersey ... Newark Public Library, 1912
